

CANBY DEPARTMENT

CANBY, Ore., Feb. 27.—(Special)—The Canby Five Hundred club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Grant White Wednesday evening. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Eccles, Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Berkman, Mr. and Mrs. Adam H. Knight, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham, Mrs. Clyde Evans, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. White. After a pleasant evening at cards luncheon was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Amanda Evans and Mrs. G. E. Watta, of Portland, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Evans this week. Mrs. Clyde Evans and daughter Miss Violet Evans, are guests of Mayor and Mrs. W. H. Blair this week.

Sebastian Dany of Harlow, was a Canby visitor Thursday.

M. J. Lee was a Woodburn visitor Thursday.

Glenn Coleman of Newport, is visiting friends and relatives in Canby this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Evans were Portland visitors Thursday.

Mrs. Anna Knight, mother of County Commissioner Adam H. Knight, is ill at her home with a severe attack of pleurisy.

Aaron Wait left Thursday for Moore Park, Calif., to accept a position with his brother-in-law, Robert Beattie, a former resident of Canby. Mr. Wait left Portland on the steamer Bear.

The degree staff of Kirk Rebeck lodge No. 124 will hold a special meeting in I. O. O. F. hall on Wednesday evening to reorganize.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Wait were Portland visitors Thursday.

Miss Lavina Sheridan spent Sunday with her sister in Portland.

Mrs. Elmer Howles of Oregon City, was guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Lee Eckerson this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Knight were Canby visitors Thursday visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Bowman.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sleight, of Portland, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Eckerson Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waldron, of Oregon City, and George Penman were guests of Mrs. L. T. Hattin Wednesday.

The local talent in the opera "Hulbul," to be given under the auspices of Canby Lyceum association, is busy at work practicing. Watch for posters announcing the date.

Miss Mahelle Hoffman, of Portland, was a weekend guest of Misses Lillian and Mildred Wang.

Miss Elizabeth Pierce, of Oregon City, attended the dance at Canby Saturday evening.

Miss Audrey Sweet was an Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Adam H. Knight was a Salem visitor on county business Friday.

In spite of the inclement weather and snow the dance given by the Canby Band Saturday evening was a decided success. Every one attending reported an excellent time. Visitors were present from Aurora, Oregon City, Barlow, Macksburg and other nearby towns.

Dr. Walker, who took the place of Dr. H. A. Dedman during the session of the legislature, has returned to his home at Molalla.

James Adkins spent Sunday at Adkins Mills.

William Tice was a Portland and Oregon City visitor Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Burgess, of Astoria, who have been guests of their parents, Mrs. Minnie Bradford and Mr. and Mrs. Burgess, have returned to their home.

Harry Sherwood, principal of the Macksburg schools, was in Canby Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huius, Jr., of Molalla, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huius of Canby.

Mr. Gastrock, who is employed in Portland and Sunday with his family in Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolo, of Macksburg, spent Monday in Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Hewett, of Hubbard, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Grant White.

W. W. Warren, private secretary to Mayor Albee, of Portland, was the speaker of the evening at the M. E. church Sunday evening. He spoke of administration of public affairs and the powers and duties of city officials and parents. He dwelt at length on the fact that a city is just as good as the officials that govern it and the citizens who are the governed.

He spoke on the subjects that occupy the public attention in all municipalities, viz. "Blind Pig" proposition, cigarette question, pool room question, motion picture question, curfew law, and then the chief one to the parent, Where is your boy or girl? There was only a small attendance owing to the weather.

The Canby Lyceum Association will present "The Brewers," a musical trip composed of three ladies. Their program consists of vocal and instrumental music and readings. Like all the Ellison-White Lyceum attractions they come highly recommended and the association hopes will prove as good as the "Criterians" and the Hawaiians. The date will be Friday evening, March 16, at Canby Band auditorium.

Mrs. Anna M. Knight is spending the week in Portland visiting with her son Ralph Knight and family and her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Evans.

