

SPECIAL NEWS FROM OSWEGO

Good Program at Grange Meeting

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—With a large number of members and friends in attendance the monthly meeting of the Oswego grange last Saturday proved interesting and enjoyable. The morning hours were devoted to regular routine business, and at noon one of these grange grand dinners was served by the splendidly grange women. The afternoon was given over to the musical and literary program as follows, every number of which was thoroughly enjoyed: Song by the grange; instrumental duet, by Mrs. Meyer and Miss Wilmet; instrumental music, Mrs. Childs; reading of the monthly grange paper, Mrs. P. A. Dickerson; song by the grange; instrumental music, Mrs. Carter; violin solo, Paul Dickenson; instrumental duet, "I Trovatore," Elizabeth and Ruth Stephenson; song, Miss Schmucke; instrumental music, Kenneth Stephenson; recitation, "The Bear Betty Killed," Mrs. Boutz.

Pipe Foundry May Resume Operations

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—Rumor is authority for the statement that the Oswego pipe foundry will shortly resume operations. One of the officials of the Oregon Iron & Steel company, owners of the pipe plant, stated in Oswego this week, that the former was bidding on a large contract for cast iron pipe, which, if secured, would demand the immediate resumption of work at the plant. It is known that small crew of men has been at work at the foundry getting the same in readiness for operation in the near future. This will add between 40 and 60 men to the payroll in Oswego and if for any length of time would mean quite an item to business affairs in this city.

Club Urges Bonds For Water and Sewer

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—Bonding the city for the purpose of owning its water system as well as installing a sewerage system are now among the projects which the Oswego Commercial club discussed at its meeting last Wednesday night and to which it expects to lend its aid in the near future. The club feels that an emergency exists for both systems and intends to begin a campaign of education along these lines before long. Discussion was also given to the matter of installing a bulletin board for club notices and a street sign advertising the location of the club. It being proposed that the first and second baseball teams be consolidated, a committee composed of J. P. Huffman, Douglas Gillies and R. C. Cooke, was appointed to investigate. The entertainment committee reported that the leap year ball, recently given, was a financial success, and much credit was due the ladies' committee, which had charge of the event.

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—The Lake Grove district is to have a postmaster, A. B. Carter, the grocer of that locality, having been appointed on the petition of the people, and he expects to establish and take charge of the office as soon as he receives the proper authority from the headquarters in Washington, D. C. A postoffice will be of much aid and convenience to the people of Lake Grove and greatly appreciated by all.

FUNERAL OVER FEW BONES OF OLD MAN BURNED IN SHACK

REMNANTS OF JAMES HAYCK GIVEN CHRISTIAN BURIAL THIS AFTERNOON.

Christian burial will be given the few charred bones of James Hayck, who was incinerated on the night of January 12 in a shack at Highlands. No inquest was thought necessary by the coroner at the time.

Terrible Croup Attack Quickly Repulsed By Old Reliable Remedy

Well known Georgia store keeper has mastered croup and colds for his family of ten with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. The minute that hoarse terrifying croupy cough is heard in the home of T. J. Barker, of Jefferson, Ga., out comes Foley's Honey and Tar Compound—there's always a bottle ready. Here's what he says: "Two of my children, one boy and a girl, aged eight and six years respectively, had terrible attacks of croup last winter and I completely cured them with Foley's Honey and Tar Compound. I have ten in family and for years I've used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound and it never fails."—keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound always on hand, in your home. One bottle lasts a long time—it's reliable and safe—and the last dose is as good as the first. Get the genuine. JONES DRUG CO. (Adv.)

REMOVING FEED WIRES.

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—The Portland Railway, Light & Power company has had a crew of linemen at work this week removing its feed wires leading from the Oregon City power station into Portland, from the land of the Oregon Iron & Steel company, which position they have occupied for a number of years. The removal of the wires was made necessary by reason of the land being cleared and placed upon the market for homes. The wires are being strung along the county road.

MRS. KIRKLAND DEAD.

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—Mrs. Lulu B. Kirkland, wife of Hugh A. Kirkland of Lake Grove, died at her home last Friday, and the funeral was held Monday from the Finley chapel in Portland, Rev. J. D. Corby officiating. Mrs. M. E. Mullen and Mrs. A. R. Draper sang "Shepherd, Show Me How to Go," "I Need Thee" and "Nearer My God, to Thee." The body was cremated at the Portland crematorium.

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—Mrs. Rossiter is to have charge of the program to be given before the Oswego Woman's club on Wednesday afternoon, March 22. The topic will be Galilees, the astronomer.

H. W. Koehler Will Not Run for Sheriff

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—H. W. Koehler, city recorder, who has been mentioned in connection with the Democratic nomination for sheriff of Clackamas county, and whose numerous friends and acquaintances have urged him to make the race, makes the following announcement in his declining to be a candidate: "I wish to thank my many friends throughout the county, who have expressed their desire that I stand as a candidate for the Democratic nomination of sheriff, and appreciate their goodwill and esteem, but owing to personal matters which mean much to me and demand my close and undivided attention during the next few months, I feel that I cannot in justice to myself either take up the added duties of running for office. I desire to make this announcement at this time so that any good Democrat who may have been holding back awaiting a declaration of my position, can enter the field, in which he can be assured that I will give him whatever aid I can in his candidacy and for his election."

Full Bred Jersey Dairy Is a Model

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—Oswego boasts of a first class dairy establishment, known as the Fullbred Jersey, with A. Villiger and A. Schliess two capable dairymen in charge. The young men are natives of Switzerland, where they thoroughly learned dairymaking and during the two years they have been in America they have been identified with some of the biggest and most successful dairies. They have a large dairy barn, with a capacity of 19 head of stock, and already have 17 head of full bred Jerseys, each one having passed a high test. This barn is the very acme of cleanliness, this being one of the secrets of successful dairymaking. The separator and bottling house, which is separated from the barn, has every modern convenience and is spotless and clean under the most trying circumstances. The young proprietors are meeting with success in their new venture.

Brakeman Loses Leg --Crushed Under Car

OSWEGO, March 16.—(Special).—While engaged in switching work in the Southern Pacific railroad yards in Oswego last Sunday morning about 6 o'clock, Roy T. Burtlew, a brakeman, fell beneath the wheels of a car and had a leg so badly crushed that the injured member had to be amputated at St. Vincent's hospital in Portland, to which place he was rushed by the train crew. Burtlew is 43 years of age, and lives in Portland.

DANCE PAVILION PROPOSED.
