FIFTY-THIRD YEAR—No. 35.

OREGON CITY, OREGON, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1919.

DIRECTORS VOTE FOR SPECIAL ELECTION

At a regular meeting held Wednesday last, the directors of the Oregon City Public Auditorium voted to call a special election for the purpose of voting on the $35,000 for the erection of a gymnasium and manual training building. The election was held on Friday, Sept. 26, from 2 to 7 o'clock, p. m., in the Public City building of the Commercial club located opposite the court house.

Miss Lillian Haley of West Linn was named by the school board to fill the position of teacher in the Oregon City high school made vacant by the recent resignation of Miss Georgia Prather.

NEWLY COMPLETED SASH AND DOOR MILL DESTROYED BY FIRE

SEASIDE, Sept. 3.—Fire at 3:30 o'clock this morning destroyed the big Sash and door factory on South Seventh street, the loss being estimated at more than $175,000. The factory had just been completed, machinery worth $125,000 having just been installed by the new owners, Charles Brown and P. M. Scott, who last spring took over the old wood yard and converted it into an up-to-date plant. The loss includes in addition to the $125,000 worth of new machinery a large wood carrier which had just been built at a cost of $46,000, two carloads of wood, two new donkey engines and several wood saws.

The fire is attributed to carelessness on the part of tramps who had been sleeping on the property. Just as the fire broke out residents of the neighborhood saw several men running away from the plant, and it is assumed that these men had been awakened by the flames started by their own carelessness with matches or cigarettes.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 1.—The Union Lumber company steamer Unimack met in collision early today with the Helen P. Drew off Duxbury Reef, according to the marine department of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

The Unimack capsized, and was towed in by the Helen P. Drew. There were no casualties, according to the report received by the marine department.

C. R. Johnson, president of the Union Lumber company, may have been on board the Unimack.

BRITISH SEIZE FIVE SHIPS SUSPECTED OF TAKING IRISH ARMS

LONDON, Sept. 2.—Following the seizure of the Belgian steamship Hampshire Coast at Cork on suspicion of gun running, British naval craft have taken four more ships into Irish ports for investigation, said a dispatch from Cork today.

One was run into the harbor of Baltimore, 47 miles southwest of Cork, and the other three were escorted into other Irish ports.

Officials of the firm owning the Hampshire Coast said that she was engaged in her regular legitimate trade when seized on suspicion because she seemed to answer the description of a ship which, the authorities had been warned, was carrying arms.

PERSHING BILL IS PASSED
WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The house bill conferring the permanent rank of general upon General Pershing in recognition of his service abroad, was passed by the senate late today without debate or a record vote.

The bill now goes to President Wilson.

GENERAL PERSHING LEAVES FOR HOME ON STEAMER LEVIATHAN

BREAST, Sept. 1.—General John J. Pershing, commander of the American expeditionary forces, sailed from here today on the transport Leviathan for the United States. The steamer left port at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Marshal Foch came aboard the transport shortly before she sailed and made a feeling address to the departing American commander.

"In leaving France," said the marshal, "you leave your dead in our hands. On our soil we will care for them religiously and zealously, as bearing witness of the powerful aid you brought us. These dead will bring from America many thoughts of remembrance and pious visits and will bind still more strongly our already close union."

"It is concluded the marshal," the clouds of war should gather again in the future, would not these dead rise from their tombs and make their voice heard once more by a world which already knows that the same cause, the cause of liberty, has united us since the time of Washington and Lafayette?"

General Pershing replied by bidding farewell to France in the person of the marshal "to her gallant soldiers, to her patriotic men and to her noble women." Then the general and Marshal Foch walked arm in arm to the gang plank, exchanging final salutes as the marshal stepped ashore.

TWO CHINESE PILOTS DASHED TO EARTH IN CRUISE OVER FRISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 3.—Two Chinese air pilots came to grief Monday while flying toward the Pacific fleet, and both were injured, one seriously.

