

LOCALS

Randall O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. O'Neill, of Greenpoint, who has made ten trips to France on the U. S. S. Ryndam, and connected with the bakery department, has been transferred to the bakery department of the United States Naval Hospital at Portsmouth, Virginia. Randall has become so efficient in the art of cooking he is now able to cook for the patients in the hospital, and says it seems good to be on dry land again. The last trip he was on from France was the roughest the vessel has had since he was connected with it. The only objection O'Neill has is he is separated for the first time since entering the service, from Milton Nobel, of this city, and son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Nobel. The two young men left here at the same time, and have made ten trips to France together, and have had many enjoyable trips overseas, and visited many French cities together.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Armstrong of West Linn, have received the welcome news of the arrival of their son, Fred Armstrong, member of Company G, 162d Infantry, in New Jersey. He has been in the 162d Infantry, and has been in the service in France and England for almost two years. He entered the service July, 1917. He arrived in Camp Merritt, N. J., last Wednesday morning, and said he was in the best of health, and was anxious to reach his home at West Linn. His brother, Ralph, who has been in the navy, stationed at Mare Island, arrived home Sunday evening. After receiving his honorable discharge he secured employment in a shipyard at Oakland, Calif., where he has been working for the past month.

W. H. McClellan, who has been spending the winter in San Diego, Calif., with his daughter, Mrs. A. T. Hodge, has returned to Oregon City and is at the home of his daughter, Mrs. N. M. Alldredge. Mr. McClellan, who was a fitter in the Civil War, and is now a member of the G. A. R. Effe and Drum Corps, and never misses spending Memorial Day in Oregon City, and takes part in the day's program with the other veterans of the Civil War. Mr. McClellan, having always been enthusiastic about salmon fishing, made a trip to the mouth of the Clackamas river a few days ago, and spent the day in fishing, but his luck was poor, and he returned empty handed.

Ray Newberry, one of the well-known Clackamas county boys, who has been in the service for the past two years, being with the paymaster department of the navy, stationed at Seattle, has received his honorable discharge and has again resumed his position as city salesman of the Blake-McCall Company of Portland, but makes his week-end visits with his mother, Mrs. J. N. Duxen, postmistress of New Era. Curt Duxen, who is with the Great Northern, has made eleven round trips on the vessel, and is thoroughly enjoying life on the sea, although he is somewhat anxious to return to his home state.

"Brick" Black, of Oswego, was in Oregon City Friday on his way to Canby, where he is to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant White. Mr. Black returned from France a few days ago, and was engaged in fighting some of the greatest battles. While serving his country his mother, the late Mrs. Roy Haines, died at Astoria, and the young man did not hear of her death until three months afterward. He will be a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. White for a few days.

Mrs. Thomas A. Burke left Gladstone Wednesday morning for California in company with Mr. and Mrs. Ellison, of the Ellison-White Chautauqua System. They are making the trip by automobile, and expect to stop at many of the cities while en route. Mrs. Burke will join her husband in California, who is manager of the Seven-Day Circuit of the Ellison-White Chautauqua System. They will later return to Portland, where Mr. Burke will have his headquarters.

Mrs. St. Clair of this city, has received word from her husband, Lieutenant C. L. St. Clair, saying he was leaving for Falmouth, England, on May 1. He is also going to Danzig, Germany. This is his second trip to England, and he expects to be gone about a month. Lieutenant St. Clair, who was engineer at the Crown-Willamette Paper company mills, entered the navy. He expects to return soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Busch, Jr., and son, John Elliott, of Portland, were in this city Sunday. Mrs. Busch and son proceeded to New Era, where they visited at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Burgoine. Mr. Busch has been chosen as director of a number of young men residents of a number of young men residents of Laurelhurst, Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Dann, who have been residing at Gladstone for some time, have moved to Canby, where they are residing on the place of Mrs. Cantwell, sister of Mrs. Dann. Mrs. Cantwell, after spending the winter at Gladstone at the Dann home, has also returned to Canby.

John Matheson, who recently received his honorable discharge from the service, and who has since that time been at his home at Powell River, arrived in Oregon City Tuesday morning to visit at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. J. R. Williams, and other relatives.

I. D. Larkins of Marquam, was among those to attend the county court in this city Wednesday. Mr. Larkins is interested in the improvement of the road between that place and Canby, which the people of that section have petitioned to be improved.

