AUSTRIAN DELEGATES ACCEPT AND SIGN PACT

ST. GERMAIN, France, Sept. 10.—Dr. Karl Renner, head of the Austrian peace delegation, signed the peace treaty today. It was the death warrant for the old Hapsburg empire that had been built up by centuries of conquest.

Premier Clemenceau opened the proceedings with an address in behalf of the allied and associated powers. Dr. Renner was the first to sign and after the Austrians had finished the American envoys—Under Secretary of State Frank L. Polk, Henry White and General Tasker H. Bliss—signed for the United States.

The ceremonies were brief, lasting about an hour. The room was jammed, but the crowd was smaller and less mixed than that present in the famous Hall of Mirrors at Versailles when the German envoys signed the treaty.

OREGON CITY WOOLEN MILLS COMPANY OPENS FACTORY IN PORTLAND

According to announcement made late Thursday afternoon the Oregon City Manufacturing company has opened a new plant in Portland for the purpose of making up the raw wool cloth product of the mills in this city into machine-made coats, shirts and other articles of wearing apparel.

The company has leased the two-story 50x100 building located at 244-246 Russell street, on the East side, in Portland, and commences operations Friday. At present there are 50 women operators employed at the new factory, but it is expected that by the end of the present year there will be between 100 and 200 persons employed at the new factory.

In an interview one of the officials of the company stated that a national advertising and publicity campaign, recently inaugurated in the Saturday Evening Post and other Eastern magazines, is largely responsible for the establishment of the new factory as a result of the large number of orders that have been directly traceable to the campaign.

MOLALLA ROAD MEET ATTENDED BY LARGE ENTHUSIASTIC CROWD

Weather conditions interfered somewhat with the attendance at the good roads convention held in Molalla Saturday afternoon. Despite the threatening weather several hundred enthusiasts gathered to listen to the gospel of good roads.

Samuel Hill, the Washington pioneer in the good roads movement, spoke on "Good Roads—Their Benefit and How to Build Them." Other speakers were Rufus Holman, County Commissioner of Multnomah county, and Frank Torrance, the former road builder of Seattle. Music was furnished during the day by the Scottish Kiltie band of Portland. Resolutions were passed and pledges were signed to work and support every measure that would aid in giving southern Clackamas county permanent roads.

HISTORIC BARLOW TRAIL PASSES INTO CONTROL OF STATE

"To have and to hold, for the use, benefit and pleasure of all, forever." Thus dramatically and all embracingly is closed the clause in a deed recently in the County Recorder's office Wednesday, and the closing phrase is in full keeping with the comprehensive nature of the balance of the clause.

The deed as filed transfers forever the right of way of the Old Barlow Road through Clackamas county from Sandy and extending to Wapinitia in Wasco county. This road has been operated in the past as a toll road, and the transfer to the state was made for the purpose of establishing an additional link in the Mount Hood Loop highway which is now under construction.

The property has been owned by Joseph and Bertha Joseph of Portland and has been under lease to the Mount Hood & Barlow Road Co. for a number of years. The latter company has released Mr. and Mrs. Joseph from the lease agreement for the purpose of making it possible to transfer title of the road to the state.

A most unique and vital beautiful clause contained in the deed, and one which is without precedent in the records of the county, suggests the sense of appreciation with which the Portland couple associated the ground which they have transferred to the State, and is quoted as follows:

"To have and to hold unto the said State of Oregon, with all its mountains and hills, its forests and vines, its flowers and shrubs, its valleys and dells, its crags and rocks, its gorges and canyons, its glaciers and snow fields, its rivers and streams, its lakes and springs, its animals and birds, its tempests and storms, its lights and shadows, its trails and paths, and all the beauties and grandeur of Mount Hood, for the use, benefit and pleasure of all, forever."

CONTROVERSY OVER SAWMILL PROPERTY GOES TO PLAINTIFF

The case of Edith R. Reeves vs. L. Flury, which came up before Judge Bagley in the district court Friday resulted in the dissolution of the partnership which has existed between the plaintiff and defendant in the form of a sawmill company, appointed James M. Flury, husband of the plaintiff, as receiver and turned all assets of the company over to Mrs. Reeves.