The aviators were Chin Foon and Willie Chin. They are connected with the Chinese Aero corporation. With the purpose of "bombarding" the Pacific fleet with cards bearing welcoming messages, the aviators took the air and started toward the fleet.

Then something happened. Just what went wrong has not yet been made known, but the plane plunged to the earth. Foon was the more seriously injured. Both were removed to the Presidio hospital.

ABOLISHMENT OF HIGH TELEPHONE RATES POSSIBLE

PORTLAND, Aug. 28.—Oregon telephone rates, authorized by Postmaster General Burleson and placed into effect by the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company on July 29, may be entirely abolished and the rates established at the conclusion of the present hearing by the public service commission placed into effect, retroactive to August 1. FEDERATION OF LABOR SUGGESTS 6-MONTH TRUCE

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Suspension of all strikes throughout the United States and the declaration of a labor truce on the basis of the status quo for six months or more to enable President Wilson to bring about a reduction in the cost of living is recommended in a report of a committee of the New York State Federation of Labor made public here today.

The recommendations urge American organized labor to cease wage and hour controversies in order to increase production and restore normal conditions. They express the hope that no new strikes will be ordered except to relieve workers from "intolerable oppression."

Business men, it explained, were in a state of apprehension due to rapidly changing conditions since the signing of the armistice, and "industry has been disturbed and dislocated to a degree never before experienced."

Labor and Reconstruction

The world is entering on a new period of reconstruction and events are moving swiftly. Machinery has supplanted man power and brain and brawn now move along the same lines in the industrial world.

Labor has made wonderful strides and its dignity is so thoroughly conceded that it is no longer a term for the use of the professional politician, just previous to an election. Labor's right to organize is now universally recognized.

Oregon City is peculiarly fortunate in its labor situation and a mutual feeling of confidence and good will exists between the heads of its industries and those who by their daily toil make production possible. The workmen of Oregon City are of a high standard and if the settlement of wage, and regulation of prices here, were the settlement for the state and nation the adjustment could be made with full assurance that there would be no economic disturbance worthy of note.

The profiteer should have no place with either capital or labor. His is a parasitic growth, the logical outcome of present methods. By the present practice of boosting the price of labor, always followed by the price of commodities, the profiteer is enabled to have easy picking and finds from his viewpoint the perpetual land of milk and honey. The continued game of leap frog which has been played by wages and commodity prices during the past three years must end sometime. When employer and employee realize that only through co-operation and through a better knowledge of the questions that vex and must be solved by both sides, then will industrial peace be assured and the discontent and distrust which has been fanned, be cleared away.

The Enterprise believes the great strength of labor will be used in the reconstruction of America, and that capital, if truly co-operative, will have no occasion to fear the results of an industrial change.

Jordan said Johnson had confessed to the crime, adding that prior to his departure north he had held up a Seattle man and robbed him of $50.

EXPERTS DECLARE PRICE OF FOODSTUFFS IS HEADED DOWNWARD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Prices of all commodities have passed the peak and are headed downwards, although slowly, declared C. B. Ames, assistant attorney general in charge of the government's profiteering probe today.

The downward trend, he declared, had set in, not only in food and clothing, but also in commodities that do not enter directly into the cost of living, the trend being observable in all parts of the country.

While admitting that the household probably has not noticed the downward trend very much, Mr. Ames said the effect would undoubtedly be perceptible to the consumer within a short time, as he expected the decline to continue until something approaching normal conditions is reached.

SECRET SERVICE MAN SAYS CARRANZA WAS IN INVASION PLOT

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Dr. Paul B. Altendorf, former member of the American military intelligence service, who issued last week a statement deprecating what he knew about the German plot to stir up a Mexican invasion of the United States, issued a supplementary statement last night directly charging President Carranza of Mexico with being directly implicated in the plot.

Dr. Altendorf, who served in the Mexican army as a colonel, while representing the intelligence service, said that he had an interview with Carranza on January 15, 1918.

