

MATTOON CASE GETS FEDERAL ATTENTION

Robert Mattoon, of Oregon City, who appealed to the district exemption board in Portland Saturday afternoon, and who was passed here by the local board on August 8, is reported to have attracted the attention of the federal authorities, and the case threatens to involve several prominent people of this city, among them being William M. Stone, an attorney, and John J. Calavan, proprietor of the Iowa hotel in this city.

Mattoon, when summoned before the local board on August 8, filed claim for exemption on the grounds of a dependent wife, who relied upon him for her support. In affidavits filed in support of this claim, Mrs. Mattoon, his wife, swore that she had received nothing from any source except that of her husband's income. The affidavits were witnessed by William M. Stone and John J. Calavan.

Following an investigation by Deputy District Attorney Burke and Special U. S. Deputy Earl Latourette, it was brought out that Mrs. Mattoon had been employed in the Oregon City Manufacturing company's mill until August 11, three days after Mattoon was passed by the examining board. According to the sworn statements of E. S. Shaw, secretary of the Oregon City Manufacturing company, Mrs. Mattoon was receiving $2.25 per day in the mill.

In addition to having worked at the Woolen mills, Mrs. E. T. Mass, former proprietor of the Mass Hotel & Restaurant in this city, swore that Mrs. Mattoon worked for her continuously until April, 1917, when Mrs. Mass disposed of her interest in the restaurant.

Attorney Stone, after hearing of the investigation, signed supplemental affidavits in effect that he was ignorant of the true state of affairs, and had since found that Mrs. Mattoon was independent.

NEW ERA ACCIDENT CLAIMS E. D. MATLOCK

E. D. Matlock, of Eugene, who was injured in an automobile accident near New Era August 5, died Sunday morning at the Good Samaritan hospital in Portland, where he had been since the day he was hurt. His back was broken in the automobile accident, and while at first it was hoped he would recover, last week he took a turn for the worse. His body was taken to Eugene Monday, and services were held there Tuesday, interment being in the L. O. O. F. cemetery.

Mr. Matlock was the son of J. D. Matlock, a pioneer and former mayor of Eugene. He was a well known business man of the university city and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Nellie M. Matlock, a son, Earl Matlock, and two brothers, Caswell and Eugene, both of whom live with their father in Eugene; and three sisters, Mrs. Carrie Poudebusch, San Francisco, Mrs. Bertha Emons, Salem, and Mrs. Lily Jerger.

The same accident that proved fatal to Mr. Matlock caused the death of Miss Ollie Marquis, a sister of Mrs. Matlock, and also injured four other occupants of the car, all of whom are now recovering.

Mayor's Son Marries

Mayor and Mrs. E. C. Hackett have had a daughter-in-law for more than a month, and just learned the glad news Monday, according to the official, who beams good-naturedly at the advent of a new member in the family. E. A. Hackett, son of Mayor and Mrs. Hackett, was quietly married on July 14 to Miss Minnie Boese, of Boring, Or.

The happy couple went to Stevenson, Wash., for the ceremony and until they returned from a hunting trip in the mountains this week, not even their nearest friends knew of the climax to their romance. Mr. Hackett is a young business man here and has friends throughout the county, where he has lived all his life. Mr. Minnieville to spend a few days with friends before returning to Oregon City to make their home.

Are You Unlucky?

Most sickness is traced to carelessness or neglect, but unfortunately who suffer from hay fever or asthma can attribute their ailments to bad luck. In August the air is full of pollen and dust that cause trouble for some, yet others are never bothered. No remedy does more to relieve hay fever and asthma than Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known family medicine for coughs, colds and croup. It clears and soothes the afflicted nose, throat and bronchial tubes.—Jones Drug Co.

It is easily the biggest spectacle Ringling Bros. have ever staged and its glorious "Ballet of the Fairies," with 300 dancing girls, is in itself worth going many miles to see. Following "Cinderella," 400 scenic artists appear in the main tent program. The Ringlings have secured scores of circus performers never before seen in America. An entire trained animal show has been made a part of the main tent program this season. The menagerie now numbers 1009 wild animals. There will be 60 clowns and a big free three-mile street parade show day morning.

Dallas Men Fined

Feel Worse After Vacation

The change from outdoor activity of vacation time to the quiet of regular employment sometimes makes one feel heavy and "stuffed up," uncon-fortable and bilious, with a mean headache, a nervous unrest and thickly coated tongue. Instead of complaining that "a vacation does no good," it is better to remove the trouble, which usually is the result of indigestion. Foley Cathartic Tablets give quick relief with no unpleasantness or costive after effects.—Jones Drug Co.