Emil Kettis, who has been residing at Boring for some time, and who is well and favorably known in that section, was among those to transact business here Wednesday. Mr. Kettis has sold his 60-acre farm at that place, the purchaser being a St. Paul, Minnesota, banker.

"If you have any good apples, potatoes, beef or other farm produce for sale see F. T. Barlow at C. W. Inn, West Linn, and he will pay you cash on delivery. Phone Pacific 608."—Adv

Mrs. Cohn and daughter, Miss Blanche, were in this city Sunday, as guests of Miss Helen Ely. Miss Cohn is a well-known singer of Portland, and is an instructor of music in the Portland schools also at Milwaukie. She studied music in Europe.

Martin Jack of Marquam, one of the prominent residents of that place, was among those to transact business here Wednesday. Mr. Jack is a brother of J. E. and A. F. Jack of this city, with whom he visited before returning to his home.

Miss Rena Hutchinson of Canby, accompanied by her cousin, Miss Hutchinson of Molalla, were among the Oregon City visitors Saturday evening. They were among those representing Canby at the ball.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Redland, were in this city Tuesday. Mr. Brown brought in six hogs that brought a market price of $355.

John Palmer of Molalla, prominent resident of that section of the county, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

George V. Aden, prominent resident and retired farmer of Molalla, was among those to transact business here Monday.

R. Watts, of Elliott Prairie, road supervisor of Dood District No. 36, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

Born, Tuesday morning at 4 o'clock, May 6, to the wife of A. B. Herman, of First and Washington streets, a daughter.

L. D. Yoder of Yoder, a well-known farmer of Clackamas county, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. A. Weiser of Needy, accompanied by Mrs. E. T. Fish, were among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

J. F. Aden of Molalla, was in Oregon city Monday visiting among some of his friends, and transacting business.

D. R. Hubbard, a well known farmer of Marquam, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

Robert Miller of Dover, was among those to transact business in the county seat Wednesday.

Edward Graves of Gribble Prairie, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

W. H. Mattson of Viola, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Monday.

Mrs. Lula Herz of Boring, is in this city as the guest of her brother, Fred Lamoreaux.

Frank Hart of Marquam, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

Rev. Snyder of Molalla, was among those to transact business in this city Monday.

George Buck of Beaver Creek, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

W. Moran of Boring, was among those to transact business here Wednesday.

W. W. Vaughn of Molalla, was among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

C. F. Jackson of George, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Born, to the wife of John Brenton, of 602 Jackson street, a daughter.

Roy Ridings of Marquam, was an Oregon City visitor Wednesday.

George Burges is among those erecting a new home at Gladstone.

Plaintiff Loses In Assault Case

Thursday a circuit court jury found for the defendant in the case of Angie Romig against Edwin J. Foust.

Agnie Romig filed suit against Foust for $2,500 alleging that he had assaulted and beat her, causing her to suffer to a great extent.

VANCOUVER LICENSES

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 5.—(Sp.)—The following were granted marriage licenses here today: Leon Draper, 24, of Oregon City, Or., and Lena Draper, 20, of Oregon City, Or.

M. L. Blackwell, legal, of Oregon City, Or., and Florence Andrews, legal, of Oregon City, Or.

POLK'S GAZETTEER

A Business Directory of each City, Town and Village in Oregon and Washington, giving a Descriptive Sketch of each place, Location, Shipping Facilities and a Classified Directory of each Business and Profession.

W. L. POLK & CO., Inc., Seattle, Wash.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

Mrs. M. E. Walker of Glenn Echo, was a most charming hostess to a number of friends at her pretty bungalow Friday afternoon, when she entertained in honor of Mrs. Fred Smith of that place, before her departure for Los Angeles, Calif., where she is to make her home.

The rooms were prettily decorated when sprays of daintily colored apple blossoms and purple and white lilacs were used in profusion and with most artistic taste. The table was also prettily decorated with spring blossoms.

Places were laid for Mrs. R. H. Taber, Mrs. J. W. Gray, Mrs. Hoag, Mrs. Charles Moran, Mrs. Fred P. Smith and Mrs. Walker.