James Smith, of Macksburg, was a Canby visitor Monday.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid society served a banquet at the M. E. church Thursday evening to a large and well pleased gathering of local and visiting friends. The price was 50c per plate and was easily worth more. The dinner was enlivened by stories by Prof. Harvey E. Tobie and others. Rev. W. Boyd Moore officiated as toast master. The chief speaker was Dr. Pratt, of Portland. Dr. Henry A. Dedman, State Representative from Clackamas county, spoke on the Oregon State Legislature. Other speakers were Rev. A. J. Josselyn and M. J. Lee. The money raised is part of the fund to be raised by the Ladies' Aid for general purposes.

The Canby high school held a preliminary oratorical contest at M. E. church Friday afternoon to secure contestants for Clackamas county school league contest. The following were winners of the contest: Miss Myrtle Burgess, first; John Robbins, second, and Alvin Deetz, third.

Mr. Skinner, of Mark's Prairie, was a Canby visitor Friday.

H. E. Mulaney, of Transcontinental Freight bureau was in town Friday checking up shipments of W. H. Lucke, W. S. Hurst and W. H. Blair.

Miss Paucett, who has been employed by Mrs. C. A. Will in the confectionery store, has returned to her home in Portland.

Miss Lena Ulen, principal of the Ardenwald school, visited the Canby schools Friday. The Ardenwald schools have followed the new thought idea of following their teachers on visiting day to inspect the work of the other schools of the county, and to visit the teachers training the same work as themselves. Miss Ulen spent the entire day visiting the rooms of H. H. Eccles and Miss Nona Austin.

The Canby school have the same system and have found it very practicable and the results are very gratifying. Miss Ulen was much pleased with the work done in the various rooms and extended invitations to visit her school at Ardenwald.

Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Vedder were visitors at Canby public schools Friday.

Chris Lorenz, of Macksburg, was a Canby shopper Friday.

J. V. Anderson, of Aurora, was a Canby visitor Friday.

Joseph Stefani, of Molalla, former owner of Stefani Lumber company, was a guest of his daughter, Mrs. William E. Maple, Friday.

Arthur Seaton was a Portland visitor Friday. He was accompanied home by his sister, Mrs. Orva Fish, who has been ill in Portland.

Phillip L. Hammond of Oregon City, was in Canby on legal business Friday.

P. O. Stacy made a business trip to Portland Friday.

Miss Lexie Graham, of Macksburg, was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Graham Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Clark, of Molalla, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Bradt and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Lee Thursday and Friday.

Al Reynolds of Macksburg, was in Canby Friday, making arrangements to purchase a car of tile with which to tile his farm.

Henry Kanne, Albert Erickson and John Himmelman, who reside east of Canby, were Canby shoppers Friday.

Roy Parmenter, of Barlow, was in Canby Friday, buying lumber for improvements in his home.

Mrs. Grace Sallor returned Thursday evening from a two-weeks' visit with relatives in Forest Grove, Hillsboro, McMinnville and Astoria.

Mrs. J. Logren, of Wolfer Prairie, was a Canby shopper Friday.

Ben Wolfer, a prominent farmer of Wolfer Prairie, made a business trip to Canby Tuesday.

George Zimmer, of Aurora, was a Canby visitor this week.

Mr. Clark, who recently moved to Tillamook, was in Canby this week, buying cows for his newly installed dairy ranch at that place.

W. W. Wood and Mr. Dugan, of Yoderville, were in Canby on business this week.

Prof. Richards, of Willamette University, was a caller at Canby high school this week. He gave an interesting lecture on various phases of educational life and the Willamette University.

The funeral services of the late Victor B. Mastenbrook were held in Canby Tuesday. The interment was at the Catholic cemetery at New Era.

There will be gospel meetings held in the Christian church of this city on Wednesday evening, February 28 and Thursday evening, March 1st. The services will be conducted by Evangelist J. W. Nichols, of Victoria, B. C. Everyone is cordially invited to attend the services.

E. E. Bowman, chief of police of Canby, has issued warning that after February 15, all dogs and chickens running at large will be confined in city pound and ordinance governing same enforced to the letter.

Arthur Wink of New Era, attended Canby lodge No. 156 I. O. O. F. Friday evening.

Mrs. Gastrock and Mrs. Louise Gastrock were Portland shoppers Saturday.

Sim Lindsay, of Molalla, was a Canby visitor Saturday morning.

George Holzman made a business trip to Portland Saturday.