The company was engaged in the tie and slabwood business and discussion which led to the present action is said to have arisen over the selling of ties and slabwood by the defendant without authority. Attorney O. D. Eby acted for the plaintiff and Judge Cleaton represented the defendant.

GENERAL PERSHING ARRIVES IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Pershing is home again. Standing on the bridge of the huge Leviathan, itself symbolic of victory over Germany, the commander of the greatest host ever gathered together under the Stars and Stripes came slowly up the bay to day, world famed and hailed as a conquering hero should be.

Sad of face, stern and impassive, a splendid figure of a soldier, he might have been thinking, as the familiar landmarks of New York came into view, of the day 27 months ago when he slipped secretly out of the harbor on his way to France to prepare the way for the hosts that were to follow.

He came back today with four stars on his shoulders—the fourth man to wear them under the American flag. The welcome given him would have quickened the pulse of the hero of a Roman triumph. Fresh from the capitals of allied Europe, where honors had been heaped upon him, it remained for New York to show the first American to lead an army across the Atlantic that "home, sweet home" has a meaning deeper than "hall to the chief."

MT. HOOD WIRELESS PHONE MESSAGE HEARD IN SAN FRANCISCO

PORTLAND, Sept. 6.—During the past month the United States forest service has carried on experiments with the wireless telephone which have been so successful that the future of this means of communication is established. In fact, it is predicted by Telephone Engineer C. M. Allen and others connected with the work that the wireless telephone will in the near future be the principal means of reporting the location of forest fires throughout the country.

The experiments so far have been made, principally at Mount Hood. On the very summit of the peak a station has been established and messages from it have been picked up as far away as San Francisco.

On August 16 Loukout Boalman, at Mount Hood, picked up a message from Allen, who was talking from a station in Portland. Several days later a report came from San Francisco that messages had been heard from Mount Hood in that city.

PORTLAND SHIP YARD WORKERS GET INCREASE

PORTLAND, Sept. 4.—Workers in the steel shipbuilding plant of Portland will receive an increase of eight cents an hour in all the various crafts and a 44-hour week will be granted them.

This was announced yesterday at the close of an all-day conference between shipbuilders and representatives of the Metal Trades council, the shipworkers union and international labor officers. The meeting was held in the Northwestern National bank building.

SHOE DEALERS BLAME EXPORTS FOR HIGH COSTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Curtailed exports would bring down the high cost of living, according to speakers at the sixth annual convention of the National Association of Retail Clothiers, which today referred to its board of directors the job of evolving a partial embargo on clothing shipments.

Max H. Friedman, president of the Wholesale Clothiers' association, blamed a large Eastern trading company, which, he said, backed by millions made in munitions, was buying all available stocks of clothing regardless of price for European markets.

MRS. MILLN TAKES HER BABE FROM GUARDIAN

Ralph Milln, nephew of Dr. and Mrs. L. I. Pickens, of this city, has advised her mother that his divorced wife, May Pickens, has succeeded in securing possession of his 18-month-old son and is apparently far on her way toward Hongkong, China, for which port she booked passage on the Japanese steamship, Katori Maru, from Vancouver, B. C., several days ago.

Mrs. Milln was found to be a person unfit for the custody of her son during the trial of the divorce case early in the present year in Portland, and Judge Stapleton, before whom the case was heard, ordered that the child should be placed in the custody of Dr. and Mrs. Pickens of this city, who are relatives of Mr. Milln. By the court ruling it was stipulated that Mrs. Milln should be given the privilege of having possession of her child every Sunday, provided that she be accompanied by a person appointed by the court. This arrangement obtained for some time, Miss Finley of Portland acting in the capacity of the third party, when she was succeeded by Mrs. Devers upon a second court order. It was during one of these probation periods, on Sunday, August 25, that Mrs. Milln, accompanied by Mrs. Devers, came to Oregon City and took the infant on its customary outing, and this was the last seen of any of the party.

