THE DIVORCE ...MILL...

Helen Nyholm was allowed a decree from Erick Nyholm on the same charge.

Alta Graves was granted a decree of divorce from D. Graves in the circuit court here Thursday.

Hannah Hedin was granted a divorce Wednesday from Oscar Hedin on the charge of cruel and inhuman treatment.

W. S. Poindexter was given a decree from Willie Lee Poindexter on the charge of cruel and inhuman treatment.

Bertha Brown, who had entered suit against Frank Brown on the grounds of desertion, was given a decree and the right to resume her maiden name of Bertha Russell.

Minda A. Stopf, on the complaint of non-support, was given her freedom from Joseph Stopf, and allowed to resume her maiden name of Minda A. Warner.

Decrees of divorce were granted Thursday to Ella Springer from John Springer, and to Sophia Marie Barbur from Raymond L. Barbur. The latter is allowed to resume her maiden name of Sophia Marie Lynch.

Flo H. Powell was granted a decree from Philip Powell, and given the custody of the minor children of the couple. The defendant is to be allowed to visit the children. The complaint was cruel and inhuman treatment.

Leona Wannamaker has brought suit for divorce against Henry W. Wannamaker, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married February 14, 1914, and have a daughter two years of age. The plaintiff asks custody of the child and $40 a month for its support.

Lucy G. Pixley claims that George H. Pixley, to whom she was married at Guthrie, Oklahoma, failed to provide for her and the three minor children of the couple. She also says that he has a violent temper, and has at times accused her falsely of being untrue to him. The children are aged 19, 17, and 7 years.

Malala Baker has entered suit against J. L. Baker, alleging that he made her life so miserable that she was unable to live with him. She left him in June, 1918. She says that she was forced to support herself at times even when she was living with him. They were married at Kamakawa, Wash., June, 1898.

Edith G. Romine is suing for divorce from John R. Romine, to whom she was married in Hillsboro, November, 1907. She claims that he has refused to live with her since October, 1908, and will not support her, although he earns nearly $200 a month. She asks the custody of their minor child, $50 a month for its support, and $100 as attorney's fees.

Percy P. Bletch is asking freedom from Sue Edith Bletch, to whom he was married at Vancouver, Wash., December 31, 1917, claiming that she has a violent temper, and has treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner. He alleges that she threatened to kill him, and has told him that she did not love him and would not live with him. He asks a decree and is willing that she be allowed to resume her maiden name of Sue Edith Cantwell.

Lucile Myers and Edward Myers were married in Portland June 5, 1904, and in the divorce complaint filed Tuesday the husband alleges that his wife had treated him in a cruel and inhuman manner for a number of years; declared that he has been a dutiful husband, turned his pay over to her and otherwise treated her well. There are three children of the couple and he agrees that the mother have the custody of these and he will pay a reasonable sum for their support.

Myra H. Keobaugh is asking for freedom from Oris Morris Keobaugh.

DON'T LET A COLD KEEP YOU AT HOME

Dr. King's New Discovery almost never fails to bring quick relief

Small doses once in awhile and that throat-tearing, lung-splitting cough soon quiets down. Another dose and a hot bath before jumping into bed, a good sleep, and back to normal in the morning.

Dr. King's New Discovery is well known. For fifty years it's been relieving coughs, colds and bronchial attacks. For fifty years it has been sold by druggists everywhere. A reliable remedy that you yourself or any member of your family can take safely.

Train Those Stubborn Bowels Help nature take its course, not with a violent, habit-forming purgative, but with gentle but certain and natural-laxative, Dr. King's New Life Pills. Tonic in action, it stimulates the bowels. Sold by druggists everywhere.

How a Father Has Learned to Save Shoe Bills.

"My son is very hard on shoes, so keeping him properly shod has been quite an expense to me," writes Mr. J. Allison Allen, of Amity, Arkansas. "But since I started to buy Neolin-soled shoes for him I have found that it costs only about a third as much to keep him in shoes."

This is because Neolin Soles are so tough and durable that they wear a very long time. Shoe bills are kept down because you don't need so many pairs.

You can get Neolin-soled shoes at almost any good shoe store. They come in all styles and for all members of the family. Neolin Soles are also available everywhere for re-sooling. They are produced by a scientific process to be what soles ought to be: comfortable, waterproof and long-wearing. They are made by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels, guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

to, whom she was married at San Pedro, Cal., May 17, 1901, claiming that she has had to work for a living and that her husband has not even provided medical aid when she was ill. She further alleges that his credit is not good and that she was unable to get credit for the necessities of life, when he was away on his trips as a traveling salesman. She asks the custody of the minor child of the couple, $25 a month for its support, and $75 as attorney's fees.

Bertha Brown entered suit Tuesday against Frank P. Brown, charging cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married in Portland August 29, 1910, and she alleges that soon after the marriage he met another woman and paid her much attention, and on September 20, 1918, took this woman to Tacoma and married her there, and that she knew nothing of this until called to testify against him on a polygamy charge in Portland, where they were living, and when the husband was found guilty of the charge. She asks for a decree of divorce and the right to resume her maiden name, Bertha Russell.

Suit for divorce was entered here Thursday by Beulah McCauley against James McCauley on the charge of cruel and inhuman treatment. Personal indignities have been heaped upon her, she declares, and she further accuses the defendant of deserting her at different times, leaving her without any means of support. She claims that she was forced to call upon her father to help her support her three minor children. In November, 1918, the defendant left her with only 16 cents in her possession to provide for the family. Since that time he has not returned to her. She states that her father is willing to take care of the children and educate them, and she asks that they be given into his custody.

CEMETERY ASSOCIATION HOLDS MEETING SATURDAY

The recently organized Mountain View Cemetery association met Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in the Commercial club parlors. As the sexton, James Curran, is not paid to take care of what is known as the old part of the cemetery, the association plans to take over the care of the graves in that section. Mr. Curran has cut down some of the unsightly trees and kept the long grass cut, but the graves are in need of attention. There are many graves belonging to families who have since moved from this city, and the care of these is included in the plans of the year. The

HOW THIS NERVOUS WOMAN GOT WELL

Told by Herself. Her Sincerity Should Convince Others.

Christopher, Ill.—"For four years I suffered from irregularities, weakness, nervousness, and was in a run down condition. Two of our best doctors failed to do me any good. I heard so much about what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for others, I tried it and was cured. I am no longer nervous, am regular, and in excellent health. I believe the Compound will cure any female trouble."—Mrs. ALICE HELLER, Christopher, Ill.

Nervousness is often a symptom of weakness or some functional derangement, which may be overcome by this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as thousands of women have found by experience. If complications exist, write Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass., for suggestions in regard to your ailment. The result of its long experience is at your service.

Masonic and I. O. O. F. plots will also receive attention. Officers of the association are: Mrs. Rosina Fouts Evans, president; Mrs. Thomas Warner, vice-president; Mrs. C. D. Latourette, treasurer; and Mrs. E. W. Scott, secretary.

Genius is a combination of aspiration and inspiration.
