

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. C. Schuebel, who left here Saturday for Rhododendron, in the Mount Hood country, returned to Oregon City Wednesday morning. While here Mr. Schuebel was in charge of the construction of his little summer home, which he calls a "shack," and he is looking forward with pleasure to the time when he will spend the week-ends and his vacations at this place. It is the intention of Mrs. Schuebel and daughters to leave here as soon as the house is completed, and will spend the summer there. The place is located in a most picturesque spot, and is close to Rhododendron Tavern, one of the finest summer resorts of the Northwest. The road leading to that place is in good condition for this time of the year, and there were many motorists making the trip to that point last Sunday.

William Beard of Sellwood, but formerly of Oregon City, was here Friday accompanied by his wife, Miss Bessie Bland of St. Paul, Minn. While here they visited relatives and friends. Miss Bland accompanied her mother, Mrs. Bessie Bland, to Sellwood three weeks ago, the latter having been called to that place by the critical illness of her mother, Mrs. B. H. Beard. The latter is 90 years of age, and has been ill for some time. They will return to their home in St. Paul Monday evening. Both have visited in Oregon a number of times, and they are more than ever impressed with Oregon. They made the trip over the Columbia river highway several days ago, and were delighted. Miss Bland is a stenographer for a large publishing company.

Andrew Koerner, of the 362d Infantry, and who has just returned from France and received his discharge from the service, visited among his many friends in this city Friday. Koerner was a former Oregon City young man, but for a number of years has been residing in Portland until entering the service. He was a lieutenant of his company, and was one of the most popular young men of his regiment. Koerner was in France about nine months. He is one of the huskiest young men Oregon sent overseas, and has thoroughly enjoyed his wonderful experiences he has had during the time he has been in the service. Koerner is the son of Mrs. Rudolph Koerner of Portland.

Lawrence Ferguson, of New Era, was in Oregon City Thursday. He accompanied his son, Mechanic Oliver Ferguson, of the Anti-Aircraft division, as far as this city. The latter proceeded to Portland, where he will visit relatives until Monday, when he leaves in the evening for the Presidio, Calif., to resume his duties in the army. He has been entertained by his many friends since taking his furlough, and expects to be home in time to enjoy the next event given in honor of the Clackamas county boys. He was among those to arrive here in time for the victory ball recently given here.

H. L. Scheer of Twilight, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday. Mr. Scheer is suffering from a wound on the left hand. He was in the act of cutting wood about two weeks ago, when the handle of the axe struck a block of wood nearby, and caused the axe blade to swerve and it struck his thumb. Scheer looked for the piece of the thumb, believing he could have this sewed on, but failed to find it. He came to this city, and had it dressed and had a number of stitches taken to close the wound. He received treatment at the Oregon City hospital.

Carl Martin, who was with Company F, 18th Engineers Railway company, and has been overseas, has returned to Oregon City, and is glad to be home again. Carl was among the first young men of this city to answer his country's call. He was in the blacksmithing business, and sold his place of business and left to fight for his country. He had the muscle to go with the grit, and he did his bit over in France helping to fight the Huns. Martin was a valuable man to the company and was among those assisting in construction work. He has a host of friends here.

George Dedman, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, E. P. Dedman, of Clackamas, and also at the home of his brother, Dr. H. A. Dedman, of Canby, and at the J. C. Paddock home in Gladstone, has returned to Skagway, Alaska, where he is in the hotel business. He purchased an automobile in Portland made the trip as far as Seattle in the car. He was accompanied to Alaska by his son, Henry, who has been making his home in Portland. George Dedman was a former resident of Oregon City.

Electa Mark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Mark of Mark's Prairie, who recently underwent a critical operation for appendicitis at the Oregon City hospital, has improved so that she was able to be taken to her home Wednesday evening. Mrs. Mark, who has been at the home of her sister, Mrs. Grant B. Dimick, during her daughter's illness, has also returned to her home.

William Folger, who has been with the 18th Engineers Railway company, arrived in Portland a few days ago from France and visited among his many friends in this city Friday. "Bill" has gained in flesh, and his many friends here were glad to see him back. He will resume his position with the Jones Drug company when he receives his discharge from the service.

Miss Letta Naas of Boring, who has been visiting at the temporary home of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dellas at Gladstone, has returned to Portland. Miss Naas accompanied Mr. and Mrs.

