WIRE THIEVES CAUGHT

Men Who Have Been Causing Loss to W. V. S. Arrested in Portland

John Brooks and James Gray were arrested by Special Agent Maher of the P. R. L. & P. Co. and Deputy Sheriff Phillips, of Multnomah county last Thursday night in Portland as they were disposing of copper wire in a junk shop. Later they were released by the Portland authorities, were followed to Clackamas county and again arrested, and were lodged in the county jail Friday morning on a charge of malicious mischief. While they were being held on this charge they were indicted by the grand jury on the charge of having "torn up, displaced and removed pieces of a railroad"—an offense provided by the session laws of the last legislature and the penalty of which is ten years in the penitentiary.

The two men are alleged to have stolen close to 2,000 pounds of bonding wire along the Willamette Valley Southern, and the effort to catch them cost Maher and Special Agents Miles and Eaton of the W. V. S. several nights of much discomfort. The thefts of the men were "discovered several weeks ago, as was a cache of stolen wire. Night after night special agents of the railway company lay out in the dark alongside the track trying to apprehend the thieves as they were cutting wire, but the men were just as wise as the officers, and did not appear. They were eventually caught when trying to make arrangements for the disposal of their loot.

DON'T MISS THIS. Cut out this slip, enclose with 5c and mail it to Foley & Co., Chicago, Ill., writing your name and address clearly. You will receive in return a trial package containing Foley's Honey and Tar Compound, for bronchial coughs, colds and croup; Foley Kidney Pills, for lame back, weak kidneys, rheumatism, bladder troubles, and Foley Cathartic Tablets, a wholesome and thoroughly cleansing cathartic, for constipation, biliousness, headache and sluggish bowels.—Jones Drug Co.

GRAND JURY INDICTS

Many Cases Investigated and True Bills Returned Against Crooks

The county grand jury completed its deliberations Saturday afternoon, and indicted John Balmer, of Canemah, on a statutory charge; and John Brooks and James Gray in connection with the thefts of wire from the Willamette Valley Southern. Two not true bills were returned, one being in connection with William Rutland, charged with assault. Rutland was freed but was given orders to leave the county at once.

The jurors reviewed courthouse affairs and found that the several offices were being conducted in a creditable manner. It was recommended that the county jail be whitewashed, and that some minor changes be made in the arrangement of doors.

Save Two Fishermen

Paul Bunn and John Straight, of Parkplace, this week saved two Portland youths from possible drowning in the river above the falls. The strangers were fishing from a canoe in the river near the mouth of the Tualatin, and their frail craft tipped over. Bunn and Straight sprinted half a mile to a rowboat and put out to the rescue of the unfortunate, who refused to give their names or anything else after they had been rescued.

MRS. CARLIDGE HONORED

Highschool Publication is Dedicated to Teacher of English Department

The last number of the Hesperian, the official publication of Oregon City highschool, is dedicated to Mrs. Pearl Carlidge, teacher of English; for whom the publishers of the bright magazine express the deepest regard and gratitude for valuable services and assistance she has given them. Aside from the dedication, the magazine itself is a tribute to Mrs. Carlidge, and reflects much credit upon the efforts she has put forth to instill into the minds of her charges a love of good English.

The Hesperian is one of the most attractive of the school magazines published in the Northwest, and aside from being filled with readable and snappy articles and stories; shows that its business management is well equipped to carry on that very necessary side of a publication. Plenty of advertising is to be found in the pages of the book, and it is evident from a glance that this advertising was not given "out of charity," but because the merchants represented found that it paid.

JAIL SENTENCE GIVEN

Fritz Boysen Seeks Appeal from Six-Months Gift from Judge

Fritz Boysen, proprietor of the Hotel Belle at Milwaukie, was tried and found guilty of violating the state prohibition law last week, and was sentenced by Justice John N. Sievers to pay a fine of $500 and to spend six months in jail thinking it over. Mr. Boysen was much peeved at the sentence, and declared that there was something radically wrong with justice in this neck of the woods. His attorney, George Stevenson, former municipal judge of Portland, filed notice of appeal; and Fritz was permitted to have his liberty under the same $1000 cash bail which he put up when arrested.

