THE FRIENDS OF BEN OLCOTT, candidate for re-election for secretary of state on the Republican ticket, are apologizing for his political past on the grounds that after all the office of the secretary of state is more or less a clerical one and need not necessarily be political. This "non-political" defense is put out to offset the growing prejudice against Olcott among Republicans, because it has been shown so unmistakably that he is more of a Democrat than he is a Republican.

So far as the actual routine work of the secretary of state's office is concerned, the defense is perhaps in a measure applicable. Any reasonably intelligent office man could handle the secretary of state's office. Its appropriations are generous, the equipment is the best, the deputies are well paid, and the office force is very large. It would be, indeed, peculiar if the office was not well handled. But the routine office work is by no means the greatest responsibility of the secretary of state.

The secretary of state is a member of the state board of control. The state board of control has supreme authority over practically all the state institutions, and has hundreds of appointments under its jurisdiction. It is the political backbone of the state administration. It is composed of the governor, secretary of state and the state treasurer. On it the secretary of state has identically the same authority as the governor.

If the political affiliations of the secretary of state count for nothing we fail to see why they are matters of importance in the case of a governor. And if the politics of the secretary of state or governor or state treasurer are matters of no concern to the voters, it would seem that we might as well disband the Republican and Democratic parties at once, and put an end to the party political system which has thus far been the balance wheel of state and national administrations in this country.

Naturally Republicans want a Republican in this second important office in the state of Oregon. Naturally they want a real Republican and they are entitled to the privilege of making their choice without the interference of Democrats parading under the guise of non-partisans, who are moving heaven and earth to bring about the re-election of the present near-Democrat secretary of state to the end that the Republican party may be embarrassed and that Democracy may again get a stranglehold upon the state administration.

Mr. Olcott is a pleasant gentleman and a reasonably efficient office man. But he is not entitled to Republican support. Charles B. Moores is a man whose record is spotless, who has served his state and his party well and who is exceptionally well qualified to handle the office to which he aspires. Mr. Moores merits the votes of all who are honestly registered as Republicans.

THE COURIER IN ALL ITS RANTING has not disputed a few simple facts, which either have been stated or implied by The Enterprise during the last month. The truth of the matter is that the aforementioned facts are so evident that they could not be disputed by an honest and reasonable person, but, of course, the Courier is not governed by reason. These facts are:

That the Democratic party in Clackamas county, according to registration figures of the last few years, is melting like a chunk of ice on a summer's day and that if the disappearance continues in the same way for a few more years the grand old gang formed by Thomas Jefferson will be in a class with the Independents and Socialists in point of numbers.

That just as great as is the decrease in the number of registered Democrats is the steady and consistent growth of the Republicans in Clackamas county.

That the only hope that this party so hopelessly in the minority has of electing a candidate lies in the Republicans nominating a weak man, and therefore, forcing that great and noble party to rely more on luck and on the weakness of the majority party than on its own power.

That Maxwell Victor is a thorn in the side of the Democrats, and that he at present is causing more or less anguish on the part of the leaders of the faithful.

That the political organization which the Courier represents is at the present time facing a peculiar situation because of the fact that there are only four candidates in the field for the county offices and that none of these four candidates are opposed at the primaries.

The Enterprise might add some observations of its own which will stand up under close examination. For instance, it can state with little chance of contradiction that the decadence of the Democratic party is not confined to Clackamas county, but is general throughout the state of Oregon, if not throughout half the nation. Other counties in this own state of ours are finding the Democrats in still smaller proportion than is Clackamas.

JOHN P. M'ANUS, in referring to the candidacy of C. B. Moores, for secretary of state, says in the Pendleton Tribune:

Through the united efforts of his many friends, Charles B. Moores, chairman of the Republican state committee, has prevailed upon to enter the primaries as a candidate for secretary of state. Mr. Moores is a Republican, not only in name, but in fact. He should receive the united support of his party and in this event will be elected by a big majority.

The present secretary of state, namely, Ben W. Olcott, is not in fact a Republican. He voted for Oz West and contributed financial aid to his election as governor, later rewarded by being appointed by his friend West to the position he now occupies. Olcott soon joined the "non-partisan" combination which was designed to disrupt the Republican party in the hope of perpetuating in power the molasses Republicans and the sly Democrats, selected by the combination because of their fealty to their loved, West.

Olcott parades as a Republican biennially but depends largely on Democratic votes for his success in politics and through his ability to fool Republicans by posing as a member of their party. It has become so generally known among Republicans at this time where he stands and the use to which he employs his high office to belittle the present governor of this state that it is very doubtful if this last of the notorious tribe of Oz West now in public office, will be able to much longer succeed in his deception. He will be one of the alleged Republicans, seeking office at the hands of Republicans this year, that is sure to receive the hearty support of those Democratic papers parading as "independent" for mercenary purposes.