Dellasa to their Damascus home Saturday, and remained until Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Dellasa returned to Gladstone at that time. Mr. Dellasa is employed in the shipyards at Portland, but has his crops in at the farm and makes week-end trips there.

Fred Blum, who has been in the service, stationed in the East, surprised his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Odofred Blum, of Beaver Creek, Thursday, when he returned. He has received his discharge from the service, and will remain on the farm. He is a brother of Miss Christina Blum, of this city, with whom he visited while on his way home.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Stroup, who have been making their home at Lorane, Oregon, have arrived at Mount Pleasant, where they are to make their future home. Mr. Stroup has purchased a ten-acre farm at that place. He has disposed of his 360-acre farm in Lorane to A. Theob, of Portland, and Frank Slinger, formerly of Mount Pleasant.

Albert Estes has purchased the property of Mrs. Ben Linn on Polk street, near Seventh, and is having the house renovated, and will take possession within a few days. Mrs. Linn formerly occupied this place, but is now making her home in Portland, where she has purchased property.

Mrs. Pinky Whitney of Portland, was in Oregon City Saturday. She came here to close a land deal, when she sold four acres to W. L. Arant, who is principal of the Oregon City high school. The land is located near the highway and in the Twilight section, and is a most desirable tract of land.

Dellasa Armstrong, who has been in England, and left here with the 162d Infantry, has returned to Oregon City. Dellasa is delighted to return home, and his friends are just as glad to have him here, for on Saturday when he reached his home city, he was given a most cordial welcome.

Mrs. Wilda Elliott Fish of near Woodburn, is in Oregon City, having come here to visit her mother, Mrs. Elliott, who is in the Oregon City hospital. Mrs. Elliott is one of the pioneer residents of the southern part of the county, and is improving from her illness.

Clifford Wills, a well-known Canby young man, who has been in Canby Mills, and still in the service, was in Oregon City Thursday. He was on his way to Canby, where he is to visit relatives. Among these will be Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blair. He is a nephew of Mr. Blair.

Henry Meldrum, formerly of this city, was in Oregon City the first of the week. He was accompanied here by his daughter, Mrs. Pearl Stevens, of Portland. They were accompanied to Oregon City by Mrs. D. P. Thompson, the latter a sister of Mr. Meldrum.

R. de Neul, a prominent farmer of Stafford, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday. Mr. de Neul came here to complete the funeral arrangements for his sister, Mrs. C. C. Schroeder, of Stafford, who died in this city Monday afternoon.

Roy Stafford has received his honorable discharge from the army, and returned to his home at Mount Pleasant. Stafford was with the 18th Engineers Railway Company, and has had considerable experience in France.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis of Beaver Creek, were in this city Thursday. They recently sold their place, and expect to leave for California by automobile in the fall, where they are contemplating locating.

Wallace McCord, who returned to Oregon City a few days ago from France, having been with the 18th Engineers Railway company, left for Seattle Monday afternoon, where he will remain for a few days.

Mrs. Florence Kerr, who has been spending some time in Oregon City, has returned to her home at Redland. Her son has so far recovered from his illness that he has been able to return to the Kerr home.

David McArthur, of New Era, was in Oregon City Tuesday taking part in the patriotic exercises of the G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps held at the McLaughlin Institute and the Willamette school.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Davenport and family, who have been residing on their farm near Redland, have disposed of this to a family from Alaska and have again taken up their residence here.

Among those to come to Oregon City to work in the interest of the roadway in the Marquam country Tuesday evening were Willard Stanton, John Stanton and J. W. Egan, of Monitor.

Mrs. Arthur Rice, of Wapinitia, Oregon, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayes, of Gladstone. Mrs. Rice was formerly Miss Mary Hayes, of that place.

Born, May 10, to the wife of Myron Wishart of Sellwood Gardens, a son, Dr. O. A. Welsh of this city, attended. Mrs. Wishart was formerly Miss Jean Marlin of Willamette.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson Meldrum and two sons are occupying their residence on Steele avenue, Meldrum, and are to make their home there.

W. A. Carlson of Redland, was among the Oregon City visitors Friday. Mr. Carlson is one of the well-known residents of that section.

Paul Dunn, prominent resident of Sandy, and a county road viewer, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Thursday.