Boysen's attorney waived trial by jury, probably to keep the court costs down, and his defense was to the effect that the liquor found on the premises was rightfully there as the private stock of himself or of his employees. Two detectives, engaged by the county, proved poor witnesses for the state, but a woman brought over from the county jail at Vancouver, Wn., gave enough testimony to make

TIMBERED CAVE FOUND

Dwelling Place of Hoboes or Crooks Discovered near Pudding River

No explanation has yet been reached as to the purpose of a timbered cave, 22 feet long, four feet wide and eight feet high, recently discovered about a mile north of the Pudding river, in this county. The underground hiding place showed signs of recent occupation, and aside from an assortment of cans and bottles contained some dies that had been stolen about a year and a half ago from a Barlow man. It is believed to have been a hang-out for hoboes or thieves.

The cave was made by digging a deep trench and then covering it with boughs, on top of which a thin layer of earth was piled. An opening two feet square was left for ingress. By some it is thought that the cave was the abode of counterfeiters; but this is doubted by the authorities, who say that the dies found were not suitable for fine work.

And now they are talking of going to law to force Hughes' name on the Oregon ballot. The republicans must be desperate.

HARVEY GIBSON CANDIDATE FOR COMMISSIONER

Harvey Gibson

Harvey Gibson has filed a declaration of his candidacy for county commissioner, on the Republican ticket.

In announcing his candidacy for commissioner, Mr. Gibson says he has no interests to serve but the people's interest; that he goes into the contest with the firm determination, if successful, to give his time and thought to the advancement of the public welfare, and that he considers the road problem the most important matter before the people today.

Mr. Gibson is a resident of Barton and has lived in Clackamas county 45 years. He is well known in that community as a successful farmer and has a large acquaintance throughout the county. Mr. Gibson's interest in public affairs is shown in the fact that his neighbors have retained him in the capacity of school clerk and school director continuously during the last 26 years.

If I am nominated and elected I will during my term of office at all times conscientiously and impartially work for the best interests of the taxpayers of Clackamas county, and will exercise my best endeavors in seeing that the money of the taxpayers is justly expended and that a dollar's services will be given for the dollar received. (Paid Adv.)

up for the lack of "pep" to the stories told by the detectives. Some question was raised at the trial as to whether or not an appeal is possible in the case under the prohibition law, especially as "no transcript of the court proceedings was taken upon which claim of error or other irregularity could be based.

IGNORANCE CLOGS COURT

Judge Campbell Says Common Sense Would Save Lots of Money Here

More than nine-tenths of the cases heard in the circuit court, both civil and criminal, are due directly to the ignorance, says Judge J. U. Campbell, who has been observing matters that came before him during the seven years he has been on the bench. Lack of foresight, ignorance and a faulty civilization are to blame for most of the court business, in the opinion of the Clackamas county jurist, and he hopes to live to see the day when there will be far less "lawing."

Judge Campbell says that not only are many of the cases brought before him of trivial nature, largely due to a misunderstanding of ethics and the law; but that litigants would save money for themselves and the county if they would settle their difficulties out of court. These remarks were made to retiring grand jury, which wound up its work last week and submitted its report.

Courts, grand juries, prosecutions and the maintenance of attorneys by the state, at their best, are a costly burden on the taxpayer, said Judge Campbell. Grand juries, in particular, have it within their power to run up bills, but in this regard, he said, the retiring grand jury was considerate.

His Age Is Against Him

"I am 52 years old and I have been troubled with kidneys and bladder for a good many years," writes Arthur Jones, Allen, Kas. "My age is against me to ever get cured, but Foley Kidney Pills do me more good than anything I ever tried." Many people suffer from kidney trouble who need not suffer when they can get Foley Kidney Pills. Mr. Jones, in a later letter, says if it was not for them he would never be able to work in the hay field. Rheumatism, aching back, shooting pains, stiff joints, all have been relieved.—Jones Drug Co.

SHARP SHOOTING, THIS

Hunter of Hawks Puts Bullet Through Own Foot Instead of Bird's

Last Thursday, W. W. Stone, of Barton, while attempting to shoot a hawk, which was bothering his chickens, tripped over a log and in regaining his balance, pulled the trigger of a 38 calibre revolver, which he had in his hand, the firearm being discharged and the bullet passing completely through his right foot, above the toes.