Mrs. Walker will leave next Wednesday for the South, and while a resident of Melrum has made a host of friends who regret her departure.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of Willamette Rebekah lodge was observed at the Woodman hall Saturday evening, and there was a large number of members in attendance from this lodge and the I. O. O. F. lodge. The hall was elaborately decorated with the colors of the order—pink and green—and spring flowers were used, also carnations and potted plants.

A banquet was served at 6:30 and the toastmistress was Mrs. H. E. Straight, and those responding to toasts were Mrs. Ethel Meldrum, Mrs. Mary Howell, Mrs. Jennie Bingham, Mrs. Sophia Charman, Mrs. Jennie Jarvis, vice president of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. William Howell, S. S. Walker, Judge Thomas F. Ryan, O. P. Miller, Mrs. Walter Wentworth sang impressively one of the old time favorite songs, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," and Miss Naomi Armstrong also sang.

Mrs. J. E. Jack gave a brief history of the Willamette Rebekah lodge, as follows:

"Words are but breath; but when great deeds were done, A power abides, transferred from sire to son."

"The place, the day, and the occasion upon which we assemble, fills us with fraternal emotion."

"Twenty-five years ago today, Willamette Rebekah lodge No. 2 was instituted. We have thought it well to review, so far as the fleeting hour allows, its interesting history."

"On May 4, 1894, our lodge was instituted by A. G. Walling, with sixty-four charter members, three of whom—Sisters Charman, Mary Howell, and Bingham, were from the lodge whose name we bear—Willamette Rebekah Lodge No. 1."

A few of the members were initiated in the afternoon at the Odd Fellows hall. In the evening at the Armory, the remainder were initiated. The banquet was in Pope's hall. "Sister Charman was our first Noble Grand."

"Of those 64 charter members who have visited the sick, relieved the distressed, buried the dead, and educated the orphan, but eighteen remain. The majority have answered the roll call above, and we have but a remnant of the number to remind us that time is fleeting."

"No one hears the door that opens, When they pass beyond recall; Soft as loosened leaves of roses, One by one our loved ones fall."

"The charter members living, who still are enrolled with us are Sisters Charman, Bingham, Mary Howell, Lizzie Howell, Sylvia Midiam, Bradley, Cook, and Brothers Ryan, Howell, Walker, Cooke, Bradley, Scott, Straight and Hedges."

"Willamette Rebekah lodge No. 2, has been blessed with laurels. Sister Lizzie Howell has been our first and only president of the Rebekah Assembly. She performed the duties with credit to herself, and with honor to us."

"For fifteen years she has been a trustee of the Odd Fellows Home, and full well we know the pleasure she has derived in serving there, for never has she failed to replenish the purses of those aged ladies, by selling their lace for them. Since 1908 she has been treasurer of the Home."

"Brother Ryan, our first Right Supporter in Willamette No. 2, couldn't let Sister Howell carry off all the honors, so besides having been Grand Master of the Odd Fellows and Grand Patriarch of the Encampment, he has been trustee of the Home for twenty-one years."

"Like Sister Howell he has a hobby at that Home, too, for his greatest delight is in taking candy to those little kiddies who live there."

"Brother Sol Walker has just launched his bark on the waters of renewal. He has just been Chief Patriarch, and at present he is Grand Representative to the Sovereign Grand lodge."

"Sister Shannon at present is Trustee of the Assembly."

"A word in passing. One of our absent sisters—one we all loved for her personality and her devotion to our order—Sister Una Walker, toward the close of her earthly career, held an appointive office in the Assembly."

"And now—after twenty-five years, unaffected by the tempests of war, or the storms of persecution, we still stand in the sunshine and clear light of heaven. We still stand like some patriarchal monarch of the forests, with vigorous roots riveted to the soil, and broad limbs spread in bold outline against the sky; and in generations to come the sunlight of honor and renown will delight to linger and play amid its venerable branches. And if ever, in the Providence of God, lashed by the storm and riven by the lightning, it shall totter to its fall, around its trunk will the ivy of filial affection, that has so long clasped it, still cling, and mantle with greenness and verdure its ruin and decay."

The committee in arranging for the anniversary was composed of Mrs. Eva Mathewson, Mrs. J. L. Waldron, Mrs. Elmer Albright, Mrs. E. J.

Lagson, Mrs. J. S. Calavan, Mrs. J. W. Church and Mrs. S. S. Walker

Miss Ivy Witzig, of Parkplace, was a charming hostess at her home Saturday evening, when she entertained in honor of Miss Ruth Peckover of Parkplace, whose engagement to Mr. Winnifred Knight, recently returning from France, was announced.