Stonewall Vaughn of Canby, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Saturday. While here he visited among his friends.

Mrs. Joe Wallace, of Hoff, who underwent a surgical operation at the Oregon City hospital Wednesday, is improving.

E. B. Miller of Needy, a deputy road master, was among those to transact business at the court house Thursday.

George Buck, prominent stockman of the Beaver Creek country, was among the Oregon City visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Gustave Friedrich, who has been at Logan visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Gerber, has returned home.

A. D. Mazingo, who resides near Willhoit, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Marshall, of Estacada, were among the Oregon City visitors Monday.

Thomas Slaughter, of Marquam, was among those to transact business in Oregon City Tuesday.

C. Koch, a prominent farmer of Redland, was among those to transact business here Friday.

John Wittenburg, of Jennings Lodge, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

L. Steuergel, of Oswego, was among those to transact business in this city Tuesday.

Martin Stolkenberg of Clackamas, was among those to transact business here Thursday.

Mrs. B. English, who resides near Milwaukie, was in this city Monday visiting friends.

George C. Mitts of Canby, accompanied by his wife, were in Oregon City Saturday.

Charles Spranger of Canby, was among those to transact business here Saturday.

M. E. Kandle, prominent farmer of Highland, section, was here on business Thursday.

John Bohrer of Milwaukie, Route 1, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

Frank Rhodes, of Milwaukie, was among those to transact business here Monday.

G. F. Blair, of Scotts Mills, was among those to transact business here Monday.

Mrs. H. Evans, of Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

E. R. Leek of Redland, was among those to transact business here Saturday.

A. C. Ball of Boring, was among those to transact business here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rider of Greenwood, was in Oregon City Saturday.

L. A. Russell of Redland, was among those to transact business here Saturday.

H. B. Dreier, of Aurora, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. Douglass, of Canby, was among the Oregon City visitors Wednesday.

B. G. Boardman, of Jennings Lodge, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

E. L. Falfrey of Molalla, was among the Oregon City visitors Thursday.

J. W. Watson, of Yoder, was in Oregon City on business Wednesday.

J. C. Vigles of Oak Grove, was an Oregon City visitor Thursday.

Harry Roach of Milwaukie, was an Oregon City visitor Monday.

N. M. Tracy, of Estacada, was here transacting business Monday.

Fish Warden Bound To the Grand Jury

Deputy Fish Warden Larson, who was arrested last week on complaint of Beldon Ganong, was arraigned for hearing Wednesday. He waived preliminary hearing and was bound over to the grand jury.

The fish warden was accused of pointing a gun at Ganong and was released on $100 bonds.

EVERETT DYE LEAVES

Wednesday evening Everett Dye left for Cleveland, Ohio, where his brother, Trafton Dye, resides. Everett is an automobile mechanical engineer and expects to enter one of the manufacturing plants there.

Miss Evangeline Dye came down from Corvallis to bid her brother, Everett, good bye. She is one of a party of 35 seniors of the State Agricultural College chaperoned by Dean Milla, to a state convention of Home Economics in Portland, with headquarters at Hotel Multnomah. Miss Dye and some of her friends expect to be in Oregon City over Sunday.

PROBATE COURT

Martha Gilmore, widow of the late Charles Gilmore, filed petition for appointment of administrator of his estate Wednesday.

This consists of personal property valued at $200 and real property at $1,500. She asks for appointment of Christ Naegli as administrator of the estate.

Suit Is Filed On Large Notes

Karine Bolland entered suit Wednesday against G. A. Maggie, M. S. Rachael, James A. and Lillian Cobb, and J. L. Evans, M. A. Evans and Fritz Weise, to collect on two notes given by the Cobbs May 15, 1915. These notes were for $500, at six per cent. interest to run six months, and one for $8,100; also at six per cent. to run for a period of five years or less.

Plaintiff alleges only $2,642.80 has been paid on the principal and $934.42 interest, which pays this up to May 15, 1917. They allege that the defendants have failed to pay the interest although it has been demanded of them.

A mortgage on property in Clackamas county was given to secure the note and Evans and Weise claim some interest in this which the plaintiff claims is inferior to the one held by here.

She asks a settlement of the balance of the notes, $4967.20, and interest from May 15, 1918, and $500 attorney's fees and costs of the case.