Dr. Pickens gave possession of the child to Mrs. Milln on this occasion, Mrs. Pickens being in Ocean Falls, B. C., at the time for the purpose of being in attendance at the wedding ceremony of Miss Marie Sheehan to Lieutenant Lamar Toole, which is to be solemnized in that city on September 11, and upon the failure of Mrs. Milln to return the child as was the regular custom, he notified Judge Stapleton. It then developed that Mrs. Milln and the child had disappeared, as had also Mr. and Mrs. Devers, the only information available being that the latter couple had gone to one of the beaches for a vacation.

It is supposed that Mrs. Milln made arrangements for her getaway while on a visit to Vancouver, B. C., several weeks ago, and persons familiar with all phases of the case are firm in their assertion that the details of her actions were engineered by others than herself.

It is not known definitely what action, if any, can be taken for the return of the child, but it is known that she will not be permitted to thus easily defeat the ends of justice in taking the law into her own hands in the manner in which she has.

Mrs. Milln came from Hongkong about ten years ago, taking up a commercial course in one of the business colleges in Portland. It was while enrolled in this school that she met Mr. Milln and they were married, the ceremony taking place about eight years ago. The details of the charges against Mrs. Milln are still fresh in the minds of the public and require no repetition, and the decision of Judge Stapleton in which the child was taken out of the custody of the mother was generally accepted as wise.

SALEM, Sept. 5.—The smallest population in 40 years was reached at the Oregon state penitentiary on three days in August, Warden Steiner told the board of control at its September meeting yesterday. The total number of men incarcerated in the state prison dropped to 244 on the three days, but due to new commitments, exceeds that number now.

Absence of saloons and an enactment of the 1919 legislature limiting 10 days each month from the period of sentence as a reward for good behavior are mentioned by Warden Steiner as reasons for the drop. The new law has resulted in a large number

PEACE PACT REPORTED TO SENATE WEDNESDAY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Characterized as an alliance and not a league which "will breed wars instead of securing peace," the German peace treaty, including the covenant for a league of nations, was formally reported to the senate today by the foreign relations committee with 45 amendments and four reservations.

It will be the first great document of its kind to be discussed in the open—without the confines of "executive session."

Accompanying the report was the majority report of the foreign relations committee, subscribed to by every republican member except Senator McCumber of North Dakota, explaining the amendments and reservations, all of which, it was declared, were governed by the single purpose of guarding American rights and sovereignty, the invasion of which would stimulate breaches of faith, encourage conflicts and generate wars.

The reservations propose:

- 1.—Unconditional right to withdraw from the league.
- 2.—Declination by the United States to accept any legal or moral obligations of the much discussed article X, or to accept any mandatory from the league except by action of congress of the United States.
- 3.—Reserving to the United States the right of determining what questions are within its own domestic jurisdiction.
- 4.—Absolute reservation of the Monroe doctrine to the judgment of the United States alone.

The principal amendments are proposed to provide:

- 1.—Equal voting power for the United States with Great Britain in the assembly of the league.
- 2.—Giving to China instead of Japan the province of Shantung.
- 3.—Relief of the United States from having representatives on commissions deciding matters in which it has no concern.
- 4.—Others concern phraseology.

STATE EDITORS ASK INVESTIGATION FOR HOULTON PUBLISHER

SALEM, Sept. 8.—Acting upon a report made by the Oregon Editorial association to the effect that Ham Kautzman, former editor of the Houlton Herald, had been made the victim of persecution on the part of District Attorney R. Metzger of Columbia county, Governor Olcott has instituted an investigation into the circumstances surrounding the arrest and imprisonment of Kautzman. Miller McGilchrist, assistant attorney general, is in Columbia county, where he will make a searching inquiry into the situation at the instance of the governor.

FOREST FIRE HAZARD NOW AT MINIMUM IN FORESTS OF OREGON

SALEM, Or., Sept. 9.—Rains of the last have so far curbed the forest fires in the state that in many counties fire patrol forces have been reduced to a minimum. In Jackson, Josephine, Lincoln and Washington counties practically all wardens have been with-
