Are You Unlucky?
Most sickness is traced to carelessness or neglect, but unfortunately who suffer from hay fever or asthma can attribute their ailments to bad luck. In August the air is full of pollen and dust that cause trouble for some, yet others are never bothered. No remedy does more to relieve hay fever and asthma than Foley's Honey and Tar, the well known family medicine for coughs, colds and croup. It clears and soothes the afflicted nose, throat and bronchial tubes.—Jones Drug Co.

Plan to Furnish 35,000 Books From This State

Oregon will be asked to furnish approximately 35,000 books as her share of the 1,600,000 books which will make up the immense circulating library that will be thumbed by 387,000 or more drafted men in the army cantonments. This announcement was made by Harry G. Doak, of Washington field director and special representative of Secretary of War Baker for the American Library association in the campaign to obtain adequate reading matter for the gigantic army. The 35,000 books will be represented in units of $1 a book, which will take each volume through three years of wear and replace it once if necessary during that period.

If a plan just broached to Mr. Baker by Mr. Doak by telegraph goes through, every book will carry the name of the individual who gave the dollar, and there is a chance for 35,000 Oregonians or as many more as wish to have their names attached to books which will be read by the thousands of soldiers.

Already 600,000 gift books have been given, Mr. Doak says, but from now on it is wished to purchase the rest to acquire well-balanced libraries.

Oregon will be in the northwest division and Mr. Doak was notified that J. I. Jennings, of Seattle, has accepted the directorship of that division to head the campaign in Washington, Oregon, Idaho, Wyoming and Montana. He will have complete charge of the programme for war library work from September 24 to 29, when the $1,000,000 needed will be raised.

The money will be raised with a ratio of 5 per cent of the population, and Oregon is estimated as having 700,000 people or more.

Mr. Doak was in conference with Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, Monday, making preliminary arrangements for the big campaign. Librarians in the public libraries of the state will have much to do with arranging the local campaigns in the Oregon cities.

"There will be no overhead expense to the work," said Mr. Doak. "The expenses of the campaign will be cared for by private contribution or the sacrifices of the workers themselves. Every dollar of the $1,000,000 raised will go for the purchase of books."

Civil Service Tests

The U. S. Civil Service commission announces that an examination for stenographer and typewriter for men and women, and for typewriter only, for men and women, will be held in 45 different cities in the Northwest on August 31, 1917. The usual entrance salaries are from $900 to $1200 per annum. All qualified stenographers and typewriters are urged to apply for and take the coming examination, as a sufficient number of stenographers and typewriters have not been reached to meet the needs of the Government service. For application and full information apply to Herbert F. Ward, district secretary, 303 Postoffice building, Seattle.