JAIL SENTENCE GIVEN LOUIS F. MUELLER FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

Louis F. Mueller, who was accused of contempt of court, was given a hearing Wednesday and sentenced by Judge J. U. Campbell to 10 days in the county jail.

Ethel Mueller sued him for divorce some time ago and was given a decree and $25 per month alimony and $300 cash and a share of the real and personal property of the couple.

The complaint charged Mueller with failure to pay the alimony or the other amounts and when arraigned he said he did not believe in courts and would not pay.

In the divorce complaint the wife alleged he failed to provide necessities of life and treated her in a cruel and inhuman manner.

DR. SOMMER NAMED CHIEF SURGEON OF TRACTION COMPANY

Dr. E. A. Sommer, for many years a practicing physician of Oregon City, has been appointed chief surgeon of the Portland Railway Light & Power Co., succeeding Dr. E. A. Rocky, resigned. Dr. Sommer will maintain offices in the Electric Building. He moved to Portland about 10 years ago, and was a captain in the army during the war, and is a member of the Portland school board.

Henry Schoenborn Is Given Party

A surprise party was tendered Henry Schoenborn of Eldorado, Tuesday evening in honor of his birthday anniversary. Among the amusements of the evening were cards, games and billiards. Refreshments were served.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Schuebel, Al Weiman, Charles Weiman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schoenborn, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schoenborn, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dietrich, Miss Mary Weiman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest H. Cross, Mrs. Augusta Schoenborn.

Speed Cop Nabs Law Violators

Speed Cop Meads has been on the job this week and arrested four traffic violators, all near New Era. Three of these were fined at Milwaukie and one here.

R. V. Peterson of Milwaukie, was traveling 35 miles an hour and paid a fine of $12. George Price, was going 38 miles an hour and was fined $15, and Glenn Jones made 38 miles and paid a fine of $7. Both of the latter men were from Milwaukie.

C. A. Hanson of Oregon City, was speeding at 38 miles an hour when caught by Meads and was fined $20.

Prominent People Leave for the East

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Badger, who have been residing in the Beaver Creek country for the past eleven years, were in Oregon City Tuesday. They left Tuesday afternoon for Portland, and are to remain for a few days visiting friends, and from there will proceed to Welser, Idaho, their former home, where they are to visit. They will later go to Missouri and Iowa. Mr. and Mrs. Badger have sold their farm at Beaver Creek, and have not yet decided upon a location, but their many friends are hoping for their return to Clackamas county.

They were among the most loyal patriots of Clackamas county during the war times. Mr. Badger was in the dairy business while a resident of Clackamas county, and had some of the best Jerseys in his herd.

POLK'S GAZETTEER
A Business Directory of each City, Town and Village in Oregon and Washington, giving a Descriptive Sketch of each place, Location, Shipping Facilities and a Classified Directory of each Business and Profession.
L. E. POLK & CO., Inc., Seattle, Wash.

EIGHTH GRADE PAPERS OF CLACKAMAS PUPILS ARE BEING EXAMINED

The Board of Examiners is busily engaged in grading the eighth grade examination papers in the office of the county school superintendent, J. E. Calavan. The work will be completed within about two weeks.

From the present indications there will be very few of the students fail in the examination, and a large number have received the 100 per cent mark in various studies. A number of the schools of Clackamas county are making a most creditable showing. In the eighth grade classes there were about 400 papers to grade, and the remainder from the sixth and seventh grades taking the examination make over 3000 papers to grade. Mr. Calavan and Brenton Vedder, the school supervisor, are very much encouraged over the papers they are grading, and shows the interest the students are taking in their studies.

MILL EMPLOYE IS GIVEN JUDGMENT FOR SEVERE INJURIES

J. W. Currin was given a judgment Wednesday for $1,000 against the Crown-Willamette Paper company for injuries received while employed in the mills.

He claimed that at the time of the injuries the paper company was not operating under the State Industrial Accident Commission, and that he was injured through neglect of the paper company to safeguard the employees.

He was working over a large mixing tank in which were agitators revolving rapidly and alleges that owing to the slippery footing he fell into this and was permanently injured before the machinery could be stopped. He was injured in the back, head, and suffered bruises he claimed.

