REDS FIRE ON PARADE 3 KILLED FIVE HURT

SEATTLE, Nov. 11.—According to a report telephoned to the Associated Press here tonight from the Centralia Chronicle, the mob took the alleged I. W. W. from jail, escorted him to a point just outside the city limits, and hung him on a bridge on what is known as the old Chehalis military road.

"The man's body is now hanging on a rope under the bridge, about ten feet from the water," the telephone message said.

CENTRALIA, Wash., Nov. 11.—Three former American soldiers, warren Grimm, Centralia attorney, Ben Casagrande, real estate dealer, and Arthur McElfresh, Centralia pharmacist, all overseas veterans, were killed here today and half a dozen other service men were wounded when industrial workers of the World, it was believed, fired on an Armistice day parade of former soldiers, sailors and marines.

Big Timber Deal Is Consummated

Closing a deal in Portland last week for a large tract of timber in Northern California, whereby Kansas City operators become the new owners probably is the forerunner of several other transactions in Oregon and Washington timber lands coming to a head which are known to be brewing. The deal just made involves 70,000 acres of sugar and California white pine, situated in Modoc county, for which approximately $2,000,000 will be paid to the Manistee Lumber company and the Tionesta Timber company, both controlled by eastern capital and in which Portland men are interested.

CHEMAWA LOSES

CORVALLIS, Nov. 8.—The Oregon Argie Frosh had an easy time defeating the Chemawa Indian school Friday, 51 to 6. A 50-yard run through a broken field by Green after he had received a punt saved the Indian players from being shut out. Coach Williams sent his second string players in the game at the start and they put over two touchdowns. A 30-yard pass, Dorzeon to Dyer, gave the Frosh their first touchdown and a blocked punt resulted in the second score. The Indians lost a chance to score in the first half, when they fumbled, after Choate had made a nice gain.

GIVES CRATE OF HENS

McMINNVILLE, Nov. 8.—A. J. Jones, McMinville grocer and a loyal friend of McMinville college, presented the College Dining club with a crate of big fat hens. Naturally a chicken dinner followed, this in turn being followed by vociferous cheers for Mr. Jones.

SUGAR PRICE FIXED

NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 7.—The price for this season's yellow clarified sugar was fixed at 17 cents a pound at a meeting yesterday of Louisiana planters. The price is subject to the approval of Attorney General Palmer. An additional cent a pound for choice plantation granulated was set, and scale of prices arranged.

DRY MEASURE UNCERTAIN

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—Fate of the federal prohibition amendment was made more uncertain today as additional returns from Tuesday's election were received at the office of the secretary of state. Complete unofficial and official returns from all but ten counties gave the "wets" a lead of 9154 against the amendment. The ten missing counties a year ago gave dry majorities of 5237.

MAYOR BAKER TO SPEAK HERE

Mayor George L. Baker, of Portland, will deliver the annual address at the Memorial day services of Oregon City Lodge of Elks on Sunday afternoon, December 7, at 2:30 o'clock. Mayor Baker is a member of Portland Lodge, No. 142. The committee in charge of the affair is arranging details in connection with the observance of the day.

LEGION SQUAD WINS FOOTBALL GAME IN MUD

With all stores, banks and public offices closed for the day, many Oregon City citizens braved the raw winds and mud to trudge out to Canemah park on Tuesday afternoon to witness the local American Legion football eleven thoroughly trounce the squad from the Portland Albina club. Those who were anticipating a close, even contest of brain and brawn were disappointed for the Legion huskies, put it over the visitors in every department of the pastime from the first blast of Referee Roos's whistle. Of course the visitors were slightly out-weighted but aside from this handicap, the much touted Portland aggregation fell woefully in the estimation of the fans who were expecting to see a warmly contested battle.

At one minute past three o'clock the whistle put the ball into play by Albina kicking off and the Legion boys receiving. The local team immediately brought into play a series of line plunges and off tackle bucks which carried them steadily down the field toward the northern goal. Try as they might the Albina line exhibited a consistent weakness to crumple up under the terrific onslaughts of the boys back from overseas and in exactly seven minutes from the kickoff, C. Kendall plunged through the line with a touchdown. His plunge being directly through the goal posts he had no difficulty in converting the goal and the local team lined up to receive the kickoff again with the score 7 to 0 in their favor.

