

Newsy Briefs From All Over the County

Mackburg

MACKBURG, May 22.—The Mother's club is to meet in the present week at the home of Mrs. John Helms. Little Gladys, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Roth, met with an accident last week, that caused a dislocation of the elbow joint. Complete recovery is expected very soon.

Arthur Baldwin has returned to his home ranch after a year's sojourn at Seaside. Mrs. Baldwin, with their little girl, will remain at the coast till the heat of summer is past.

Mrs. G. M. Baldwin enjoyed a visit on Saturday and Sunday from her nephew, Herriek P. Nichols, of Chicago. Mr. Nichols expressed much surprise and pleasure in the advancement made by this part of our state since his last visit in 1917.

That friend and ally of the land clearer, the Angora goat, after a great winter's work, in consuming underbrush, has once more parted with his fleece to the decided advantage of his owner. Sheep-shearing has been commenced and will be equally profitable. The sheep-like the goat—possesses the agreeable faculty of foraging for himself, a most highly appreciated quality, while all kinds of feed are holding their war price.

Tualatin Meadows

TUALATIN MEADOWS, May 22.—Mrs. John Rice's mother is visiting them.

Ethens Athey, Ray Bushbaum and Herman Christensen are making cord wood on the Frobenise place at Stafford. Everything is going fine but it seems that when meal time comes they want to draw straws to see who will cook to satisfy their appeasing hunger. Mother must do it different, for when its done it doesn't taste the same.

A most delightful surprise was given Mrs. Arthur Borland last Saturday evening, May 17, in honor of his birthday. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Saum, John Wanker, Bob Wanker, Joe Miller, Will Borland, Charles Larsen, Theobald, Reint de Neul, Saffron, Misses Mabel, Lottie, Violet and Mildred de Neul, Susie Miller, Adelaide and Mable Oldham, Sabra Nausbaum, Beulah Brittan, Marion Eshman, Lulu and Wanda Wanker, Lucy Day, Clifford Kellomela, Roscoe and Stanley Oldham, Homer Nausbaum, Elva and Jack Wanker, Alfred and Delman de Neul, Lee, Roy, and Orval Borland. At midnight supper was served of coffee, cake and sandwiches. Games and dancing passed away the evening for the young people and their elders enjoyed cards.

TUALATIN MEADOWS, MAY 16.—Quite a number of the small children who are out of school are making a small garden and will try and compete for prizes at the State Fair next fall.

Though we have had quite a spell of lovely weather, many were glad of the shower we had Friday night, as it did considerable good to the crops and also settled the dust that gathered in a short time.

Among those to transact business in Oregon City during the week were C. C. Schveder, A. H. Barland and R. de Neul.

Mrs. Joe Schaubel, of Oregon City, spent last week with her mother, Mrs. C. C. Schveder.

The many friends of the late Sam Livingston attended his funeral last Thursday and extended their sympathy to the remaining relatives.

Delmer de Neul is getting along fine, though he is still under the doctor's care.

FROG POND

FROG POND, May 22.—Our road boss, Smith Turner, has started grading the roads. He intends to start hauling gravel the last of the week.

Miss Linda Reimers was quietly married at the home of her parents on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Aden attended the party given for Henry Oldenstadt last Sunday. There were about 50 people present.

Those taking the eighth grade examination were Nola Turner and Milba Baker. The school will be out Friday, May 23.

Herman Reimers and Amos Mayes are sawing wood for Milby Bros.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shipley attended a party in Portland Saturday evening given to their nephew who just returned from France.

Mrs. F. Schawper, of Oswego, spent Sunday with her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bowden.

Eagle Creek

EAGLE CREEK, May 22.—Some of the patrons of the Eagle Creek Grange met at the Grange Hall last Wednesday, cleaning up the hall and grounds, preparing for the picnic which occurred on Saturday.

There was quite a large crowd out to the picnic, though if there had been promise of more sunshine, there probably would have been a much larger attendance. A very entertaining and interesting program was rendered. Judge Stapleton, the speaker of the day, gave an excellent address. One unique feature of the program was the skin of a snake of the Philippine Islands, which was used in a dialogue by the pupils of the Currinsville school. Two pupils were dressed as Filipinos. The snake skin was about two and one-half feet wide and about fifteen feet long, and it was stated that about ten feet of it were gone.

Miss Marie Anthony, Home Demonstration Agent, Miss Snediker, the Pig Club leader, and R. Scott, Agricultural agent, were present, the two former giving a talk along their lines of work. C. Schuebel, of Oregon City, made an interesting talk.

A pleasant day was spent by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Moehake were guests at the home of Roy Douglass last week.

Mrs. S. J. Eddy, and son, Bruce, and Miss Mildred Eddy, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Gibson, the past week, returned to their home in Portland on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Preister were visiting Mr. and Mrs. Roy Douglass last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Seranous, of Sellwood, visited their Deep Creek farm on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Douglass were calling on Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Dues, of Garfield, Sunday evening.

