EAST CLACKAMAS

Old Jupiter seems to be handing us some great weather the past two weeks.

It has rained so much that it has kept the webfooters in pretty close. Mrs. C. Erickson and daughter, Vernia, were Portland shoppers Saturday.

The E. C. S. C. met with Mrs. S. Kelnhofer last Wednesday.

Mrs. E. R. Boyer and daughter, Edna, were visitors with Mrs. Goldie Brooks of Washougal, Wash., from Wednesday until Saturday of last week.

The "kiddies" of the school and community will give an exhibition of their wisdom next Saturday night at the "literary" at the school house.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Klinker will soon move to their new home close to Sycamore corners.

J. Welch says the reason he does not go to Washougal is that he has no diving suit and he is afraid he would drown among the big ferns up there.

CHERRYVILLE

And the next day it rained.

Not a very Merry Christmas for the old world this year.

Thirty-four degrees below zero at Devil's Lake, N. D. Why doesn't the devil warm up his lake? He has the reputation of being a good fireman.

Dayton & Miles, who live north of town a mile, sold a bunch of fine steers last week to a butcher from Montavilla.

Henry Bedenstein and his son, August, also sold some cattle. Better to sell than feed hay at $25 a ton later.

Mrs. Jessie Sibray of Pittsburg, Pa., is visiting with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Botkins, one-half mile east of the post office. She will probably remain with them all winter.

Mrs. Sibray says one can throw a stone and hit a millionaire most anywhere in Pittsburg. These big bugs and money mania have trouble in keeping the hon-yocks and Roundheads at work and they will then only work half the time at big pay. A few years ago this same gang of greedy grabbers had their gang of politicians and hired newspaper men circulating over the country telling a lot of yaps to give us high protection and high tariff so we could pay big wages to American working men while at the same time they were bringing over shiploads of hon-yocks, daggers and the scum of Europe, whom they were working 12 hours a day and seven days a week at from $1.00 to $1.50 a day. No wonder there are so many millionaires in Pittsburg.

VIOLA

D. G. White has gone to Idaho for a few days.

Mr. Gibbs is building a private bridge across Clear creek.

A. C. White and family have moved to Oregon City. Mr. White will work in the paper mills.

Mrs. M. L. Sevier of River Mill, was a guest of Mrs. Gibbs over Sunday.

Byron Randolph is working in the ship yards at Seattle.

Bruce Randolph was on the sick list a few days and was unable to attend school.

The honor roll for the Viola school for November, comprises Bernice and Evelyn Miller, Francis Cummin and Harold Bristol.

A community Christmas tree and entertainment will be held at the church Friday evening, December 21, under the leadership of Miss Mary Rorick.

Mary Rorick, Grace Miller and Peter Felling were Portland visitors Saturday.

Rev. B. A. Bristol will preach at Clarkes next Sunday, December 23, at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Services at Highland, 2:30 p. m.

LOGAN

A Christmas program is being prepared for presentation at the church on Sunday the 23rd.

The Red Cross auxiliary is stirring up much activity in knitting and other soldier relief work.

The O. A. C. experts reviewed the drainage work by Samuel Gerber and sons and decided they were doing it right.

Mrs. Effie Kohl and son, Jack, visited relatives in Portland last week and incidentally took in the holiday sights.

Mr. Bridenstine and family have moved to the Newberg country.

Henry Kohl has been sitting up and seems to be getting along as well as could be expected. Philip Kohl has been staying with his son since the accident.

Frank Kohl writes that the climate of France makes an Oregonian feel at home, so we presume it is the rain and mud that has the effect. He hears the firing of the big guns occasionally. His officers say that letters should not be given out for publication.

Mrs. J. C. Young has been in Portland to do Christmas shopping early.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerber were out from Portland last Sunday visiting at the T. E. Anderson home.

H. W. Hagemann had a bad fall recently.

Mrs. Sherwood is at the Oregon City hospital attending her husband, who came there from Portland for an operation. He was getting along well at last reports.

At this time it seems we are just about up against the annual flood over the Abernethy road that interferes with mail service for several days. D. F. Whiteman just got through by a squeeze.

PARKPLACE

We were all very much shocked and saddened by the sudden and tragic death of Leslie LaDoux Saturday.

The parents and relatives have the sincere sympathy of all Parkplace people. The funeral was held this afternoon from the little church here and interment was in the Clackamas cemetery.

The play, which was to have been given next week at the school house, has been indefinitely postponed.

Mrs. Clark, sister of Leslie LaDoux, and her husband, came from California this week. She had just returned home from a several weeks' visit with her parents. She had wanted very much to take her brother home with her, but because of his school it was thought best to leave him until the school was out. Now she has come to attend his funeral.

Walter Munger has very recently joined the aviation corps. He was accepted and will leave soon. He will probably be here at his home until after Christmas.

The Clackamas river is certainly doing its worst, or perhaps best, to rise above the banks and wipe Gladstone and Parkplace off the map. This rain is not just pleasant, perhaps, but like Pollyanna, "we're glad the sun doesn't shine all the time."