Olcott was doomed to defeat this year though opposed by a man of less high character than Chairman Charles B. Moores, known for years for his loyalty to the party, his high standing among his fellow men and unquestioned fitness to fill the high office to which he aspires.

OFFICERS OF THE OREGON ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE say that they secured their misinformation regarding Sheriff Wilson sprung at Gladstone Sunday night from the Multnomah county sheriff's office. The reason for the stand of Sheriff Hurlburt or his deputies is not puzzling, when the history of the Multnomah county sheriff's office activity in this county is taken into consideration.

The Enterprise does not usually take sides in the campaigns of candidates for sheriff before the primaries, but when an upright man like Sheriff Wilson is made the object of dirty political attacks The Enterprise feels duty bound to come to the defense of the object of the slander.

Taylor, who made the fatal blunder at Gladstone Sunday night, does not know local conditions when he comes here and tries to tell Clackamas county voters that Sheriff Wilson is wet, and that they should vote for one of his opponents for the sake of enforcing the prohibition law. He does not know that if any of the three men in the race is thoroughly dry, that man is Sheriff Wilson.

AS AN ATTORNEY, as a Democrat, as a citizen and as a man, Joseph E. Hedges has won an undisputed place of high standing in the community. He is wise in the ways of politics, his knowledge coming from years of experience and observance. Mr. Hedges says, "I once did say that I would rather vote for eight Republicans than Maxwell Victor. I consider the chances of the Democrats electing Ernest T. Mass at the primary election might slim, because Victor's name is on the ballot and Mass' is not." And then Mr. Hedges adds, "I believe that The Enterprise in its analysis of the situation is correct."

The Enterprise does not budge from its position that the Democratic party—that is, the leaders of the party in Oregon City—are in a state of near panic every time the sheriff's office is mentioned. The Enterprise still contends that the Democratic slate, the plan to nominate E. T. Mass by writing in his name on the primary ballot, is broken up.

Of course, many of Mass' friends will write in his name, and it is to be expected that until about 10 o'clock on the night of May 19, when the returns will be coming in, they will express the utmost confidence in his election. What else is to be expected?

The Courier, battling on behalf of a mistake as usual, in this week's issue resorts to banter, bombast and cant in an effort to answer The Enterprise. The poor old Courier, now a shattered wreck of a newspaper, living in a reflection of its former strength and glory, is in the same shape as the party it represents in this county. Every year brings a decrease in their power and standing in this community.

LAST WEEK the Oregon Voter referred to Ben W. Olcott as a Democrat. This week it says he has always been a Republican. Whether Mr. Olcott is a Democrat or a Republican, most everybody knows that he was a stronger booster of our late spectacular governor, West, who brought the state into ridicule, and that Olcott does not appear to be much of a supporter of Governor Withycombe.

The state of Oregon is greatly in need of new industries and development, and instead of the West administration doing this it was all the time boosting for Democratic politicians, sowing money and new industries from the state on account of many foolish and spectacular absurdities. Since Governor Withycombe has been at the head of the state government Oregon is again in the safe and sane class.

An Oregon City man recently received a Russian paper in which the following prices were quoted: 35 pounds rye flour, present price, $1.75, before the war, 35; 35 pounds wheat flour, present price, $2.50, before the war, 70 cents; 35 pounds pork, present price, $9, before the war, $2.25; 1 pound lard, present price, 35 cents, before the war 5 cents; live cow, present price about $75, before the war $15; ox, present price, $100, before the war $20, and 350 pounds of hay, present price, $10, before the war $3. These figures show that even with the cost of living mounting upwards in these United States, there is one country that has us badly beaten in this regard.

OAK GROVE DEPARTMENT

MOTHER'S DAY WILL BE OBSERVED SUNDAY

OAK GROVE, May 11.—(Special)—In commemoration of Mother's day, next Sunday, May 14, a special program will be given at the Methodist Episcopal church under the direction of pastor, Rev. Dow DeLong, assisted by his choir. All persons attending are requested to wear a pink carnation in honor of the living mother, or a white one in respect to the departed mother.

The Junior league, organized a few weeks ago, will close its sessions for the year after the meeting next Sunday afternoon. This movement is made necessary because the ladies who have been assisting in the work will soon be taking their summer vacations. The work and progress of the juniors so far is highly satisfactory, and the meetings will be resumed in the early fall.

TO ORGANIZE CLUB FOR YOUNG PEOPLE

OAK GROVE, May 11.—(Special)—Walter Harris is behind a movement looking to the organization of a young people's athletic and social club, a preliminary meeting having been held this week in Voshur's hall. Plans were also laid for holding a dance and supper Saturday night, May 20, when the proceeds will be devoted to the expenses of the new organization.

