That on the 20th day of April, A. D. 1916, letters of guardianship were issued to our petitioner by this Court; that our petitioner thereupon duly entered upon the discharge of his duties as such guardian, and that such letters have not been revoked;

That on the 20th day of April, A. D. 1916, our petitioner duly returned to this Court, a true inventory and an appraisal of all the estate, real and personal, of his said wards that has come to his possession or knowledge;

That the following is a description of the Real Estate of said wards, and the condition of said estate, real and personal, to-wit:

East 1/4 of Northwest 1/4 Section Nine (9), Township Three (3) South Range One (1) East of Willamette Meridian, in Clackamas County, Oregon. Each an undivided one-ninth of the foregoing property, subject to the dower of their mother. (This property is inherited from their father, and is unincumbered).

That it will be for the benefit of said wards that their real estate be sold and the proceeds thereof put out at interest, or invested in some productive stock.

IT IS NOW THEREFORE ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that the next of kin of the said wards, Hanna Sereckenbach, Hannah Coelker, Margaret Thole, John Zimmerman, Louisa Zimmerman, Lena Elise, Conrad Zimmerman and Fred A. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED AND ADJUDGED that a copy of this order be published at least three successive weeks in Oregon City Courier, a newspaper circulated in Clackamas County, Oregon, specified herein.

Dated, April 22nd, 1916.

HEAR WITHOUT EARS

Police and Detectives are Using Lip Reading in Place of Dictagraph

Thousands of deaf people are today throwing away all hearing devices and enjoying all conversation. This method is easily and quickly acquired through our system. Absolutely the only thing of its kind in the country. Our proposition is entirely original. We guarantee results, it will amaze you. Cost is trifling. See what New International Encyclopedia says on Lip Reading. Hundreds of people with normal hearing are taking up Lip Reading for the many benefits gained. You can understand what the actors are saying in the moving pictures. You can understand what the people are saying just as far away as you can see them. The eye understands beyond the range of hearing. Send no money, but mention this paper and state whether or not you are deaf. All particulars will be sent you absolutely free and with no expense to you. Address, School of Lip Language, Kansas City, Missouri.

JITNEYS COME AGAIN

Drivers of Plivvers Find Way Out of Their Difficulty

Like love and a few other things, the jitneys seem always to find a way. Notwithstanding the recent municipal legislation against them the jitney men are regularly hauling passengers from Portland, and delivering them either at West Linn or right here in Oregon City.

The jitney ordinance, in spite of the fact that it has been upheld in all its severity by the supreme court of the state, is made fun of by the jitney drivers. Last week signs appeared on Main street and at other auspicious places announcing that jitney service was maintained between West Linn and Portland, with cars leaving the west end of the suspension bridge every hour.

In Portland the station of the Oregon City jitney is announced by a sign which bears the name of the city in large letters and goes on to say that the car travels the Oregon City road to West Linn. Arriving at West Linn drivers instruct their passengers to remain in the car for a free ride across the bridge, unless the probability of apprehension by the authorities appears to be too great. Meanwhile jitney signs are removed and the free ride lands satisfied passengers at this end of the bridge.

In addition to the signs to call attention to the jitney service it is said that the drivers personally solicit trade on the streets of the city, and send their passengers to the opposite end of the suspension bridge where the machine awaits.

Mother's Day May 14

Most of the churches of the county and several other organizations are making special plans for the observance of Mother's day, which is to be commemorated throughout the country on Sunday, May 14. The day will be observed throughout the nation in honor of mothers, and as a mark of respect to mothers on that day young men and women are being urged to write to mother, if she be not present, or to honor her in some other way.

Asks Divorce and Injunction

Mrs. Aletha E. Roberts has filed a complaint in Judge Campbell's court here asking for a decree of divorce from Dexter L. Roberts, whom she married about September 12, 1905. Pending hearing of her prayer Mrs. Roberts asks that her husband be enjoined from coming on property owned by her. She alleges cruelty and threats of bodily harm, and asks that her maiden name, Altha Nicholson, be restored to her.

The people of the United States are undeniably heroic, but not nearly so much so as the dreams of one T. Roosevelt.

VOICES FINE SPIRIT

Expresses Confidence in Great Mass of Foreign Born

America re-awakened in national spirit through lessons of the war in Europe was the theme of an address by President Wilson Monday at the opening of the National service school military encampment for young women at Washington. In concluding the president voiced a warning that the honor and integrity of the United States cannot be tampered with. He prayed that the country should not be drawn into war, but declared that if it should be "in the great voice of National enthusiasm which would be raised, all the world would stand once more thrilled to hear the voice of the new world asserting the standards of justice and liberty."

The president expressed confidence that in time of trouble the great mass of foreign-born citizens of the United States would be loyal.

"I never had the slightest doubt of what would happen when America called upon those of her citizens born in other countries to come to the support of the flag," he said. "Why, they will come with cheers, they will come with a momentum which will make us realize that America has once more been cried awake out of every sort of distemper and dream and distraction, and that any man who dares tamper with the spirit of America will be cast out of the confidence of a great Nation upon the instant."

MRS. WELLS ACQUITTED

Aged Oswego Woman Thanks Each Juror for the Verdict

Just a few minutes less than three hours of deliberation were required by a jury in the case of the State of Oregon versus Mrs. Marcy C. Wells, to acquit the elderly Oswego woman of the charge of defrauding an insurance company through the firing of her houses at Oswego some time ago. The case went to the jury in Judge Campbell's court late Friday afternoon and returned with its verdict of acquittal just before seven o'clock.

Disregarding the testimony of W. H. Newman, who stated that he had been employed to burn the houses owned by Mrs. Wells, and that he was to receive $225 for the job, and the testimony of Mrs. Carrie Bickner, who said she had heard Mrs. Wells make such an agreement with Newman, the jury brought in a mild surprise to the large number interested in the case when it acquitted the defendant.

District Attorney G. L. Hedges and his deputy, Thomas Burke, prosecuted the case and the defense was represented by Walter A. Dimick, Judge Grant B. Dimick and W. Y. Masters, a Portland barrister. The action required practically five days, having started in Judge Campbell's court on Monday morning of last week.

As the verdict was announced Mrs. Wells, seventy years of age, showed great relief and hurried to grasp the hand of each of the jurors, as well as Judge Campbell. The state had a particularly strong case and this was bolstered by the introduction of a mass of conflicting evidence.