PIG AND CORN CLUBS OF BOYS AND GIRLS TO MEET SATURDAY

The Boys' and Girls' Corn and Pig Clubs will meet in the Commercial Club parlors in the Masonic building Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when parents of the children will accompany them. A program is being arranged for the afternoon. The opening address will be made by the county school superintendent, J. E. Calavan; reports of various clubs by the club leaders; "Impotence of Thinning Corn," O. L. Strougham, of Estacada; address, "Pigs and Corn," Judge B. G. Dimick; "Cultivation of Corn," R. G. Scott, county agent; "Instruction in Judging," L. A. Allen, of Corvallis.

SUIT IS ENTERED FOR COLLECTION ON NOTE LONG OVERDUE

J. M. Hart filed suit Tuesday against John F. and Wilmette S. Jennings and the National Baking company and I. M. Blomwick to collect a note for $600 given by Jennings October 30, 1915, to run two years at 7 per cent.

Plaintiff alleges that nothing has been paid and the makers of the note failed to pay the taxes and he was forced to pay these, amounting to $80.86.

Plaintiff asks for a settlement of the note and interest from April 30, 1918, to May 20, 1919, and $100 attorney's fees.

The baking company and Blomwick claim some interest in the property and plaintiff alleges these claims are inferior to the one held by him.

LICENSE TO WED

Marie McLarty, 21, of West Linn, and Ellis Jones, 20, of Clackamas, were granted a marriage license Wednesday by County Clerk Miller. The father of the young man gave his consent to the marriage.

Georgia Marrs, 29, of Oregon City, nurse at the local hospital, and Edward Ford Henry, 29, of Portland, were also granted a wedding license Wednesday.

Probate Court.

Aurice Draper and Herbert Moore filed Tuesday for probate of the will of the late Clara Moore, who died May 10, 1919.

The estate consists of real property valued at $800 and personal property valued at $900. The real estate consists of lots in Bolton.

One of the petitioners, Moore, was named as administrator of the estate.

FISHERMEN ARRESTED

George Storey and William Finnucane, both of Oregon City, were arrested Saturday by Constable Fortune, on charges of fishing too near the falls. The complaint was made by Deputy Fish Warden Cornell. When arraigned the men were given until Monday, May 26, to plead.

IN SOCIETY CIRCLES

The entertainment given at the grange hall at Parkplace under the auspices of the Abernethy Grange Friday evening was a decided success, both socially and financially. The proceeds of the entertainment will go towards purchasing a new piano for the hall.

The early part of the evening was devoted to the following program: piano solo, Professor Theroux; vocal solo, Miss Marie Holmes; piano solo, Miss Ruth Limbocker of this city; selection, Theroux orchestra; vocal solo, Miss Maude Lagesson of this city; piano solo, Miss Fern Wirtz of this city; piano solo, Miss Agatha Keesley; selection, orchestra.

During the evening a cafeteria supper was served, when a number of the grange assisted at the various booths.

A jiney dance was also one of the pleasing features during the evening. Five cents for each dance being charged the young men. The floor was filled with merry dancers, and the music was furnished by the Theroux orchestra.

The committee having charge of the entertainment was composed of L. J. Lagesson, chairman; Mrs. Pearl Bernier, Mrs. Chris Rivers and Miss Evadne Blood.

The marriage of Miss George Marra, of this city, to Mr. Edward Ford Henry of Portland, was solemnized in Portland Thursday evening. The ceremony was very quiet and was witnessed by only a few relatives of the contracting parties.

The bride wore a very becoming navy blue traveling suit, and turban. Following the marriage ceremony the bridegroom and bride left for a brief honeymoon, and will probably make their home in Oregon City, where Mrs. Henry has resided all of her life.

The bride is one of Oregon City's most estimable young women. She is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Marra, well known Oregon City pioneers. After attending the Oregon City schools she took a nurse's course in Good Samaritan hospital, Portland, and was graduated from that institution with honors. She followed her profession in Portland for a number of years, and later became connected with the Oregon City hospital, being for some time night superintendent of that institution. She has been very successful in her profession, both in this city and in Portland, and has a host of friends in both cities.

Mr. Henry, who recently returned from overseas duty, after a two-years' absence, was one of the popular men of his company. When receiving his discharge he had attained the rank of sergeant. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jean Henry, of Portland.