CANBY, Ore., Feb. 28.—(Special)—Announcements have been received in Canby of the wedding of Miss Payetta Johnson and Mr. Fred S. Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Allen were married at the Benson Hotel in Portland, Tuesday afternoon, February 27.

Several citizens of Macksburg and Canby met at Macksburg school house Saturday, February 24, and formed the Macksburg National Farm Loan association. The following officers were elected: Arthur A. Baldwin, secretary; B. Albiker, John Samuelson and L. E. Moore, directors. They have applied to the Federal Reserve Bank at Spokane for a charter to operate under the National Farm Loan act.

George Zimmer, of Liberal, was transacting business in Canby Tuesday.

Harry Kistler, of Liberal, was a Canby visitor Tuesday.

John Heppeler and Theodore Scher of Macksburg, were in Canby Tuesday looking up the potato market.

A. B. Kammerer, of Needy, was a business caller in Canby Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Stacy were Portland visitors Wednesday.

Canby Encampment No. 124, I. O. O. F. has changed its night of meeting from Saturday evenings to 2d and 4th Tuesdays of each month.

Myrtle Assembly, United Artisans is making plans to build a new hall in Gurley's addition to Canby. Mrs. Ole M. Ogilvie has presented the Assembly with a lot on which to build. The plans call for a bungalow style club room with lodge room, dining room, and full size basement. This will be a splendid home for this rapidly growing organization and the lodge of Junior Artisans.

Joseph Sutherland is the father of a new boy born February 26th. Mother and son doing nicely under the able care of Dr. H. A. Dedman.

The potato growers of Canby and vicinity are intending to plant the usual acreage of potatoes as year in and year out they are our most profitable money crop.

The following pupils of the Canby grammar school were neither absent nor tardy during the month ending February 25, 1917:

Seventh-Eighth Grades—H. H. Eccles, principal; Lolita Hornig, Helen Swigart, Arleen Buhman, Cora Douglas, Alberta Gillmore, Lucile Baker, Hildred Baker, Olive Kendall, Vesta Mark, Rufus Pfister, Earl Mack, Ralph Koehler, Earl Meeks, Harold Ouellet, Oscar Berg, Norma Haines, Amelia Kraft, Genevieve Livesay, Ella Karris, Marion Parter, Violet Russell, Jewell Marks, Hilto Turner, Mortimer Lee, Charles Bates, Howard Helm, Noel Oathes, Raymond Lien.

Sixth Grade—Noma Austin, Teacher: Ivan Meeks, Leonard Huius, Royal Nakano, Chieft Kraft, Lovena Hornig, Opal Wheeler, Ione Fletcher, Florence Rider.

Fifth Grade—Bernard Reese, Ray Lee, Vert Miller, Judith Nelson, Wanda Wallace, Catherine Draper.

Fourth Grade—Frances Potter, teacher: Florence Fletcher, Dorothy Evans, Edward Reese, Earl Lee, Robert McClure, Ivan Haines, George Nakano, Homer Lee, Charles Lebow, Earl Miller.

Third Grade—Zylpha Patterson, Laverna Eckerson, Marabel Bates, Alice Nakano, Edith Carlson, Blanche Kendall, Grace Allen, Annieta Huius, Gladys Walwood, Aletha Draper, Leonard Newstrom, Mitchell Slyter, Gerald Blair, Leonard Roe, Edwin Robinson.

Second Grade—LaVina Sheridan, teacher: Wava Wheeler, Georgia Fletcher, Gladys Dorier, Mildred Lee, Ariens Koche, Edward McClure, Donald Stumm, Archie Chubb.

First Grade—Miss R. Hubbs, teacher: Violet Mainwood, Gertrude Reese, Lillian Russell, Ella Leech, Ivan Arneson, Ralph Earls, Raymond Gardner, Ray Hess, Keith Mack, Ernest Meeks, George McClure, Alden Schaubert, Vernon La Baw, Floyd Homes.

Riverside School—Olive Whipple, teacher: Clarence Lepinsky, Edna Lepinsky, Clyde Dodge, Harold Buhman, Corwin Helm, Katherine Helm, Clarence Stoller, Charlie Stoller, Pearl Stoller, Caroline Dodge, Henry Courd, Ella Samuelson, Norman Christensen.

