

CANBY

Mr. Cochran and Mr. Chubb have finished their grubbing contract in the Croft place. When the stumps and logs are taken off the ground and the ground is leveled down, it makes a great improvement in the land.

Mr. Deacon is clearing some land on his place this winter.

William Draper has gone back to North Platte, Neb., to work for the railroad company. He had worked in the same place for a number of years.

William Bissell was calling on John Burns one day last week.

Mr. Grimes of Union Hall was in Canby last Saturday.

Mr. Porter has gone back to Yamhill county, where he has a farm rented.

There is a family living in Mr. Baty's house.

Onions and potatoes are selling now for a big price and some times they are hardly worth anything.

Mr. Corbett, who lived here for several years, was in Canby a few days calling on old friends.

George Mitts and wife made a business trip to Needy on Saturday.

George Scramlin of Macksburg was in Canby last Saturday.

Rollins Porter is working at present near New Era.

The patrons of the telephone lines held a meeting at Canby on Saturday.

A lot of land is being cleared around here this winter. The people want the stumps removed to make room for more potatoes and wheat.

CLARKES

Mrs. Albert Larkins and children, Ellard and Reva, who were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Cummins, and family of eastern Oregon, returned home last week.

W. H. Wettlaufer was in town last week on business.

B. Sullivan was in Portland last week.

Alex Nelson went to eastern Washington to work last Friday.

W. H. Bottmiller butchered last Monday.

Sam Elmer sowed his wheat last Saturday.

A surprise party was given at the home of J. C. Nelson on Thursday evening, February 8. Among those present were: Misses Engla Bergman, Mary Bottmiller, Bernice Gard, Agnes Nelson, Florence Kleinsmith, Rose Fawner, Adline Swift, Ethel Notter, Rufert Marquardt, Walter Lee, Claudine Bottmiller, Alva Gard, Arthur Henton, Alexander Nelson, Henry Nelson, Charles Nelson, Harvey Nelson, Clifford Cook, Elmer Kleinsmith, William Kleinsmith, Althea Olds, Ed McIntyre, Arthur Pack, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Maxson, Mrs. T. Pack and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson. Refreshments were served and the evening was spent playing games.

EAGLE CREEK

Mrs. Hattie Clester, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Ed Douglass, went to Molalla last week to be gone for several days.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. D. Beckett gave a fine turkey dinner in honor of the visit of their son, Everett Beckett, and wife, and daughters, Misses Mable and Veron, who came out from Portland to spend the day with their parents.

Mrs. N. Kirchem and children, of Logan, were guests at the home of Walter Douglass Sunday.

Mrs. J. W. Cahill spent Monday with Mrs. Charles Murphy.

Ed Douglass bought a sow and seven pigs in Dover on Monday, selling the pigs to Walter Douglass and E. Naylor on his way home.

Ray Woodie helped Mr. Beckett haul his potatoes to the station Monday to be shipped to Portland.

JUSTICE IS LACKING

She Lost Her Scale Pan, Poor Girl, and Cannot Do Her Duty

Justice in Clackamas county isn't all she's cracked up to be. This is sadly a fact, not because Justice is of the feminine gender, but in spite of it. Of course, if Justice were a man, or in the manly form, there would be an excuse—but we cannot countenance an incomplete woman, for the dear souls are so often too complete to be entirely human; there is nothing lacking. To think of Justice—and more because Justice is a "she"—as being incomplete is a hideous thought!

But the truth remains. Justice is not what she should be. Justice, you know, protrudes into the atmosphere above the Clackamas county court house, and right on Main street. We believe she should be called to the attention of the Live Wires or the humane society. In the first place Justice exposes her limbs to the chill breezes that flutter along the street and in the second place she's only part there. That is, only part of her equipment is there. The other part has disappeared in the thin air that envelopes the home of justice—the mansion of peace—the palace of truth.

Justice is the statue that makes the court house look like a regular architect had designed it. Naturally, the court house, which must have been built about the time that Hee, the proverbial pup, cashed in his mortal checks, cannot bring back its architect to protect the embellishments of his masterpiece and his shade can have but little effect upon the modern dignitaries within those stately halls. And it does seem a shame, too, that all the nice ladies and gentlemen who love their country so well that they serve it faithfully cannot see to it that Justice is made complete. If the iron white symbol of Justice is not all there then Justice itself, as it should be dispensed in the court house, can hardly be entire.

Justice—the statue—makes known her presence in the world with a sword brandished from the right hand and a scale suspended in mid-air from the left. You know, because you must have seen Justice when she was all there. But if the sword were gone Justice wouldn't be right. No more can she be right with the scale gone.