Mrs. M. J. Durham, of Portland, was out this way last week buying cows, two cows and a calf of Walter Douglass, one cow and a calf of Roy Douglass, and a cow and a calf of Dick Gibson.

George

GEORGE, May 16.—The people of George are all sorry to learn that Mr. Terwilliger is going to move his family to Portland in the near future. They will be missed very much by their friends and neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. H. Johnson motored to Oregon City last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. Star of Estacada, has been visiting her father, H. Joyner, for the past week.

Theo. Harders, purchased a new automobile last Tuesday.

Mrs. Doryland and children visited her sister, Mrs. P. Ruhl, last Thursday.

Ed Scheel and Joe. Wiederhold motored up the Columbia Highway last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Snider and son, Robert, of Estacada, and Mr. and Mrs. John Bound and daughters, Mabel of Mullino, visited Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Harders last Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Held visited relatives at Bathney, last Sunday.

Lorena Lubber visited Mrs. T. Harders last Friday.

Theo. Harders was transacting business in Oregon City last Tuesday.

Echo Dell

ECHO DELL, May 16.—We appreciate this rain for it was getting quite dry but it is causing the rye to fall badly. Some of this rye is above seven feet high.

Mrs. Eph. Dodge, of Oregon City, visited in Echo Dell Saturday.

Carl Barney is hauling shingles from Dodge Brothers mill.

Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Barney called on Mrs. Newhouse, Wednesday.

Mrs. Newhouse's little girl has been very ill, but is better now.

O. M. Kunzman, of West Linn, has been helping put in the crops for his son, John Kunzman.

Babe Olsen Dodge, who is attending school in Oregon City, visited her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. Olsen, at her home here, Sunday.

Miss Margaret Ahlberg of Oregon City, spent the week-end with her parents here.

Phyllis Meyrick has been sick but is improving.

Mr. Schlegel of Maple Lane, has been doing team work for F. Bombard.

Beaver Creek

BEAVER CREEK, May 22.—Beaver Creek school closed May 2, Robt. Ginter having taught a very successful term. This year made the third successive term for him as teacher in this district.

John Beattie of Gervais, spent the week-end with his parents.

Mrs. Flora Fisher is visiting relatives and friends at Nolin, Oregon.

Miss Erana Blum has returned home, having completed a successful term of school as teacher at Dix's mill.

Fred Thompson, operator of the Beaver Creek sub-station attended the dance at Molalla Saturday night.

The Beaver Creek baseball club will give a dance at the Beacon Heights hall, Saturday, May 31, which promises to be an enjoyable affair.

A large crowd witnessed the baseball game at Highland Sunday, when Beaver Creek and Highland boys crossed bats. Beaver Creek won 16 to 6. Batteries were: Highland—Nelson, Dolbow and Graves. Beaver Creek—Snodgrass and King.

Road work is well under way at the present time, under Ab Thomas' supervision. Since so many trucks have been in operation the roads have been badly torn up.

Mountain Road

MOUNTAIN ROAD, May 22.—The crops in this community are looking

B. Sullivan went to Portland last Tuesday.

Alva Gard and Rupert Marquardt attended the dance at F. Nicholas last Saturday evening.

Ed Grace and his father went to Portland on Monday.

Shubel

SHUBEL, May 22.—The Shubel school closed Saturday with a dinner and program. The dinner donated by the women was surely a grand success. Many of the cakes were baked by the school girls. The program given by the pupils was well rendered. The league of neighbors met with the school children and furnished some interesting selections. Farmer Smith, of the O. W. R. and N. gave a pleasing and helpful talk at the close of the program.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cchambran and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Jones.

Most of the people from this vicinity attended the ball game at Highland last Sunday, Shubel against Larkins mill. The score was 16 to 6 in favor of Shubel.

Charles Klingler, an honorably discharged soldier, of the service, after spending a few days with his brother, Rudolph Klingler, at Nolin, Oregon, returned home. His friends and rela-

Molalla

MOLALLA, May 22.—The local high school baseball team won its seventh straight victory Wednesday afternoon by defeating the Estacada high school by a score of 7 to 11. Neither team had been defeated this season and interest in the outcome of the game ran high as the championship of Clackamas county lay between these two high schools. At the close of the seventh inning the score stood 9 to 0 in favor of the home team, but a series of errors in the first of the eighth netted the Estacada team 6 runs.

The batteries were: Estacada, Jack Smith and Lovelace; Molalla, Riddings, Jackson and Fairice. Smith succeeded in striking out 5 men Riddings 4 and Jackson 1.

Come to the big dance in the Band Auditorium at Molalla, Saturday, May 31st. Good music. Come one! Come all!—Adv.

DOUBLE FUNERAL.