NEW OFFICERS TO BE CHOSEN BY CLUB

OAK GROVE, May 11.—(Special)—Election of officers is the order for the meeting this afternoon of the Oak Grove-Milwaukee Social Service club, which is being held at the home of Mrs. F. W. Llewellyn in Milwaukee. A large attendance of members is anticipated.

LAD HILL.

LAD HILL, May 11.—(Special)—The Lad Hill Commercial Club held its regular election last week and elected officers as follows: A. D. McCully, president; L. J. Tauffert, vice-president; Cleve Heater, secretary; John Sovey, treasurer; Frank Schmidt, sergeant-at-arms; C. H. Ives, Henry Reiffe, John Sovey, Frank Kiser and L. J. Tauffert, directors.

Lad Hill is a new voting precinct in Clackamas county, recently cut off from the Pleasant Hill precinct. It is in the extreme western part of the county, bordering on Yamhill county, and is 14 miles from Oregon City.

The Lad Hill Commercial club was organized a little over a year ago, and probably has the distinction of being the only commercial club in the state whose every member is a farmer. The organization has built a $1200 community club house, which is all paid for, obtained better roads, secured the new voting precinct and numerous other advantages for the district.

Colds Quickly Relieved.

Many people cough and cough from the beginning of fall right through to spring. Others get cold after cold. Take Dr. King's New Discovery and you will get almost immediate relief. It checks your cold, stops the hacking, rasping, tissue-tearing cough, breaks the inflammation, soothes the raw tubes. Easy to take, Antiseptic and Healing. Get a 50c bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery today. "It is certainly a great medicine and I keep a bottle of it continually on hand," writes W. C. Jessemann, Franconia, N. H. Money back if not satisfied. (Adv.)

SUDDEN DEATH

Caused by Disease of the Kidneys.

The close connection which exists between the heart and the kidneys is well known nowadays. As soon as kidneys are diseased, arterial tension is increased and the heart functions are attacked. When the kidneys no longer pour forth waste, uric acid poisoning occurs and the person dies, and the cause is often given as heart disease, or disease of brain or lungs.

It is a good insurance against such a risk to send 10 cents for a sample package of "Anuric"—the latest discovery of Dr. Pierce. Also send a sample of your water. This will be examined without charge by expert chemists at Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel, Buffalo, N. Y. When you suffer from backache, frequent or scanty urine, rheumatic pains here or there, or that constant tired, worn-out feeling, it's time to write Dr. Pierce, describe your symptoms and get his medical opinion without charge—absolutely free. This "Anuric" of Doctor Pierce's is found to be 37 times more active than lithia, for it dissolves uric acid in the system as hot water does sugar.

Simply ask for Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets. There can be no imitation. Every package of "Anuric" is sure to be Dr. Pierce's. You will find the signature on the package just as you do on Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for blood and stomach.

WORRY, DESPONDENCY. Kidney Disease is suspected by medical men when patients complain of backache or suffer with irregular urination, disturbed, too frequent, scanty or painful passage. The general symptoms are rheumatic pains or neuralgia, headaches, dizzy spells, irritability, despondency, weakness and general misery. Worry is a frequent cause of kidney disease. Thousands have testified to immediate relief from these symptoms after using Dr. Pierce's Anuric Tablets.

SCHOOL TO BE VISITED BY G. A. R. AND W. R. C.

OAK GROVE, May 11.—(Special)—The members of the Grand Army of the Republic and of the Women's Relief Corps living in Oak Grove and vicinity will, in the majority of cases, observe Memorial Day by joining with their comrades and sisters in Oregon City. The announcement has just been made that Meade post and Meade relief corps of Oregon City will make a visit to the Oak Grove school at 10 a. m. on Wednesday, May 24.

Oak Grove Locals

OAK GROVE, May 11.—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard, late of Tongue, Ore., have removed to Oak Grove, together with their daughters, Lillian, Stella and Meredith. The children have entered the local school for the remainder of the semester.

Mrs. Will Thompson attended church in Oregon City last Sunday.

Earl Berg, having finished the work in the eighth grade of the Oak Grove school, has accepted a position.

Edward Adams, a former Oak Grove student, now residing in Portland, was a guest of local friends May Day, attending the exercises in the school.

Miss Mary Smith, formerly of Portland, now residing at Courtney station, was May day visitor in the schools.

The Oak Grove school is spending the present week in preparation for the eighth grade promotion work.

Mrs. W. H. Stokes was taken ill last Saturday and Dr. Strickland of Oregon City was called in attendance.