Again the same tactics carried the ball well into the enemy's territory. About this time the Legion pulled the old famous trick play, the crisscross which made the old Salt Lake, Utah high school team of 1894 the western champions. C. Montgomery received the ball and started to circle left end. As he passed Walt Mass playing left half back he passed the pigskin and Walt tucking the oval neatly under his arm was off to a flying start around the right end. Nearly every man on the Albina team was taken off his guard and Mass almost eluded them all.

After running about twenty yards, he was tackled. Again the Legion adopted the line plunging game and in a few minutes tugged the ball over for the second touchdown. Again Kendall converted the point and the scoring of the game was at an end, the score being 14 to 0 in favor of the local team. The rest of the game was given over to first one team and then the other having possession of the ball, but neither side was strong enough to score.

During the third quarter some of the fans who had accompanied the Portland club to Oregon City and who had conceived the idea that the proper way in which Armistice day should be celebrated had imbibed copious draughts of the drink that roils the brain, could contain their desire for fistfuffs no longer and proceeded to use them among themselves and with in a moment it seemed that everyone in the park would be drawn into the melee.

Officials of the sidelines, however, promptly entered the lists and quickly put the embroilers under control. No one was seriously hurt although there are several who returned to Portland Tuesday night besides the players who carried bruised muscles with them.

Before the game the Portland players were sanguine of victory and proudly pointed to their record which showed that they had passed through three games so far this season without a point having been scored against them.

In their first game they met the Dunsmuir team and defeated them 6 to 0. Later they conquered the Laurelhurst team 9 to 0 and then played the husky Arleta team a tie game which neither side scored. They also stated with gusto that they were the original Holiday club team of Portland and that they had suffered only one defeat during the past two years. They did not seem to recognize the fact that the local team had also gone this far through the season with a clean record, having defeated Oswego 32 to 0 and Arleta 20 to 0.

There were few individual stars on either team. Cook playing perhaps the strongest game for the visitors and Kendall, Mass and A. J. Naterlin outstanding among the local men. Martin Ross acted as referee and C. Blanchard of Portland officiated as umpire. The time of the game was one hour divided into quarters of fifteen minutes each.

The lineup of the teams was as follows:

Albina—	Legion—
C. Murdoch	Q. B.	C. Kendall
Capt. R. Watts	L. H. B.	W. Mass
C. Morrison	R. H. B.	C. Montgomery
	Goatery
Cook	F. B.	W. Dunger
T. Hoke	R. E.	M. Sells
B. Burns	L. E.	E. Mass
H. Bennett	A. T.	G. Story
G. Kerns	R. T.	J. Montgomery
J. Allen	R. G.	W. Hampton
J. Flynn	L. G.	A. J. Naterlin
McCarty	C. W.	Montgomery

CONTESTS IN ORATORY CLAIM ATTENTION IN SCHOOLS OF COUNTY

Principals Will Meet Saturday to Re-organize Contests and Arrange Athletic Work

A meeting of the principals of the various schools of Clackamas county is being called by J. E. Calavan, county school superintendent, to be held Saturday, November 15, at 10 o'clock, at the superintendent's office. The object is to reorganize the oratorical contests and track and field meet in Clackamas county. The work was dropped two years ago owing to many of the boys being in the service. As most of them have returned the work is to be taken up with much interest from the present outlook.

Arrangements are also being made for holding local institutes in the county. The first will be held at Estacada, November 22, and the second at Oregon City December 6.

At the meeting at Estacada R. W. Kirk, city school superintendent, will make an address, and his subject will be "Advisability of making half of recitation period in the high school a period for supervised study." Mrs. H. B. Cartledge, superintendent of the Canby high school, will talk on "Advantage of More Oral English in the Grades."

Among the others who will take part in the program on that day will be D. E. Ressler and E. F. Mulkey, to talk on "Consolidation of Rural Schools." E. F. Carlton, assistant state superintendent, will speak on "National Program of Education."