One pan in which the merits of law and humanity are supposedly weighed by this erudite damsel, whose unclad knee has been freezing these many years, is gone. Horrors! Sans the implements of Justice how can we have justice at all? Justice cannot expect to fulfill her chilly tasks without full equipment any more than we could tell about it without a type-writer.

The fact remains, brutal as it is, that justice in Clackamas county is not what she should be. She should be the same stately half-clad maiden that she is. The same right hand should brandish the same fearless sword and the left hand should balance two scale pans instead of one, as at present. If we can't have all that Justice should bring us—if she cannot be equipped with the scale of honesty tests have no justice at all. Send the poor thing back to the Achéron to bathe in those bitter waters with Eris—for there must be everlasting discord if Justice is not whole.

The scale pan in the hand of Justice—the Justice that's made of iron and guards the portals of our sacred county court house—dropped off, so weak was it, early in the winter when the howling winds tried its strength a little too severely.

Felt Like 90; Now Like 21

Many persons complain about feeling old before they should. Like a weak link in a chain, a weak organ enfeebles the whole body. Overworked, weak or disordered kidneys lower vitality. A. W. Morgan, Angola, La., writes: "I suffered with pains in the back. I am 43 years old, but I felt like a man of 90 years old. Since I took Foley Kidney Pills I feel like I did when I was 21." In 50c and $1.00 sizes.—Jones Drug Co.

WANTS CASH FOR BEER

Legislated Out of Business, Must Pay for Forbidden Fluid

The irony of justice might well be the theme of a narrative by J. W. Johnson. Justice to all people forced the liquor dispensaries out of existence. Mr. Johnson was owner of one of them. Now justice is being brought to pay for the liquor which he can no longer sell. Whether he loses or not he is supposed to pay, says the law. Frank T. Schmidt, who owns an assigned claim for the Olympia Beer agency, Saturday brought suit against Mr. Johnson, former saloon keeper, to recover $180.75 due on merchandise, supposedly of the well-known anti-dry variety, delivered before the state went dry.

RUN-DOWN WOMAN

Made Strong By Our Vinol

Fort Edward, N. Y.—"I was in a run-down, nervous and weak condition, so I could not do the housework for my little family of three. I had taken cod liver oil emulsions and other remedies without benefit. A friend told me about Vinol. I tried it and it soon built up my strength and made me a well woman so I now do all of my housework."—Mrs. ELMER GUARDNER.

We guarantee Vinol to restore strength and build up run-down, weak and debilitated conditions.

LIME AND SULPHUR SPRAY SAVES YOUR CROP

Recommended by Agricultural Experiment Stations All Over the United States

Use Busch's Lime and Sulphur Spray and guarantee a large and healthy crop. Absolutely the most effective remedy for San Jose Scale, Oyster Shell Scale, Scurvy, Peach-Leaf Curl, Smuts, Leaf Spots, Scabs, Rust, etc. Each year it is becoming more necessary to thoroughly spray fruit trees, shrubbery, vegetables, plants, etc. Today all plant life is molested more or less by insects and unless proper spraying is done at the proper time the crop is sure to be small and of inferior quality.

PERUNA in Your Home

A housewife must give the first aid in colds, coughs and other ailments. Her promptness in applying the remedy often saves a serious illness. Her experience with remedies has led her to know that PERUNA is always reliable, that she should have it on hand for the immediate treatment of coughs and colds, and that it is always to her

Mrs. George Parker, 419 Water St., Menasha, Wis., writes: "We have used Peruna in our family for a number of years, and have found it a perfectly reliable medicine. It cures the system of any traces of a cold, and prevents serious consequences. I began using it for catarrh, which I suffered with a good many years, but had not been very serious until recently. Since I have taken Peruna the drooping in my throat has discontinued, and my head and nose are not so stuffed up in the morning. I am pleased with the results, and shall continue to use it until I am entirely rid of catarrh. I heartily recommend it as an honest medicine. What it does for her is ready to do for you."

The Family Safeguard

The experience of one woman, given herewith, is typical of thousands of letters that reach the Peruna Company from grateful friends who have found their homes incomplete, and their family safety in danger without PERUNA.

Colds and Catarrh

The great weight of testimony that has accumulated in the 44 years that PERUNA has been on the market proves it, beyond question, to be the reliable family remedy, ever ready to take, preventing the serious effects of colds, coughs, grip and derangements of the digestive organs. This proof is published from time to time and many families have profited by it.

Remember you can obtain PERUNA in tablet form for your convenience. Carry it with you and be fortified against sudden attacks.