Divorce Is Asked By Mae Bluhm

Mae Bluhm entered suit Saturday against George H. Bluhm, whom she charged with associating with other women and also that he said he did not love her or had no affections for her.

She alleges these actions began about six months ago and he often told her he did not wish to live with her any longer.

She asks for alimony of $40 per month and costs of the case.

Jury Is Called To Convene On June 1

Judge J. U. Campbell issued an order Monday for a new grand jury list to be drawn as the former jury was discharged by him a few days ago and ended the April term of the court. This action was taken on account of several of the jurors being ill and others were out of the county. The new court will convene June 9.

"If you have any good apples, potatoes, wheat or other farm produce for sale see F. T. Barlow at C. W. Inn, West Linn, and he will pay you cash on delivery. Phone Pacific 668."—Adv.

MRS. C. C. SCHROEDER STAFFORD RESIDENT DIES LAST MONDAY

Mrs. C. C. Schroeder, wife of Conrad Schroeder, a prominent resident of the Stafford country, died at the Oregon City hospital Monday afternoon. Mrs. Schroeder was taken to the hospital about five days ago, after being ill for some time.

Mrs. Schroeder was born in Germany 49 years ago. Her parents were Mr. and Mrs. DeNeul and the daughter came to the United States in 1884, and settled in North Dakota, where she resided until 1890. She then came to Oregon, first settling in Gilliam county, where she resided for seven years, and the remainder of her life was spent in Clackamas county.

In the fall of 1892 she was united in marriage to Conrad Schroeder of Stafford. Mrs. Schroeder is survived by her widower and six children, Mrs. Anna Schaubel, Mrs. Mamie Miller, Mrs. Lottie Coulson, Mrs. Lydia Ellingsen, Roy Schroeder and Lulu Schroeder. She is also survived by two brothers, John DeNeul and R. DeNeul of Stafford.

MOUNTAIN VIEW MAN LAID TO FINAL REST AT HIGHLAND MONDAY

The funeral services of the late James Parrish, one of the well-known residents of Oregon City who died at his home in Mountain View Addition May 5, after seven months' illness, were held from the church at Mountain View Monday morning at 11 o'clock. During the services "When the Roll is Called Up Yonder," a favorite selection of Mr. Parrish, was sung most impressively. The remains were conveyed to Highland cemetery, and interred in the family lot. Many old time friends of that place attended the last rites at the cemetery. There were also many at the church in this city.

The pallbearers were old time friends of the deceased, and were A. Mautz, John Luelling, Mr. Gibbs, J. A. Gorbett, A. Van Hoy and James Shelly.

Mr. Parrish's death came as a shock to his relatives and friends, as he was improving in health during the three weeks previous to his death, and upon retiring at 11 o'clock was taken ill, and his wife summoned her niece, Mrs. Anna Rath, nearby, but his death occurred shortly after.

James Parrish was born in Illinois January 28, 1842, and was married to Martha Darnell in 1861. To the union was born 12 children, 4 girls and eight boys, nine of whom survive. Those that survive are Andrew, of Hoskins, Ore.; Sylvester, of Seattle, Wash.; Charles, of St. Helens; James, of Alaska; Florence Parr, of Molalla; John, of Noll, Ore.; Lonzo, of Baker, Ore.; Laurence, of Post, Ore.; Evans, of Maupin, Ore.; one brother, of Oregon City, Thomas J. Parrish; one sister, Jane Farlow, of Wamie, Ore.

He crossed the plains in 1865 and settled at Portland, lived there seven years, and took up a homestead in Highland and lived there until January 1, 1903. He was married to Mary Walton, and has lived in Oregon City since.

ADDRESS WANTED

A letter was received Friday by the Enterprise from Greeley, Colorado, inquiring for information regarding J. M. Shumate. The writer has information that the man resided here but letters addressed to him have been returned.

The letter was from the superintendent of the cemetery and any information regarding Shumate sent to this office will be forwarded to Greeley.

ABSTRACTS OF TITLE 50% DISCOUNT

Complete Abstracts of Title from the Government down to date, direct from the record, under seal of our Company.

ONE HALF USUAL PRICE

Provided land abstracted is described in any of the thousands of abstracts in our files covering—

Ninety Clackamas County Town Plats, Two hundred Clackamas County Donation Land Claims, Three hundred-fifty