OREGON IN FRONT LINE

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—When the national American Legion convention convened here at 10 o'clock this morning, the Oregon delegation occupied an honor position in the convention hall, the first row being assigned to the Oregon representatives.

Dow W. Walker, who declined to be a candidate for national chairman, was elected as floor leader.

GERMAN MARK LOW

BERNE, Nov. 7.—The mark has touched an unprecedented low record, 14 1/4 francs selling for 100 marks. Austrian crowns were stationary, 100 crowns selling at between 5 and 6 francs.

Overseas Man to Start Poultry Business

Ambrose Brownell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Brownell, of Concord, who was with the 29th Engineers (sound and flash ranging), and serving his country overseas for 16 months, has entered the poultry industry at Milwaukie, and is associated with Jack Phillips, who served two years with the 26th Division in France. These two young men having purchased the Sunnycroft Farm, formerly owned by Wilson Brothers, are very enthusiastic over their new industry in which they have entered. They have 600 pure blooded White Leghorns, and expect to raise hundreds of chicks for the markets in the spring.

In connection with the poultry industry these two young men are engaged in raising rabbits for the market, and each week 100 pounds of rabbit meat are marketed in Portland. These are of the Flemish Giant breed, and they have 150 of them. On seven rabbits exhibited at the Multnomah county fair six were awarded first prizes.

GIRLS ARE FOUND

Helen Stachhouse and Vivian Cox, 15 and 16 old respectively, who were lost from their home for several days, were found by the former's uncle, John Stachhouse and brought back to Oregon City.

PHILADELPHIA QUARTERS HIT

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 8.—Several men and women were arrested here last night in raids by department of justice officials on radical headquarters. A large quantity of alleged anarchist literature was seized.

INDORSE BOND ISSUE

At a meeting of the Multnomah grange Saturday a vote was taken unanimously approving the road bond issue for Clackamas county. John Cole, a prominent farmer of that district, made a strong plea in favor of the bonds, and it was at the close of his address that the vote was taken.

41 NABBED AT HARTFORD

HARTFORD, Conn., Nov. 8.—Forty-one alleged "reds" were arrested in this state in a general raid last night. Quantities of alleged radical literature were seized.

RIGHT IS INALIENABLE

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Right to hang out the family wash is inalienable—even if it defaces an apartment court—Magistrate Sweetzer ruled when Sam Ginsberg complained the superintendent three times removed the clothesline.

FUN POKED BY HARVEY IN TALK AT OAK GROVE

For more than an hour Harvey G. Starkweather held the center of the stage at Oak Grove Monday night and discussed roads, bonds and dozens of other subjects, including the personalities of his opponents. He paraded up and down the platform, told his audience what kind of men were to talk in favor of the road bonds, poked fun at West Linn and Oregon City, pointed a finger of scorn at the outlying settlements that had the temerity to demand good roads, and trotted out a big blackboard to show that the district in which he lives would pay under the bond plan many thousands of dollars and would receive no roads in return.

O. D. Eby, L. L. Porter and Grant B. Dimick discussed the bond plan, giving the people of Oak Grove and vicinity a plain, unvarnished story of the proposition and just what it would mean for Clackamas county.

Figures obtained from County Judge Anderson were produced to show that in the last four years the road district now designated as No. 1 had paid into the county treasury in taxes $154,000 and during the same period had received on its roads $124,000. In other words that district has contributed only about $30,000 per annum in excess of the amount returned to them for the operating expenses of the county.

Mr. Starkweather charged that Oregon City and West Linn are trying to secure a new bridge across the Willamette river at the expense of the people of the county, but Mr. Porter came back with the statement that the two municipalities would pay about one-fifth of the total cost of the bonds and would receive only one-seventeenth of the money.

"I feel fine tonight," declared Mr. Starkweather, as he strutted from one end of the platform to the other and then back again, "in fact, I never felt better in my life. As I look around I find three Oregon City attorneys down here to tell you people how to spend your road money, but I do not find Brodie here, though I asked him especially to come down." The speaker explained his position clearly. He is against the bonds because his district is to get none of the money, and for no other reason. He failed to explain in whose interest two stenographers were present to secure a record of the debate. Thomas A. Roots, president of the "Real Road Boosters," was among those in the audience and made no reply to an assertion by Mr. Eby that he is in the employ of a well known paving concern, and that the paving companies are lined up against the bond issue because of the provision safeguarding the interests of the county.