The affair was in the form of a miscellaneous shower, and the bride-elect was the recipient of many useful gifts. These were arranged on a table, over which hung a bright-colored Chinese parasol, and the parasol was adorned with small Chinese lanterns.

The rooms of the Witzig home were beautifully decorated. The living room was in dogwood blossoms and festoons of red crepe paper were used with artistic effect. The dining room was in red tulips and festoons of small, red hearts.

The evening was devoted to guessing games and music. In a guessing contest Miss Kathryn Brunner was awarded the prize. Among those favoring with vocal solos were Miss Marie Fredricks, Miss Eva Wallace, Miss Ivy Witzig, Miss Ruth Peckover and Miss Holmes. Miss Kathryn Brunner and Miss Holmes played several piano selections.

Present were Miss Ruth Peckover, Miss Amy Peckover, Miss Marie Fredricks, Miss Anna Fredricks, Miss Kathryn Brunner, Miss Kathryn Reding, Miss Eva Wallace, Miss Holmes, Mrs. Hansell, Miss Blanche Davenport, Miss Ivy Witzig, Miss June Barnett, Mrs. Harry Peckover, Mrs. Joseph Witzig.

DIVORCED COUPLE IS RE-WED AT VANCOUVER SATURDAY AFTERNOON

One of the most sensational divorce cases of Clackamas county came to an end Saturday afternoon when the parties concerned were remarried at Vancouver, Wash., when Mrs. Eva J. Smith, mother of the bride, and a few friends were present.

The newly weds are Leon T. Draper and Lena Draper of this city. They were granted a divorce here a short time ago and the permanent custody of the child given the father and the mother to have its care for the present.

Leon Draper enlisted and was in the service of his country in France and soon after arriving home he entered suit for divorce, alleging his wife consorted with other men during his absence. In answer to the complaint Mrs. Draper alleged that her husband's parents were to blame for the trouble and had made many untrue statements about her and even withheld her husband's letters and that she did not know when he arrived in Camp Lewis.

Mrs. Draper claimed that she was compelled to work for a living after her husband went to war and she left the child with his parents, paying for its care. She further alleged that Mr. Draper, Sr., held a mortgage on her home and when this was due compelled her to pay it. She borrowed money to do so and later entered a suit to have this refunded to her. The case will come up in the near future and Mrs. Draper says she will return for this.

Mr. and Mrs. Draper left Saturday evening for California, where they will make their home and Mrs. Smith has the care of the child, which she will take to the father and mother later.

OREGON CITY MAN HAS NARROW ESCAPE ON TERWILLIGER DRIVE

An automobile driven by George Bannan of Oregon City narrowly escaped going over the bluff on Terwilliger boulevard about one mile beyond the city limits, Thursday night. The car, traveling at a high rate of speed, skidded on the smooth paving when the driver turned to avoid a car with dazzling headlights, and was prevented from plunging over the bluff by the concrete posts recently set along the road at this point. Fenders on the car were smashed and the undergear was stripped. One of the posts along the roadway was demolished. No one was injured beyond slight cuts.—Portland Journal.

SUIT IS ENTERED TO COLLECT NOTE

A suit to collect a note for $425 was entered Friday by Charles Grossmiller against L. and Pauline Grossmiller, plaintiff alleging the note was given November 25, 1915, bearing six per cent interest and to be paid in installments. He claims he has made repeated demands of defendants for the money but they have failed to make any payments. He asks for the costs of the case and $75 attorney's fees.

MOTION FOR NEW TRIAL IS DENIED

Motion for a new trial was denied in the case of E. W. Fowler against John Deininger Tuesday in the circuit court.

Fowler sued Deininger for $100 alleging damages to that amount resulting when his car was struck by defendant driving on the wrong side of the street. He was recently granted damages of $70 by a circuit court jury.

CRUEL AND INHUMAN TREATMENT ALLEGED IN DIVORCE SUIT

Cruel and inhuman treatment is alleged in the divorce suit of N. J. Mazingo against Andrew Mazingo filed Tuesday.

They were married in Clackamas county May 30, 1913, and she alleges that immediately after marriage he began a course of ill treatment that ended with him kicking her out into the snow in March, 1918.