Rev. De Long, the pastor, preached Sunday morning, February 18. The Epworth league had charge of the evening service and Miss Curtis, head of the Deacons home in Portland, spoke at 8 p. m. At 8:45 p. m. Mrs. DeLong led the meeting, the subject was "Mark of a Christian."

Beginning March 7 or 8, Miss Kissler, Deaconess of Salem Epworth League District, will hold a ten day meeting at the church.

Mr. and Mrs. De Long will go to Dayton, Oregon, Thursday to help Rev. Macey in revival services. A good speaker will fill the pulpit during Mr. DeLong's absence Sunday morning. In the evening the Epworth League will have charge.

Walter Kuehl, Clair and Albert Harpole returned home from the border Wednesday, February 14, with Troop A and Battery A, of which they were members.

Miss Myrtle Williams, agent for the P. R. L. & P. Co., was in Portland on business Monday.

Frank Blackman returned home Friday from Winfield, Kansas, where he went several weeks ago on business.

William Holt, of Port Alberni, B. C., was here for a few days last week visiting friends and looking after his property here.

Martha Feldman is still confined to her bed but improving slowly.

Louis Brandt is improving, but not able to be up.

The Ladies' Aid will put on a play entitled "The Country School," Friday, March 2, in Green's hall.

Mrs. M. F. Hobkirk and Mrs. J. B. Evans gave a Valentine party at the latter's home Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were decorated with hearts and red streamers. The guessing contest was won by Mrs. Warren. Piercing the heart blindfolded was won by Mrs. Burt. Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. A souvenir Valentine was given to each guest.

Tuesday, February 13, Mrs. J. Vosburg entertained at her home on railroad avenue in honor of Mrs. Gibby, of Caldwell, Idaho. The afternoon was spent in playing 500 and in fancy work. The hostess served light refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Prichard, of Montana, are visiting at the home of Mr. Prichard's sister, Mrs. Haywood. The party expects to leave this week for their home.

Miss Ida Van Hying, of Portland, was an over night guest of Hester Armstrong Thursday.

About thirty young people charivariated the newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hastings, Saturday evening at the home of the bride. The party adjourned to the Vossburg hall, where refreshments were served and the light fantastic danced until a late hour.

Oscar Skog returned home from southern Oregon Saturday.

R. E. Emmons left Monday morning for The Dalles, where he has employment.

Mrs. Maud Skog left for Willows, Cal., the last of the week. On her way home she will stop off at Roseburg and visit relatives for a few days.

The Needle Craft and Domestic Science club will meet at the home of Mrs. Thompson on the river road Tuesday afternoon and hold a colonial party.

E. C. Warren has purchased a new five-ton Speedwell truck to be used in delivering rock the coming season. H. Hardisty and men are cutting piling near West Lim. They will haul them to the river and raft them for Portland.

Armstrong and Blackerby contractors are remodeling the old post-office building in the Warren block for a garage for the Warren truck.

About 45 friends of Miss Meredith Hubbard gave her a surprise party Friday evening at her home on the river road. Music games and dancing were indulged in until a late hour. Refreshments were served.

Miss Hester Armstrong played with the Goetz orchestra of Portland for the Grand Army entertainment that was held at Oregon City on Lincoln's birthday.

The Plus Ultra class of the Sunday school gave a Colonial supper Friday evening at the church at 6 o'clock. Fourteen young ladies and Mr. and Mrs. James Burt were in the party.

Mrs. John Waldron presided at the Parkplace Parent-Teacher association Friday afternoon.

Mrs. John F. Risley, of Risley station, entertained Thursday afternoon, February 15, from 2 till 5 in honor of her niece, Miss Ethelind Risley, who is soon to be married to Robert C. Bradshaw of The Dalles. The affair was a handkerchief shower. About 20 young ladies were present.

Mrs. W. M. Rice was a Portland visitor Monday.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley is the son of L. E. Bentley, a prosperous farmer at Twilight, but formerly of Oak Grove. The happy couple left for their home in Portland. Mr. Bentley is employed at the Portland Seed company.

At the Presbyterian manse in Oregon City, February 14, at 2 o'clock, in the presence of a few relatives, by the Rev. J. R. Landsborough, George Earl Bentley and Letha Viola Critser were married. Mr. Bentley