The funeral services for Walter Wm. Krebs, third son of Chas. Krebs, of Sandy Ridge, and Robt. Ruther, son of C. Ruther, of Sandy, was held from the Sandy Lutheran church, Friday at 2 o'clock. The boys were drowned in the Willamette river at Portland the Saturday night preceding. Rev. Dohberful, of this place conducted the services at the church, where the school children sang one song and the congregation sang several. The services at the Sandy cemetery, where the bodies were placed in one grave, was conducted by Rev. Koppelman, of Portland. The congregation here sang "Rock of Ages" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul."

The boys, who were nineteen years of age, had long been close friends and companions, working together, sharing their amusements and sports in common and in death they were not divided. Twelve boyhood friends acted as pall-bearers. The funeral was one of the largest ever held in Sandy, the church being unable to hold the crowd. Many beautiful floral tributes were received.

ANNUAL EVENT.

The Juniors of the Sandy high entertained the seniors with a banquet last Saturday evening at the home of M. Thomas of Bull Run.

Those present were Miss Lillian Thomas and Oren Gauger, Juniors; Miss Carrie De Shazer, Gladys Mitchell, Ganger and Alfred Melting, Seniors and Mr. P. B. Arrant.

The few in numbers the evening was pleasantly spent with music and games.

SCHOOLS CLOSING.

The Firwood school district No. 52, Miss Minther, teacher, closed a most successful term last week. The graduating exercises were held in the school house Saturday evening, when the following pupils were graduated from the eighth grade, Mildred Bosholt, James Lamper and Ruth De Shazer. All the members of this class are fourteen years old.

An excellent miscellaneous program, and a talk to the class by Antonio Malare, was enjoyed by all.

The Sandy high school will hold its graduating exercises in the I. O. O. F. hall, Friday evening. The grades will have a picnic on Westby Ridge Friday, the weather permitting.

The Marmot school will close this week. Last Friday the pupils enjoyed ice cream and cake.

WITH OUR BOYS.

Alex Gray recently arrived from overseas and is at Camp Dix. Raymond Gray is still in France, writes that he is well and had a letter from Alex the day before he left for the U. S.

Harry Reed, John Bickford and John Milan who were with Base hospital unit, No. 46, are scheduled to arrive in Portland Monday.

R. E. Eason writes from Nevers, France, under date of May 1st. Saying he expected to start home the first of June. Has been traveling over France closing up hospitals. Was in sight of Geneva, Switzerland, but at the border was turned back by a Swiss guard. Had a fine view of the city and lake from a distance. Said the Reds were supposed to demonstrate in that city that day. This letter came thru to Mrs. Eason the 17th of May, which is pretty good time.

LOCALS.

R. S. Smith reports the sale of a Briscoe to Wm. Whitmer, of Sandy Ridge, and a Ford to C. L. Hinsen, of Zig Zag.

Pearl Dixon is a Portland visitor his week.

SIR BARTON WINS

PIMLICO, Md., May 15.—It is early in the season to blaze forth the name of the king of three-year-olds, but if ever a colt earned such a title in spring racing, Commander J. K. T. Ross' Sir Barton did so yesterday, when he won the Preakness stakes at a mile and an eighth as easily as he captured the Kentucky derby last Saturday.

WRESTLERS FIGHT

YAKIMA, Wash., May 15.—A wrestling match between Taro Miyake, Japanese, and Ad Santell last night at the Yakima armory ended in a row, after Miyake had won the first fall jiu jitsu style, and the second, catch as catch can style, had been awarded to Santell by default. The third fall, which was to have been at jiu jitsu, was abandoned. When Miyake refused to wrestle the second fall, Santell struck him. The referee gave the Japanese 10 minutes to decide whether he would go on. Miyake declined and the fall was given to Santell.

TAKES NO CHANCES

CHICAGO, May 15.—Jack Dempsey, who battles Jess Willard for the world's heavyweight title at Toledo, July 4, will leave for the scene of the coming battle today, but he will ride the cushions of a Pullman instead of "motoring over" as planned.

This last minute change in Dempsey's plans was brought about by A. Q. Thatcher, Toledo promoter, who refuses to take any chances of Dempsey "getting all mused up in an automobile" and not being able to give battle to Willard on Independence day.

Thatcher arrived here yesterday just as Dempsey was getting ready for his motor trip.

Bonds Are Sold For High School

Union high school district No. 3, comprising West Linn and Willamette, has sold its interest bearing warrant issue, recently authorized by the people. The total issue was $65,000 and of this amount $12,300 was taken by residents of the districts at par and the remainder, or $52,700 went to Morris Bros., of Portland, for a premium of $1976. West side residents who purchased the warrants were: L. L. Porter, $10,000; M. E. Clancy, $12,000; Philip Schuerr, $500; Thomas Hage, $500; Lydia Graves, $50; Harold Graves, $50. The warrants draw 5 per cent interest.

LOST—Eight thrift stamps, between Lower Logan and Oregon City. Reward. Return to Box 149, Oregon City, Route 2.
