

SPAIN PUTS THINGS SQUARELY UP TO THE GERMAN GOVERNMENT

AMSTERDAM, via London, April 25.—The text of Spain's note to Germany as given in a Berlin dispatch, while conveying a grave warning that the end of Spanish patience was in sight, also contains a suggestion that a crisis may be averted through negotiation. The note said, in part:

"All the repeated attempts of the Spanish government, undertaken with the intention of safeguarding its sea traffic and the lives of its sailors, have failed in the face of the impetuous resolution of the imperial government to employ unusual and violent war measures."

The note also complains of the series of restrictions Germany has imposed on Spanish shipping without warning. It declares that these methods render the economic existence of Spain almost impossible. The note continues: "All these prove that German intentions neither aim at acknowledging our rights nor take into account, as they should, the requests of a country whose friendship until today was unshaken and whose neutrality was preserved without wavering."

"If the imperial government persists in declaring that it adheres to its determination in order to defend its life, it must not be astonished if Spain for the same reason must emphasize her right to defend her own life. Despite negative replies to its previous note, the German government still trusts that the German government will be guided by regard for the lives of our seamen."

"The Spanish government also hopes that the imperial government, fully appreciating the difficult economic situation in Spain, will enter into a discussion regarding measures which may be taken for the mitigation of the difficulties which have arisen in Spain."

BIG FOOD DRIVE TO BE PUT UNDER WAY HERE 48 HOURS ARE UP

PORTLAND, Or., April 25.—Within 48 hours the plans to increase Oregon's food supply and direct the production will be in operation. In less than that space of time details for systematic gardening and food conservation in Portland will be completed.

Under the direction President W. J. Kerr, of Oregon Agricultural college, the food problem will be worked out to the best advantage, the various volunteers, agencies and organizations of the state being welded into one food army. Funds necessary to finance the movement for the next month were raised this morning when President Kerr held his first meeting with the working committee.

Committee Named
The working committee consists of J. D. Farrell, president of the O. W. R. & N. Co.; Henry L. Corbett, president of the Portland Chamber of Commerce; H. H. Ward, president of the Oregon Patriotic Service league; Emory Olmstead, vice president of the Northwestern National bank; O. M. Plummer, manager of the Union stockyards; C. E. Spence, president of the state grange; J. D. Brown, president of the Farmers' union, and three others whose acceptance has not yet been received by Mr. Kerr.

This afternoon a conference was held by City Commissioner George L. Baker, the school board, the conservation committee of the Oregon Patriotic Service league, the Parent-Teacher association, the Oregon Equal Suffrage alliance and the Honor Guard, to consider a program for the city campaign which will be submitted to Director Hetsel, of the extension department, O. A. C. The city plan comes under five heads:

Five Heads
1—Garden organization, with the various organizations interested being assigned to a particular phase of the work and taking charge of a certain section of the city. Each section to be advised by specialists. This will prevent overlapping of work by various societies and organizations.
2—Home economics; dealing chiefly with information for housewives as to suitable foods, with a view to prevent extravagance and waste and later to the best methods of canning and preserving.

3—Labor; to canvass the city to ascertain who can work in the gardens and classify these workers for the labor for which they are best adapted.

Best Results
4—Publicity; the issuing of bulletins and the publication in the press of articles by experts on how to obtain the best results from gardens and what to grow and how to grow them.
5—Lectures; given by specialists before clubs, societies and meetings in neighborhoods.

President Kerr's plan is to increase the present number of county agents so that there will be at least one in every county; supplement these with 15 experts from the extension branch of the college; engage 23 assistants for the county agents; use 26 club leaders, 10 of them to be women, to organize garden and poultry clubs and work through the schools and other bodies; use the state press to give the widest publicity to the best methods of handling the food situation.

FOR SALE—7 helpers, address W. F. Mundhenke, Clackamas, Ore. Phone 16P21.

FOR SALE OR RENT—Vacant blacksmith shop. Good location. Apply J. C. Marquam or I. D. Larkins, Marquam, Oregon.

FOR SALE AT A BARGAIN—Three large, cheap work horses, also wagons, heavy and light, buggies and harness, plows, cultivators and barrows; also numerous other small tools. Walter's Stables, Oregon City.

AMERICAN EXPERTS INVENT BETTER GAS MASK FOR SOLDIERS

WASHINGTON, D. C. April 25.—Experiments made by the United States bureau of mines toward the saving of life from noxious gases in mines are now to be turned to the use of the army and navy in the perfection of gas masks, which, it is said, will be superior to any use on the battlefields of Europe.

The new apparatus, it is stated, is being now designed. One of the chief defects of the ordinary gas mask, it is said, is that it does not supply sufficient oxygen for more than moderate exertion, and rescue crews in mines, as well as soldiers attacked by gas, are compelled to proceed slowly and frequently to rest.

The new appliance is expected to enlarge the supply of oxygen to such an extent that the wearer, in the presence of gas, can still work or fight with a least an ordinary amount of bodily exertion without danger of collapse.

WHEAT HITS THE SKY WITH THE RECORD PRICE ON CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, April 25.—Wheat shot past all previous high records today on a market bare of offerings. May wheat rose 7 1/2 cents as compared with yesterday's close to $2.48; July 7 1/2 cents to $2.13 1/2, and September 7 1/2 to $1.89. Traders were somewhat impressed by a prediction credited to the minister of agriculture of Ontario that wheat would sell at $1 before it sold again at $2. Corn prices rose 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 cents.

This afternoon May wheat reached $2.50 a bushel and $2.51 1/2 was bid. Prices of wheat, corn and oats were all on the highest level in the history of the Board of Trade. At St. Louis another record was hung up in the sale of No. 2 red wheat for immediate delivery at $3 a bushel.