A large majority of the people of the Oak Grove district are said to be opposed to the bond issue, and other meetings will be held in that section by Mr. Starkweather, who held a meeting Tuesday night at Milwaukie. The printed statement that all of the roads paved by Clackamas county are in District No. 1 was modified Monday night, as it has been learned that nearly two miles of the 15 miles of pavement laid are not within the district boundaries.

Road meetings arranged for this week and next have been announced for the following places:

Carns, Wednesday, November 12, C. Schuebel and John R. Cole. Garfield, Friday, November 14, C. Schuebel.

Brown's school house, Friday, November 14, L. L. Porter and O. D. Eby. Clarkes, Saturday, November 15, C. Schuebel.

Parkplace, Monday, November 17, L. L. Porter and C. Schuebel.

Highland, Tuesday, November 18, L. L. Porter and O. D. Eby.

Milwaukie, Wednesday, November 19, Geo. C. Brownell, L. L. Porter and Rev. Renhard.

Colton, Wednesday, November 19, Gilbert L. Hodges and C. Schuebel.

Macksburg, Thursday, November 20, G. B. Dimick and Rev. Renhard.

Boring, Friday, November 21, L. L. Porter, G. B. Dimick and Gordon E. Hayes.

Clackamas, Friday, November 21, E. W. Bartlett, H. C. Stephens and C. Schuebel.

Sandy, Saturday, November 22, C. Schuebel.

GLADSTONE REAL ESTATE SHOWS ACTIVITY BY MANY TRANSFERS

Many Sales of Land in Clackamas County Indicate Excellent Business Condition

O. E. Freytag, realty dealer of Gladstone, has closed a number of important real estate deals during the past week, and several others will be closed within a few days. It is a noticeable fact that there are many looking forward to becoming residents of Clackamas county, and Idaho and North and South Dakota are being well represented among the newcomers to this county. One man from North Dakota, who has purchased a Clackamas county farm recently, made the remark that he desired to get out of a state where the snow flew in November, and could stand a little of the Oregon mist he has heard so much about.

Among those who have purchased through Mr. Freytag are R. W. Hill, who bought the Bryant place, consisting of 11 acres, and which was again sold to Maurice H. Myers, of Caldwell, Idaho. Mr. Myers formerly lived in Clackamas county, and is a son of Mrs. C. C. Myers, of Gladstone. He had a longing to return to his former home county, and will take possession immediately.

The farm of T. Schaubel, located at Tualatin Meadows, has been sold through Mr. Freytag to H. M. Warner, of Sherman county, Oregon. The price paid for the land was $5000.

Anton Usky has sold a farm of 13 acres through the Gladstone firm to J. W. Morrison. This property is located at Tualatin Meadows and brought a price of $5000.

The O. H. Kruse farm of 10 acres located at Mount Pleasant brought a price of $7500, was sold to Randall H. Howard, of Portland. Going with this farm are 450 chickens and other livestock. It is a most desirable little home near this city, and the deal was closed this week by Mr. Freytag. C. N. Giddings, of Barlow, through this firm, has sold his 10 acre tract of land at Barlow for $4000. The purchaser is William W. Lawrence, of Portland.

Edna Larson, of Gladstone, has sold 10 acres to W. Paddison. The land brought $4000.

Mrs. McDaniels Expires at Home

Mrs. Olga McDaniels, who has been ill for several months, died at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clifford at 1205 Main street, Friday at 12 o'clock.

Mrs. McDaniels is survived by her parents and a little two-year-old daughter, Iris, of this city.

The funeral services will be held from the Holman & Pace funeral parlors Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. E. A. Wilkinson, of this city, will officiate by request of Mrs. McDaniels shortly before her death. The interment will be in the Mountain View cemetery.

FRANKLIN IS BEATEN

Straight line plunges—Bill Hurlburt doing most of the ramming—brought forth a 12 to 0 victory for the Washington high school football team over the Franklin high on Multnomah field Friday. As a result of the match the Colonials are now resting in second place in the league standing, with a clash with Jefferson set for a week from next Wednesday.

