Sadie Hellback spent a few days in Portland with her sister, Mrs. John Heino last week.

Macksburg

MACKSBURG, May 8.—Too rapidly is the planting time speeding away for the ranchers who have planned for a much larger acreage in cultivation than heretofore. Steadily as the winter toll went on spring has overtaken them before they had accomplished half the clearing they had in view.

Gradually the vacant places in our homes are being filled again by the boys home from the war.

Will Gibson returned from France last week after an absence of nearly a year. Mr. Gibson looks in better health than when he went away. This is true of so many of our soldiers from the training camps who did not go over the sea.

Our Red Cross Auxiliary is out of work for the present. No supplies from headquarters being at hand, but the members are preparing their own households to be left when the work does come.

The Mothers' Club holds its own through all the rush of work that spring time brings to the ranch. The next meeting of the club is to be on the afternoon of Thursday of the present week at the home of its secretary, Mrs. G. M. Baldwin.

Building too in our neighborhood, is reviving again. Roy Yoder's large new barn is one of the structures going up in our place. Carl Borche is building a large granary, while the sound of hammer and saw is vibrating from other ranches near.

The armers are devoting much ground to the potato crop. One of our neighbors has planted seventeen acres of the tubers, being confident of good demand and prices.

Echo Dell

ECHO DELL, May 9.—The Echo Dell Loyalty League met Friday night with a large attendance. There were about fifty-five present.

Miss Anthony, the home demonstrator, gave a short talk.

Mr. Scott, the county agent, next addressed the league.

After the speaking a program was rendered by members of the league.

The following persons joined the league: Annie Robertson, Geraldine Hadley, John H. Hadley, J. H. Hadley, Erick Ahlberg, Marinus Newhouse, Arthur Lindsey, George Schlegel, Herman Haldow, Edward Taylor, Fred Schamborn, Elmer Schamborn and S. J. Shute. We are very glad to welcome in these new members and would like to have more.

There were nine boys and girls from Echo Dell who participated in the spelling and arithmetic contest at Mount Pleasant last Wednesday.

Those going were: Marie Dunsmuir, Clara Ahlberg, Lella Clark, Denton Wakeman, Wayne Barney, Case Newhouse, Oscar Ahlberg, Duward Clark and Bertha Calger. Melvin Dunsmuir took them in his car. All but one of the children won diplomas. Miss Benner, the teacher, accompanied the party to Mount Pleasant via Oregon City.

This is surely pleasant weather. The grain is looking fine. Some of the rye is six feet tall. The apple orchards are very pretty now.

Grandpa Hadley slipped and hurt his back Friday and has been confined to his bed since then.

Mrs. C. M. Hadley has been ill.

Exceptional bargain in a used piano. This is a real buy. Easy terms. Thoroux Music House, 210 Seventh St. Phone 339.00. Mrs. J. J. J.
