Dorothy Say, who has been on the sick list for some time, is better.

Mrs. M. C. Young, has been appointed a member of the Woman's committee, for the fifth Liberty Loan drive, in this county.

Leah Wagner and James Say, students at U. of O. have been spending the spring vacation, at their home here.

Mrs. Ed Baker entertained the Red Cross, of Corral Creek, on Thursday.

Questionnaires have arrived at the different school districts, to be made out, and sent to the state historical society, as data from Clackamas county soldiers and sailors.

Elk Prairie

ELK PRAIRIE, March 27.—There are ten new homesteads in this part of District No. 313. After a non-official census of bachelors, bachelor maids, grandparents, and parents of children over and under school age we find one family having a son of school age. Although there are thirty sections of land in District 313 in Clackamas county besides a large area in Marion county, there are as yet not sufficient up-lis to form a district at this place much to the disappointment of those who have waited so long.

Joseph Kolshinski who has six children, three of whom are of school age stated that he had chosen an 80 acre homestead at the extreme end of the district, fearing if he filed on his real choice, his children might lose the advantages of school. Mr. Kolshinski received his education in Poland, where he was compelled to walk a long distance and realize the advantages of nearby schools. Mr. Kolshinski has moved his family from near Vancouver, Wash.

The Perry brothers, who have claims near the shingle camp, camped at the Fox place for a few days.

Wm. Lamb, who recently bought the Phillips place, has moved his family to their new home and is preparing to farm. Mr. Lamb was employed in a government arsenal in the east during the war period.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tidd will move to their claim soon. Mrs. Tidd and Mrs. Lamb are sisters.

Mr. Sullivan came out to his homestead but decided to obtain an extension of time until the roads improve. In some places between this point and the mill the axles drag upon the ground. Mr. Sullivan was on police duty in a powder factory during the war.

Wm. Kruger has bought some stock and brought it to his homestead on Butte Creek. Mr. Kruger would have been in the army had the war lasted four days longer.

Cruisers were here recently to view some of the heavy timber land belonging to a Wisconsin firm.

Union Mills

UNION MILLS, March 27.—Religious services, conducted by Rev. Williams of Molalla, were held at the school house Sunday afternoon, March 23, between the hours of three and four. Rev. Williams will be with us every Sunday afternoon at this hour. All are heartily invited to attend.

Debert. Husbands, just returned from eighteen months service overseas, visited Miss Mulvany Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. He also stopped at the school house where he was given a rousing welcome by former schoolmates. Mr. Husbands enlisted in the 10th Engineer Corps in July 1917 and was sent to France almost immediately. Later he was transferred to the 20th Engineers, with whom he returned in February. His brother, Arthur Husbands, has also returned after seeing some strenuous action abroad. We are proud to have been represented in the World War by such splendid fellows as these.

O. J. Culberson has been called to Texas by the serious illness of his mother, who resides there. Mrs. Culberson, Sr., who is 78 years old, has been in poor health for several months. Mr. Culberson took with him a valise of Oregon apples grown upon his fruit farm here.

The Sier family recently from Canada, were visited by Portland relatives Saturday and Sunday of this week.

and Mrs. W. H. Crittiser and daughter Julia spent the week end at the Mulvany home.

The eighth grade of the Union Mills school held a meeting for class organization, recently. Esther Orem was unanimously chosen president, Elsie W. Smith was elected vice-president, Wade Siler, secretary, and Elsie Orem, treasurer. Two evening classes under the supervision of teacher and parents, are being conducted by this grade.

The basket social given Saturday evening was a decided success. After a short, but spirited program, the baskets were sold at auction by J. H. Dardnell. They netted $47. The class will purchase a bit of needed material for the school and the remainder of this fund will be devoted to the cause of athletics.

Miss Freda Johnson, who is working for Mrs. Otto Frederick, attended the basket social and won the enviable distinction of having her basket lead all the rest in price.

D. H. Houghton, who has been working at Colton, has returned to Union Mills where he expects to engage in farming.

Meadowbrook

MEADOWBROOK, March 27.—Sadie Hellbacka spent the week-end at Glad Tidings with Ruth Wooster.

The Horner and Millard mill expect to begin hauling logs with their donkey engine Monday.

Several from here attended the basket social at Union Mills Saturday night all spent a good time.

Ruth Chindgren spent the week-end at Portland.

Mrs. H. W. Creason of Oregon City and Mrs. Kate Morrell of California are visiting at Mr. and Mrs. Fred Creason's.

Macksburg

MACKSBURG, March 27.—The Red Cross auxiliary has suspended its meetings for the present while awaiting a new supply of work from headquarters. Meanwhile we are earnestly hoping that the interest in Red Cross work may not give way before the rush of spring work.

The Mother's club is to meet for an all-day session at the home of Mrs. Simon Miller on the 27th of this month.

Mrs. Ben Drier—one of the club's most steady members will be absent from this week's meeting as she is going with her daughter to visit her sister in Portland.

The Little Girls' Sewing circle met at the home of Mrs. G. M. Baldwin on Saturday last and will meet at the same place on the afternoon of April 15th.