Mrs. Laura Shoal, of Cheyenne, Wyo., spent Sunday with Mrs. Brayton and Mrs. Coffey. Mrs. Shoal was formerly Miss Laura Brannon, and was well known in Parkplace. She left for her home Monday.

Parkplace people are responding very promptly to the sale of Red Cross stamps, which closed Thursday, showing that we have the helping spirit even if we are a small town.

STAFFORD

The rain still continues to descend upon the just and the unjust as in olden times. Some suggest that the sun has lost its way in the fog and is giving us a second equinoctial storm, but it is not cold for this time of year, which causes quite a number to contract colds. None have developed pneumonia as yet.

Mr. Perry's auto skidded when leaving Mrs. Gage's place and ran into her wire fence.

Sad news came to Mrs. Gage from eastern Oregon. On Wednesday the fifth, as Mr. and Mrs. E. Southworth with two little boys and his mother were on their way to Canyon City, Grant county, a wheel flew off their auto and the car ran off the grade and turned turtle in the ice cold waters of Canyon Creek when about two miles from the city. The wife managed to crawl out and help out the mother and little boys but the husband was jammed in so that he could not stir and she stood up to her knees in the creek keeping his head out of water while the mother and children ran both ways for help. It was over an hour before help came. When he was rescued it was found that he had a badly lacerated leg and the gasoline had dripped on his arm and burned it quite severely.

On Saturday the eighth, Mrs. Southworth's sister lost her little two-year-old baby girl by drowning. It had wandered away and fallen into a swift running creek only a short distance from the door. The mothers are Mrs. Gage's grand daughters, whose husbands are extensive cattle and horse owners in eastern Oregon.

On Sunday the sixteenth, Miss Susie Schatz and Carl B. Eisele were married at the home of the bride's father in the presence of relatives and a few friends. A bountiful wedding dinner was served. The bride is the daughter of William Schatz and wife of this place, and has a wide circle of friends, who wish her joy and happiness in her new life. The groom is the son of a farmer now living near Aurora, but who used to live near here.

A number of young men have enlisted from this place and vicinity during the past week or two, among them Ed Rabble, who at one time went to California and studied aviation and has now joined that branch of the army.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Thompson have also bade good bye to another son, and a son-in-law who have gone to join the colors.

There are not enough young men left to make a charivari crowd interesting.

EAGLE CREEK

Last Wednesday Mrs. J. G. Gillingham, field secretary of the Portland chapter American Red-Cross, came out to Eagle Creek and organized a Red Cross auxiliary with about 20 members. The officers elected were, Gus Burnett, chairman; Mrs. Homer Glover, vice-chairman; Miss Jennie Smith, secretary; Mrs. Roy Meyers, treasurer.

and Mrs. Emma Thomas, military chairman.

Last Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Gillingham met with the ladies of upper Eagle Creek at the home of Alex Baker and organized a Red Cross unit of 10 members. This unit will work with or under the Eagle Creek auxiliary. Mrs. Addie Judd was elected military chairman.

Mrs. Viola Douglass was an Estacada visitor one day last week.

Mrs. R. S. Clark is on the sick list.

Roy Douglass made a business trip to Firwood on Monday.

Eagle Creek Grange held its regular session last Saturday with about 40 present, including the children. E. N. Bates occupied the chair in the absence of the master, F. W. Bates. A short business meeting was held in the forenoon, then a short recess was taken for dinner. Work was resumed after dinner. One pleasing feature of the day was the Christmas pie, which was enjoyed by all.

James Bell, of Sandy, was a Grange visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Naylor were dinner guests at the home of Will Douglass Sunday.

Virgil Douglass, who has been ill with the mumps the past week, is improving.

Miss Veroo Beckett, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. A. Beckett, for a few days, returned to Portland Sunday, accompanied by her mother.

Joe Williams, with the assistance of Fred Hoffmeister, butchered nine hogs for Mrs. Beckett on Tuesday.

CLARKES

We wish you all a Merry Christmas.

We are having very stormy weather at present. The wind has blown and it has rained so hard that everything is filling up with water, but the farmers would be pleased if they could have fine weather for a few weeks now.

Wesley Lindau enlisted and left on Monday.

Quite a few young people of Clarkes attended the surprise party at the home of R. Bullard of Falls View Saturday evening, and had a good time.

J. Nelson and son, Harvey, were in Oregon City Sunday.

The German Methodist church is preparing a big Christmas tree for December 24.

P. Sager is on the sick list, but is getting better again.

Ed Grace is hauling his potatoes to the Clarkes store.

Mrs. Christina Kleinsmith visited Mrs. W. H. Bottemiller and family Monday.

The Clarkes school is to have two weeks' vacation over the holidays.

Rev. G. Kleinbach visited W. H. Bottemiller and family last Thursday.

William Clarke was in Oregon City last week on business.

C. Stronggreen repaired his kitchen with oil paper last Thursday.

John Hofstetter was collecting for the German Christmas tree fund last Wednesday.

George Hollman, brother of Otto Liman, the mail carrier of Hoff, carried mail for a few days last week.