She claims that he has a violent temper and would fly into a rage and curse her and throw dishes and cooking utensils around the room. At one time she says he became angry and shook his fist in her face and threatened to strike her and when she tried to telephone for help he got an axe and chopped the phone off the wall. At the same time he took a gun and pointed it at her and threatened to shoot and did discharge the weapon, the bullet entering the ceiling she claims. Not satisfied with this she said at one time when he was working in the field he tried to run over her with the team.

Defendant owns a tract of land in Clackamas county and plaintiff claims she has worked and put money into this to the amount of $500 and has received no pay. She asks for one-third interest in the land and a decree of divorce.

CHILDREN HAVE NARROW ESCAPE FROM FLAMES

The home of Charles Washburn of Gladstone, was completely destroyed by fire early Friday afternoon and few of the contents were saved.

The two children of the family, a boy aged 6 and a girl aged 2 years were alone in the house at the time, the girl being saved by neighbors and the boy saving himself by jumping out of a window.

The little boy said he had lighted the gas stove to get dinner and then went up stairs to change his clothes. When he started down to the kitchen the blaze was discovered.

Several houses in the Washburn neighborhood were in danger of catching fire by flying shingles but the vigilance of the residents prevented this. Officer Joyner, of this city, rushed to the Greenpoint fire house and with his car pulled the hose cart to the scene of the fire but did not arrive in time to check the flames.

W. G. Livingstone Dies on Tuesday

William Godfrey Livingstone of Mountain Road, Clackamas county, in the Stafford section, died at the family home Tuesday evening at the age of 69 years of age.

Mr. Livingstone was a native of Ohio, and has resided in Clackamas county for some time. He leaves no family.

The funeral services will be held from the home Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with Rev. W. T. Milliken, pastor of the Baptist church of this city, officiating.

DESERTION OF LEADER CAUSES DISBANDMENT OF NIGHTHAWK CLUB

An organization that might have been very successful came to a sudden end by the desertion of the leader before actual activity of the members began.

This was the "Night Hawk Club" of Parkplace, organized of school children between the ages of 8 and 13 years. The leader was a Portland boy and from all stories he told of himself he was a wonder but he never told two members the same tale.

This boy had been elected captain and no reasons were learned for his desertion unless he was afraid that the juvenile officers had information of the club.

Juvenile Officer Church brought the members of the club to Oregon City Thursday and they were given a lecture by Deputy District Attorney Butler.

No charges were placed against the children and they were released and sent home.

LOSS OF MANY HOGS IS ALLEGED IN SUIT FILED ON THURSDAY

John Floria entered suit Thursday against Arthur Pressy to collect $2,131.75 he alleges he lost because some hogs he bought from defendant were diseased.

He alleges he purchased seven hogs from the defendant through his agent, Albert Dimbat, and that defendant guaranteed them to be free from disease. He claims that he placed them in with other hogs, he owned and then discovered that they had hog cholera, spreading this so that 75 of his other hogs contracted it and died. He also says that the seven purchased from Pressy died.

Value of the 75 hogs is placed at $2,000 and plaintiff asks for this amount and the amount he paid for the seven, which was $131.75.

DAMAGES ARE ASKED BECAUSE RIVAL WINS AFFECTIONS OF WIFE

Claiming that Joe Zeman won the love of his wife, Julia Miskovsky, and caused her to desert him, Valclav Miskovsky entered suit Friday, asking damages of $5,000.

Plaintiff alleges defendant broke up his home and that Mrs. Miskovsky left him and lavished all her love on defendant, completely ignoring her husband.

The Miskovskys were married in May, 1908, and the alleged desertion took place in February of this year.

LAND BOUGHT FOR FERRY APPROACHES

Deeds to property were filed Saturday for the land purchased by the county for the approaches of the new Wilsonville ferry. This land is for poles, guy wires and other necessary material for the ferry.

The boat will be completed by May 8, and it is to be run as a free ferry during the daylight hours and the court will decide later as to after dark charges. During ordinary times the ferry will be operated by the power of the current but a gasoline engine will be provided to be used when necessary.

WOOD CONTRACT AWARDED

Fuel for the city schools will cost $6.50 per cord, the same amount as was paid last year. Bids received by the school board ranged from $6.50 to $7. The contract was awarded to E. A. Hugh of Oregon City.