Logan

LOGAN, March 27.—Farmers and "farmeresses" are very busy now. A few days of sunshine soon gets them all "up and at it." We hope it will last awhile for we haven't had any farming weather to speak of for so long.

Mrs. A. Newkirk, who has been in California, for a year or so, has returned. Her son, Bird Newkirk, who enlisted in the U. S. Marines and was at Mare Island a long time is also home again, having received his honorable discharge.

Wm. McCribbin, son of Mrs. Lauren McCribbin, with the army of occupation in Germany, eating his bacon of course near the Rhine. Many others would welcome a chance to do so.

Mrs. F. S. Hutchins has returned from Eastern Oregon, where she visited her son. She also visited her brother, Wm. Byers, at The Dalles. She was accompanied home by Mrs. Byers, who will visit friends and relatives before returning.

Mr. Krueger, of Hillsdale, Oregon, was a week-end guest at the home of J. Boss.

Claude Sprague and family have moved on their farm at Upper Logan. They have been at Port Orchard, Washington, for some time. His brother Harry Sprague, who has been in overseas service recently arrived home.

Our post lady has a brand new Ford for the service.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Mostul are rejoicing over the arrival of a baby daughter.

The stopping of heavy traffic on the roads now, reminds us of "locking the barn door after the horse was stolen."

At the recent annual election of officers for Clear Creek Creamery company, the entire old board was re-elected, J. J. Hatton, H. Babler, J. Boss, A. Stachley and F. Riehoff. T. E. Anderson was elected secretary and S. Stevens, treasurer and 56 1/2 cents was the average price paid patrons for butter fat during the year, which is the highest ever paid. In 1917 it was 45 1/2 cents a pound which shows a gain of 11 1/2 cents a pound for last year, and would have been more yet had the milk wagons not invaded some of the routes.

There seems to be two "Hill Crest" farms in Clackamas county, but "we should worry" we have the legal document to show for ours anyway.

SANDY DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Blanche R. Shelley Representative.

A CORRECTION.

Bull Run, Ore., Mar. 11, 1919. To the Editor of the Enterprise: Will you allow me, thru the columns of your valuable paper, to correct a mistake that appeared in the Cherryville news of the last issue of the Oregon City Courier, wherein it stated that I had no good words for the Y. M. C. A. Now this is certainly a sad mistake, for the kindness I received from the Y. M. C. A. while I was in the hospital at Camp Lewis for seven months, shall never be forgotten. I was not one of lucky ones to get over seas.

Yours,
GARETH PICKENS.

OLD SETTLER PASSES.

One of the largest crowds in the history of Sandy, gathered at the Kock home near here last Wednesday afternoon to pay their last respects to Henry Kock, who passed away suddenly March 17th, age 74 years. Mr. Kock had been ill but a few days and the end came unexpectedly, heart failure being the immediate cause. A widow, Mrs. Catherine Kock, survives him.

Interment was in the Sandy cemetery. Rev. A. Krause, of Portland, had charge of the services, both here and at the house. A quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Shelley, Mrs. Edna Esson and R. S. Smith sang, "Vale of Beulah," "Good Night," and at the grave, the same quartet rendered, "Nearer My God To Thee." "We'll Never Say Good Bye In Heaven" and "Rock of Ages."

Henry Kock was born in Rieddinghausen, Hesse, Nov. 8, 1845. In 1867, he and Miss Catherine Junker were services could not be spared. He wanted me in his office, but Major Gaul, my old commissioned officer, who is in charge of Camp Hospital No. 28 at Navesa wants me for his adjutant, so I am ordered to that place. How long that hospital will run, I don't know, but when it busts up, I'll be coming home, as the chief surgeon said that would be my last assignment in the A. E. F.

"This information helps some as it is definite; also I have been recommended for promotion to captain, and this assignment assures my getting it. There has been a fearful storm going on for about a week and I have to drag my bed all over the room to find a spot where it isn't leaking on me." A letter dated March 1st said he was leaving for Navesa on March 3rd.

RED CROSS DRIVE.

From April 7th to 12th, there will be a drive for used clothing of all kinds (with a few exceptions) for the European refugees. The Sandy auxiliary is prepared to handle all from this section and it is hoped to make a good showing. Donations may be left at any of the following places, Meinig's store, Sandy store, Sandy Drug Store. For further information call Mrs. Shelley or any of the work committee, Mrs. Eddy, Mrs. J. C. Landree or Mrs. Fred L. Proctor.

GOOD TIME COMING.

The entertainment committee of the Sandy Rebekah Lodge will give a masquerade ball in the I. O. O. F. hall, Saturday evening, April 5th, the proceeds to go into an entertainment fund for our returning soldier and sailor boys. All dancers must be masked, and a small admission will be charged for spectators.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks to all those who so kindly assisted us in our recent bereavement, to voice our grateful appreciation of the many kindly acts, the beautiful floral offerings, and the sympathy of our loyal friends.

MRS. CATHERINE KOCK,
MRS. CASPER JUNKER
AND FAMILY.