Ole Hanson of Colton is staying with B. Sullivan for a short time.

Mr. Lewis, from Highland, bought some hay in Clarkes last week.

W. H. Bottemiller is clearing some land and his son, Claudius, is assisting him.

We are sorry to hear that Lawrence Mudgett of Oregon City is ill with pneumonia and we wish him a speedy recovery.

Fred Lindau was in Oregon City last Wednesday on business.

C. H. Bergman hauled some things for J. Maxson from Oregon City Wednesday.

Clarence Lee and family from Oregon City moved to the Sager's saw mill last Thursday.

Mr. Elliott from Ellwood, was in Beaver Creek last Thursday.

Richard Johnson from California, visited his sister, Mrs. C. Stronggreen, and family last Thursday, and left again on Friday.

Carl Stronggreen of Colton, took Mr. Johnson to Oregon City Friday and he left for his home in California in the evening.

Frank Bloomer is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. D. Bauer, of Colton for a short time.

George Clarke was at Beaver Creek last Saturday on business.

A. Gasser is ill with pneumonia.

Rev. M. Rugg from Oregon City, preached in the English M. E. church Sunday morning.

REDLAND

D. C. Fouts has received word from his mother and sister, who are visiting relatives in the east, that they are having such a pleasant visit that they will prolong same until February.

R. C. Brown was out from Portland Sunday and sold his horses. He expects to move back out here about February 15.

Smith and Crawford have changed their plan of delivering milk. They now haul their milk in cans and have a bottling plant on Johnston creek, near town.

F. Bullard, the Oregon City sexton, was out at his place Sunday for hay.

Miss Lulu Schwartz has returned from near Baker where she has been combining business with pleasure. Miss Neita Powers, formerly of this place, returned with her to Portland.

The people of Evergreen school district will organize a Red Cross society at the school house Wednesday evening. We expect to hear of an organization of Red Cross workers at Viola soon, as Viola has some good workers. If they ever are organized they will certainly do their share.

The Red Cross of Redland will meet at Bethel church on the evening of December 31 for their next meeting and expect to have a watch meeting at the same time to see the old year out and the new in.

E. Larsen has returned from the logging camps for the holidays.

Mrs. Leach made a business trip to Portland last week.

Carrie Gibson, a niece of Mrs. Leach, who has been staying with her this winter, has gone to Portland to work.

Mrs. Bargfeld, who moved to the Hampton place some time ago, has sold her horse and buggy to Mr. Walters of Oregon City.

Either your scribe or the printer's devil made a mistake in last week's items as there certainly will be NO dance at Bethel church the 20th.

Mrs. Sloper of Logan, killed a porker for Mrs. Thorpe.

Mrs. E. H. Morgan and daughter, who have been visiting relatives, have returned to their home at Centralia.

Your Logan scribe must have fished at a long distance in Clear creek as we have been down several times but find more fishermen than fish.

Rev. Mr. Hayes, Sunday school missionary, preached at Bethel church last Sunday.

FRIENDS OF ABSENT MEN URGED TO AID IN DRAFT

Friends or relatives of registered young men in Clackamas county, who know that the registrant cannot get his questionnaire back to the local exemption board within the seven-day limit which has been set, are requested by County Clerk Iva Harrington to appear at her office and ask for a form upon which they in behalf of the registrant, can make the delay a basis for deferred classification. Miss Harrington says that the proper filling out of such a blank is the only way registrants can hope to be put in anything but the first class for the first draft. Every registrant who has not returned his questionnaire within seven days or who has not had an application for deferred classification entered for him will automatically go in the first class. The only ones who will not be affected by this arrangement, of course, are the young men already in the military service.

KNOW IT WELL

Familiar Features Well Known to Hundreds of Oregon City Citizens

A familiar burden in many homes. The burden of a "bad back." A lame, weak or an aching back. Often tells you of kidney ills. Doan's Kidney Pills are for weak kidneys.

Here is Oregon City testimony. Mrs. Kate Flanagan, Sixth & Jefferson streets, says: "I can conscientiously say that Doan's Kidney Pills are reliable. I have taken them on several occasions for back-ache and other kidney disorders and they have always done me good. I am only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills if it will be the means of letting others know what a good kidney medicine they are."

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Flanagan had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

RUPERT KNOWN HERE

Man Held for Theft of Liberty Bonds Was Football Coach

Clyde "Red" Rupert, held in Portland for the theft of Liberty bonds from the Northwestern National bank, is well known in Oregon City, where last year he was coach of the Oregon City Athletic association football team, and he has many friends here. Rupert had a claim against the association here for several months covering wages that had not been paid him as a coach.

Under his coaching the local team was a success at the game, but its ventures failed financially.

Old Soldier Gives Recommendation

Gustav Wangelin, Commander of G. A. R. Post, Pinckneyville, Ill., writes: "I highly recommend Foley Kidney Pills, give quick relief from backache, rheumatic pains, stiff, swollen joints, languidness, pains in groin and muscles, all other symptoms of kidney trouble and sleep disturbing bladder ailments. They assist nature in restoring strength and vitality.—Jones Drug Co."