PROMINENT RESIDENT OF MOUNT PLEASANT PASSES AWAY MONDAY

Charles H. Gilmore, prominent resident of Mount Pleasant, passed away suddenly at his home Monday evening of heart failure.

Mr. Gilmore was in Oregon City Monday afternoon and later went home and laid down on a couch, telling his wife to awaken him in an hour as he wanted to sleep that long. Mrs. Gilmore's attention was attracted by her husband's foot dropping to the floor and she called to him. When he did not answer she tried to awaken him and receiving no response became frightened and called neighbors into the house; but he had passed quietly away while asleep.

The deceased had been complaining that he was bothered with his breathing for some time and could not do the work on his ranch, where he raised berries. This trouble was not considered serious and his death was a great shock to his relatives and many friends.

Mr. Gilmore was born near Salem February 10, 1856, and moved to Mount Pleasant 18 years ago, where he was married. He is survived by his wife, a brother, Riley Gilmore, two sisters, Mrs. Robert Hughes, and Mrs. George Hoeye, all of Oregon City.

Mr. Gilmore was a native of Ohio, and has resided in Clackamas county for some time. He leaves no family.

ALVIN MACK KILLED AT BEVERLY, WASH. BY ELECTRIC WIRE

Alvin Mack, a former resident of Oregon City, was instantly killed Sunday at Beverly, Wash., by coming in contact with a live wire.

Alvin Mack was the son of the late L. F. and Sarah James Mack, the former died in April, 1910, and Mrs. Mack in 1901. He was born in this city, and resided here most of his life, for some time near Mountain View Addition on what is known as the old Dairy place.

The young man is survived by his brothers, Wyman and Milo Mack, of Portland, who have gone to Washington for the body, and will bring it to Oregon City, where the funeral services will be held and the interment will take place in the family lot in Mountain View cemetery.

Mrs. Alma Kirchner of Portland, a sister of Alvin Mack, died in October, 1918.

OREGON CITY BOY DIES IN FRANCE OF SCARLET FEVER

A telegram arrived in Oregon City Monday morning, received by Mr. and Mrs. George Allen, announcing the death of their son, Private Joe Allen, in France. The young man's death was caused by scarlet fever.

The mother received a letter Tuesday of last week from the young man, and at that time he was in the best of health.

Joe Allen was well known here where he has many friends, besides his relatives. His brother-in-law has recently returned from France.

CLACKAMAS RESIDENT PASSES AWAY LAST MONDAY MORNING

Mrs. Mary Rita Stevens, wife of M. B. Stevens of Clackamas Heights, Oregon City, died at the family home Monday morning at 6 o'clock, at the age of 60 years.

Mrs. Stevens is survived by her husband, M. B. Stevens, and three sons, A. L. Stevens of Gladstone; O. A. Stevens of Nampa, Calif.; and C. C. Stevens of San Francisco; three grandsons, George, Clarence and Edward Stevens, of Gladstone.

Mrs. Herre Laid To Rest Friday

Mrs. Elizabeth Herre, wife of Captain Herre, who died in Manila, P. I., March 17, was buried in the St. John Catholic cemetery Friday. The funeral services were held at the Catholic church at Milwaukie at 9 o'clock, and many friends of the deceased followed the remains to their last resting place. Many handsome floral tributes covered the casket.

Mrs. Herre's body was cremated in Manila, and at her request the remains were brought here for burial.

She was the daughter of Joseph Webber, well known resident of Milwaukie. She was 38 years of age.

Captain Herre is commander of the ship Libby Maine, built in Portland, and has been plying between Seattle and the Philippine Islands, and which is now placed on the Seattle-Alaska run.

MILK PRICES DROP

Beginning May 1 the price of milk decreased one cent per quart, making the retail price 15 cents in place of 16 cents.

Reasons given for this change are in price is that green feed is now plentiful and that the cost of producing milk is lessened.

12th Anniversary Is Celebrated

Mr. and Mrs. C. Naegle of Mount Pleasant, entertained at their home Sunday afternoon, the occasion being in honor of their twelfth wedding anniversary. About 50 guests were in attendance, most of whom were from Portland, who enjoyed the delicious repast served by Mrs. Naegle.

The rooms were beautifully decorated, when lilacs, narcissus and dogwood blossoms.

The afternoon and evening was devoted to music and a social time. A number of gifts were received by the host and hostess.