Macksburg

MACKSBURG, Sept. 25.—With sorrowful regret we record the death of little Caroline, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Roberts, which took place early last week after a painful illness which had afflicted several children of Mrs. Roberts' family but from which all, except Caroline have recovered.

Caroline was a general favorite in the neighborhood and will long be remembered for her sweet and gentle disposition as well as for a bright and winning way which brought her into the notice of all who met her. She had but lately completed her sixth year and was looking forward with pleasure to her first year in school. We wish to convey our earnest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Roberts in the trouble brought upon them by the loss of so lovely and endearing a child.

The public schools are opening one by one as teachers can be secured. The primary department at Macksburg opened on Monday, September 22nd.