At this interview, he said, Carranza "said he knew all about me, having been informed that I was on the way to Sonora to help train the combined army of Mexicans and Germans who were to invade the United States."

Dr. Altendorf said he asked Carranza for a letter to General Calles, governor of Sonora, hoping to get Carranza's complicity in writing, but that Carranza refused, saying he was going "on a very delicate mission."

Carranza did say, however, according to Dr. Altendorf, "I am sending a wire to General Calles to assist you in every way to invade the United States. I have instructed the police and military authorities to aid you for this purpose."

Dr. Altendorf exhibited photographic copies of a code which he said had been prepared by Mendio Mendez, Carranza's secretary, for use in communicating between Dr. Altendorf at General Calles' headquarters and Kurt Jahnke, alleged head of the German spy service in Mexico City.

AMERICAN AVIATOR IS SHOT BY MEXICANS

LAREDO, Texas, Sept. 2.—Captain David M. McNabb of the Eighth United States aero squadron was shot in the head and seriously wounded early today when a band of Mexican soldiers fired more than 100 shots at an army airplane in which he and Lieutenant Johnson, his mechanic, were scouting in the vicinity of San Isabel creek, 16 miles northwest of Laredo.

According to a report made at army headquarters, Captain McNabb and Lieutenant Johnson were flying at a low altitude on scout duty when a band of 25 Mexicans on the Mexican side of the border opened fire on them.

Captain McNabb headed his machine upwards in an effort to escape the fusillade of shots, but was struck back of the ear by one of the bullets before he could guide his plane out of range of the Mexican bullets.

Although bleeding profusely Captain McNabb managed to make a safe landing near the Leyendecker-Mullally farm. After rendering first aid, Lieutenant Johnson reported the attack to the military commander at Fort McIntosh, who ordered an army officer to the Mullally farm via airplane.

THREE FISHERMEN ARE SHOT BY "SQUATTER" AS THEY REPAIR TRAP

PORT ANGELES, Wash., Sept. 2.—A crack rifle shot today sat on a bluff back of Pillar Point, three miles west of here, and shot and killed three fishermen, John Peterson, Haugen Olson and Swigart Anderson, who were repairing a fish trap below the bluff.

The murderer sent one bullet into each of his victims.

Police say that John Smith, a squatter, soon after the murders set out in an open boat for Vancouver island, across the Straits of Juan de Fuca from here. Smith is believed to be armed.

Government boats were searching for him late today.

SPECULATORS CAUSE OF HIGH COSTS—HOOVER

PARIS, Sept. 2.—A distressing era of speculation in foodstuffs in the United States and throughout the world's primary food markets is largely responsible for high food costs, in the opinion of Herbert Hoover, chairman of the interallied relief organization, who, on the eve of his departure for the United States, granted the Associated Press an interview yesterday.

Wharves and warehouses in Northern European ports are overflowing with foodstuffs sent by merchants all over the world, Mr. Hoover said. These merchants, he declared, had "rambled" on sales in Poland, Czechoslovakia, the Baltic states and Germany at high prices, but these states have only a depreciated local currency and many commodities are in danger of spoiling as the Central European market for foodstuffs is limited to the ability of the peoples to buy on credit.

Russia possesses the longest canal in the world. It starts at Petrograd, and goes to the frontier of China—4,500,000 miles.

SALEM, Sept. 1.—The first mishap to be met by the Oregon airplane patrol occurred at Shelburne about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, when Lieutenant Webb was forced to make a landing because of motor trouble after having been lost in fog and clouds.

Lieutenant Webb early in the day attempted the south flight from the Eugene base, but because of dense clouds was unable to see the country. He was forced to climb to an altitude of 10,000 feet and, in circling back toward Eugene, missed the base and came north of that point. His heated engine was nearly at the stopping point when he decided to land at Shelburne. He reached the earth in perfect form, but one of the wheels of the landing gear hit a rut, ripped off a tire and caused the plane to topple. The radiator and propeller were broken. The plane has been sent back to Mather field for repairs.