The wound has proven especially painful, and has necessitated regular dressings by Dr. Adix. There is a possibility that part of the sock or shoe leather is still inside of the wound, but otherwise it should not prove other than a painful one, coupled with the inconvenience of being crippled at a time when much work is to be done on the farm.—(Eastern Clackamas News.)

MARINES ARE "PREPARED"

One Branch of Federal Service Experiences No Recruiting Woes

Recruiting for the United States Marines is a simple proposition apparently. For nearly three years the Marine Corps has been kept to overflowing with the most desirable men, and at times a waiting list has had to be maintained.

The attractiveness of the life in the Marine Corps, which includes service on land and sea and in foreign countries, has made the recruiting officer's task an easy one.

The authorized strength of the United States Marine Corps is 9,921 men and 340 officers.

MEADE POST CELEBRATES

Local Veterans Observe Golden Jubilee of Grand Army

The Rev. Father A. Hillebrand, who delivered the principal address at a gathering of Meade Post, No. 2, G. A. R. 25 years ago, when the veterans observed the 25th anniversary of the formation of the Grand Army of the Republic, again officiated as orator of the day last Saturday when members of the local organization of Civil War veterans gathered in Willamette hall to celebrate the golden jubilee of the founding of the great patriotic order. G. A. Harding, department commander, also spoke to the veterans, and A. F. Stokes presented a history of the activities of the local post. Music was furnished by a quartette from the freshman class of the Oregon City high school.

A feature of the gathering was the roll call of original members of the post. But two charter members answered, they being George A. Harding and J. T. Apperson. Meade Post was organized May 6, 1891, with 15 members. The organization was then under the jurisdiction of the Department of California, but on June 24, 1892 it was transferred to the newly formed Department of Oregon. On the muster roll of the post are 381 names, but at present there are but 96 active members; 287 having died, been transferred to other departments or suspended.

Included in the past's membership are eight men who were members of Oregon military units, 14 from Illinois, 10 from Iowa, eight from Wisconsin, seven from Ohio, six from New York, six from Pennsylvania, six from Missouri, four from Minnesota, three from Michigan, and others from other eastern sections.

Armory Plan Sprung

George A. Harding, George Randall and C. Schuebel have suggested to Adjutant General George White a plan whereby militia difficulties in the county seat may be cleared. The three men comprise a Live Wire committee on military affairs. They believe that if the city will turn over to the local company a block on Monroe street, recently released to the city by H. E. Cross, that the county court can be persuaded to donate a sum towards the erection of an armory thereon. If this was done it is believed that sufficient money to complete the project could be secured from the state.

Farmer is Fined

On being found guilty of having tried to sell meat in Wilsonville and Portland that was cut from the carcass of a cow improperly killed and unfit for food, O. P. Nelson, of Wilsonville, was fined $50 in justice court last week. Complaint against Nelson was made by the state, dairy and food commission.

Hodulp men in Spokane took six people captive last week, and one of the six was a newspaper reporter. Being press agent for a robber must be a novel job.

An Everyday Cake

Here is a simple and inexpensive cake that can be varied in many ways with different frostings and icings. It looks a little nicer baked in a tube pan, but will be equally as good baked in a square loaf.

K C Gold Cake

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

1/2 cup butter; 1/2 cup sugar; yolks of 4 eggs, beaten light; 1 cup flour, less 2 level tablespoonsful; 2 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; 1/2 cup milk; grated rind of 1 orange.

Sift flour and baking powder together three times; cream butter and sugar, beat yolks of eggs, add these to creamed mixture, and lastly add the moisture and flour alternately, beating batter until smooth. Gold Cake can only be made successfully by beating yolks of eggs, very, very creamy and light lemon colored, using a rotary beater. The rotary beater is the only one that will do justice to the yolks of eggs. The beating kills all egg taste and improves the texture of the cake.

Cocoanut Frosting

Beat the whites of 2 eggs dry; gradually beat in half a cup of sifted confectioner's sugar and continue the beating until the frosting is smooth, thick and glossy; then beat in grated cocoanut, fresh or prepared, and spread upon the cake. This frosting is made thick by beating rather than by sugar.

Save this recipe. You will want to use it frequently. Or better, send us the colored certificate packed in each 25-cent can of K C Baking Powder and we will mail you "The Cook's Book" containing this and 89 other baking recipes equally good—all by Mrs. Hill. Jaques Mfg. Co., Chicago.