STUDENTS EDIT PAPER

OREGON AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, CORVALLIS, Nov. 8.—Engineering students at O. A. C. issued the Barometer, the student paper, yesterday. History of engineering work at O. A. C., the annual engineering smoker and the honorary engineering fraternity were featured.

FORGERIES DISCOVERED

MEDFORD, Nov. 8.—Forgery and burglary are charged against a stranger who operated in Medford Saturday and passed checks of the Medford Fruit company on seven merchants, all made out for $42.60. The alleged forgery was first discovered in the Portland office by a young woman bookkeeper.

OLD SKELETON UNCOVERED

Coroner Johnson has in his possession the bones of the skeleton dug up on the right of way of the Pacific highway between Canby and Barlow, Saturday afternoon by W. B. Tull's grading crew. It is thought that the bones are those of a Japanese, as the skeleton is small, probably buried 20 or more years ago.

NEW RESIDENT

J. J. Buchanan has traded his house and acre in Stanfield for a 20 acre tract nine miles south of Oregon City, and expects to leave with his family for his new home the first of the week. The Buchanans are one of the early pioneers and it is with the greatest regret that we say good bye. The best of good wishes go with them and we hope that some time in the future we will have them with us again.—Stanfield Standard.

DRYS DEFEATED IN OHIO

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 11.—Ohio last Tuesday voted against ratifying the federal prohibition amendment by a majority of 441, according to complete official returns received today by the secretary of state. The vote was: For ratification 499,879; against ratification 500,520.

MINERS TOLD TO GO TO WORK BY LEADERS

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 11.—Judge A. B. Anderson, in federal court at 10 o'clock this morning, approved the order of the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, calling off the strike of bituminous coal miners.

Attorneys for the miners promised to try and have the order in the mails by 6 o'clock this evening. This action was taken following a session of the general committee of the miners, which decided early today to comply with the mandate of the court issued last Saturday.

Judge Anderson characterized the order as a "good faith effort" to comply with his mandate. The text of the order follows:

"Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 11, 1919.—To the officials and members of the United Mine Workers of America: Dear Sirs and Brothers: In obedience to the mandate issued on November 8 by the United States court, district of Indiana, Judge A. B. Anderson, presiding, the undersigned hereby advise you that the order of October 15 directing a cessation of operations in the bituminous coal fields of your jurisdiction, is withdrawn and canceled.

"Yours fraternally,
WILLIAM GREEN,
Secretary-Treasurer.
JOHN L. LEWIS,
President."

NEW YORK TO SELL MILK

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Municipal sale and distribution of milk was proposed in a resolution presented to the board of aldermen today by Algernon Lee, socialist member, and unanimously endorsed. The board voted for the appointment of a committee to draft a bill permitting municipalization of the business.

Under Mr. Lee's plan, which is aimed to combat the high cost of milk, the city would buy the product direct from the farmers and sell direct to the consumer.

BIG SILVER DEAL MADE

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The Mercantile Bank of America has bought 1,000,000 ounces of coined silver—worth nearly $1,200,000—from the Salvadoran bank. It was learned here today. The money is being shipped from San Salvador to the United States.

Further importation of silver coin from nearby countries is expected by bankers because the increased value of the coin as metal will more than make up for the cost of transporting it here.

MINERS WANT TO SALK

BELLEVILLE, Ill., Nov. 11.—"I am very positive that the men here will not go back," James Mason, secretary of the Belleville sub-district, containing more than 10,000 miners, said today.

"As soon as we have received a copy of the order we will call meetings of the locals and the men will vote on obeying the order," he continued. "From what I know of the sentiment, they will vote to stay out." G. L. Simpson, secretary of local No. 826, at Collinsville, where there are about 1600 miners, said the men there would revolt against the national organization before they would return to work.

OFFICERS RETURN FROM SALEM

Deputy Sheriff L. C. Hubbard and Chief of Police T. H. McMorris of Molalla were in the city Monday returning from a private business trip to Salem. They said their section of the county was thriving, that the mills and camps were working full time and that the farmers were working hard in their efforts to get ready for the winter.