Mrs. Scheffler, who has been quite ill for the past three weeks, is reported to be slowly improving.

Miss Mildred Waldron, daughter of Mrs. John Waldron, is sick at her home at St. Theresa station.

George Story and Ed Olds will attend a big political meeting in Sandy Friday night at which time the latter is to speak.

The Oak Grove locality has been receiving a visit during the past few days from H. W. Koshler of Oswego, deputy county assessor, who has been assigned to this territory in addition to his own home precincts.

Mrs. James Waldron of Jennings Lodge, mother of John Waldron, was removed to a hospital in Portland a few days ago, being in very ill health. Her condition is reported quite grave.

Likes New Home Here.

Among the recent new arrivals in Oak Grove is the family of J. A. Goodell of Portland. Mrs. Goodell, who prides herself as being greatly pleased with her new home. Mr. Goodell is traveling secretary of the Young Men's Christian association, his particular field being missionary work among the laboring men.

Don Lillie has returned home from a Portland hospital, greatly improved in health.

Parant Teachers to Meet. A regular meeting of the Oak Grove Parent-Teacher association will be held in the schoolhouse tomorrow, Friday, at 3 o'clock, and a large attendance of the members is desired as several matters of importance are to be presented.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harder has been gladdened by arrival of a bouncing baby boy who put in his appearance last week.

Visit From Whooping Cough. Whooping cough has made its appearance among the school children of Oak Grove, but up to the present time no serious cases are reported, nor has it made any great inroads upon the school attendance.

Mr. Broetje, the nurseryman at Courtney station, has been filing in the road near his property, greatly improving the highway. He contemplates moving his house nearer the right-of-way of the electric line.

Says Roads Might Be Better. Ed Olds is of the opinion that the roads of Clackamas county can be greatly improved and even then won't be just as good as they might be. He had an experience on the Clackamas heights Monday night that necessitated calling upon a good farmer friend to relieve him. His large auto got stuck in real Clackamas county mud, and Ed would be there yet had it not been for a common team of horses that pulled him to higher and drier land.

Mrs. R. Davenport is again at home after some days spent at the bedside of her sick mother in Falls City.

The voting places for the Oak Grove precincts have been selected as follows for the primary election May 19:

East Side of track—A. L. Bullard's carpenter shop.

West Side of track—School gymnasium.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Oak Grove is again without a meat market. Gus Smith having moved his establishment to Sellwood and leaving next to the Pool grocer. He contemplates serving the people of Oak Grove, however, from that place, with a delivery system. Mr. and Mrs. Smith will take up their home in Sellwood about May 27.

Death of P. E. Day's Father. Percy E. Day of this place was called to Portland last Saturday by the death of his father, William W. Day, who passed away at the home of the latter's daughter, Mrs. R. H. Hobbs, 684 Locust street, Friday night. The deceased who was 74 years of age, left several children, among them being Walter B. Day, the hardware merchant of Milwaukie, two sons and as well three daughters in Portland. The funeral was held Monday in Portland with interment in the Riverview cemetery.

RECEPTION TO BE HELD AT CONCORD. The Parent-Teachers' association met in regular session last Friday afternoon at the Concord school house. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. A. C. Arnold; vice president, Mrs. Harry Spaulding; secretary, Mrs. Tyla Warren; treasurer, Mrs. Lewis Campbell. It was decided that the sewing circle meet every two weeks during summer, and to give a reception June 1 for the newly elected officers, for the new teacher, Miss Inez Bailey, and for Miss Gertrude Lee, who is to leave for her home in the East. It was also decided to remodel the inside of the gymnasium. After the business session and refreshments the circle adjourned for the summer months.

SUES FOR MATERIAL BILL. C. J. Hood filed a suit in the circuit court Tuesday against C. J. Bickmore, H. E. Leonard, E. D. Morris and Anna Stonebush to collect $129.65 alleged to be due on a bill for material and $63 attorney's fees. Forty-six acres on the Abernathy, alleged to have been transferred from one defendant to another in an attempt to defeat creditors, are involved in the action. Earle C. Latourette is attorney for Mr. Hood.

Dangers of Draft. Drafts feel best when we are hot and perspiring, just when they are most dangerous and the result of Neuralgia, Stiff Neck, Sore Muscles or sometimes an attack of Rheumatism. In such cases apply Sloan's Liniment. It stimulates circulation to the sore and painful part. The blood flows freely and in a short time the stiffness and pain leaves. Those suffering from Neuralgia or Neuritic Headache will find one or two applications of Sloan's Liniment will give grateful relief. The agonizing pain gives way to a tingling sensation of comfort and warmth and quiet rest and sleep is possible. Good for Neuritis too. Price 25c, at your drugist. (Adv.)