Mr. Hubbard recalled that he made the trip to Salem just a year ago on Armistice day; that on that day he made a capture of an escaped convict and returned him to the state prison.

POPULATION INCREASING

COTTAGE GROVE, Nov. 8.—The increase of population here during the past year is reflected in the school attendance, which is already 100 greater than last year and the largest in the history of the schools. The total is 566. The primary grade shows an increase of 33, the combined grades an increase of 23 and the high school an increase of 33.

SCORES TAKEN IN MICHIGAN

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 8.—Federal officials here today were reticent regarding raids in this state last night on Russian colonies. It was said search was made for "reds" who have been brewing trouble. Latest reports showed nearly 100 state arrests. Detroit had more than half that figure.

NURSING COURSE GIVEN

SALEM, Nov. 8.—Courses in home nursing under the direction of the direction of the American Red Cross, with Red Cross nurses in charge, will be organized for girls in the high schools of Oregon, State Superintendent Churchill has announced. This also is being done in other states.

LOCAL MILL REPORTED SOLD TO SYNDICATE

Negotiations for the sale of the Hawley Pulp & Paper company mills to a syndicate of Pacific coast newspapers have been almost concluded, according to information made public here Tuesday afternoon.

For several months rumors have been flying around concerning the sale of this property. The first was that a Chinese syndicate had acquired the mills and the next was that the crown-Willamette Paper company had purchased them. Both of these stories were denied by the Hawley interests Tuesday.

Along with a report of the negotiations comes an assurance that the local management will probably remain unchanged, and that the capacity of the plant will be doubled as rapidly as practicable in order to assure a larger production of news print. With the present machine facilities of the plant, about 3000 tons per month of new print can be manufactured.

The increasing cost of newspaper has been responsible for the negotiations, several large newspapers in the east having purchased paper mills in order to cut costs of production.

Resler Files Suit Against Lumber Co.

Magdalen Resler filed suit Monday afternoon against the Victory Lumber company of Eagle creek to recover a balance of $112.41, claimed to be owed on a bill of $263.91 for labor performed between the dates of May 1, 1919 and August 15, 1919. The complaint states that amounts to the sum of $149.50 have been paid on the bill. The complaint asks for the balance together with interest at the legal rate of 5 per cent per annum from August 15.

OREGON CITY HIGH TEAM MEETS DEFEAT FROM CORVALLIS SQUAD

College City Youths Administer First Defeat to Locals in Slow Game by Small Score

The football team of the Oregon City high school met defeat Tuesday afternoon at the hands of the Corvallis high school team at Corvallis by the score of 6 to 0. The American Legion of Corvallis which conducted a splendid celebration of Armistice day Tuesday in the college city paid the expenses of the local team which went down on Monday evening and were entertained over night at the various fraternity houses.

On Tuesday morning the visitors were escorted over the agricultural college campus and then played their game on the college athletic field. The reason given for the defeat by Coach King of the home team is that the boys were not in condition not having had time to recuperate from their game on last Friday.

The high school authorities recognized this handicap but consented to allowing the game because of the opportunity presented of having the local young men visit Oregon's great institution of learning. The field was very muddy and naturally the game was a slow contest.

The lineup of the local team was as follows: Howard Mass, right end; Louis Vierhus, right tackle; Leslie Kellogg, right guard; Gordon Wilson, center; Sidney Warner, left guard; Jesse Shannon, left tackle; Raymond Califf, left end; Arthur McDonald, right half; Hugh Harbison, left half; Melvin Gleason, fullback; Robert Beattie, Quarterback; William Rathbort played left end in the second half.

Lawyer Eby Issues Road Challenge

November 11, 1919.
Mr. H. G. Starkweather, Broadway Building, Portland, Ore. Dear Sir: Some days ago in discussing the bond issue campaign, you expressed a desire to speak at Molalla and to point out to the Molalla people the unfairness and dishonesty of this proposed market roads plan as you see it. In order to give you this opportunity, I challenge you to a joint discussion of this subject at Molalla some day next week at a time to be arranged convenient for the people, and trust that I may have the pleasure of meeting you.

Very respectfully,
O. D. EBY.
